~~NEW CHRISTIAN CRUSADE CHURCH EXTREMIST MATTER~~

Enclosed for Los Angeles is one copy of the Christian Vanguard, the official newspaper of the New Christian Crusade Church.

On 2/12/74, [REDACTED] furnished one copy of Issue No. 27 Christian Vanguard, the official newspaper of the New Christian Crusade Church. The New Christian Crusade Church has an address of Box 3247, Hollywood, California 90028. San Diego indices are negative concerning the New Christian Crusade Church or Christian Vanguard. b2/b7D ✓

A review of the newspaper indicates that it is a white hate newspaper setting forth anti-Jewish, anti-black viewpoint.

Since the New Christian Crusade Church is not known to have any adherence or organization in San Diego, no further investigation is being conducted in this matter at this time.

THE AMERICAN JEWISH COMMITTEE

a statement of program and policy

The front page of this folder with certain statements on these inside pages are photographic reproductions from the original 36 page booklet. No comments, the underlining only has been added. The last page of this folder is a photographic reproduction of a separate sheet showing an ADL report.

Funds for the American Jewish Committee's activities are raised jointly with the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith through the Joint Defense Appeal.

What we do—and what we plan to do in the critical period ahead—differs not only in extent, but in intent and emphasis, from the earlier and perhaps more familiar patterns of operation of the American Jewish Committee.

We believe that early attitudes of hostility are often firmly implanted through Christian teachings which perpetuate historical inaccuracies about Jews and Judaism. Such teachings can, and have been altered as religious leaders and educators have developed new insights into this problem.

We supply Christian religious publications with repaired materials, articles, and stories, depicting Jewish life, Jewish spiritual heritage and Jewish religious values as well as articles on current issues which particularly affect American Jews.

Through the newly created Division of Christian Education of the National Council of Churches, the AJC and ADL will jointly have an unprecedented opportunity to aid in the preparation of lesson materials, study guides, audio-

the ADL bulletin WORKSHOPS

A Technique Developed Eight Years Ago
Has Become a Force in Modern Education

A GROUP of educators—with an idea and a plan—met at Columbia University in 1941 just before the United States entered the war. The European war had taken its toll of lives and human rights. The toll would increase mightily in the next four years.

But these educators were already concerned with doing something about life after the war. Their technique: the first workshop conducted for the training of teachers in the field of intercultural education.

Sponsored by the Bureau for Intercultural Education and Columbia University, that workshop was the model and forerunner for workshops to come. Now the workshop technique has been used in every teacher-training campus in the country where summer course planning.

Typical of recent litigious efforts were "amicus curiae" briefs filed together with the Anti-Defamation League, in the following cases:

Shelley vs. Kraemer, which struck down racial covenants; McCullum case, attacking the constitutionality of released time; Swann case, involving validity of racial segregation by the University of Texas Law School;

Its ultimate goal is, of course, the elimination of discrimination and intolerance from every phase of American life.

Radio Over the last five years, AJC has been responsible, either wholly or in part, for 5,000 radio programs.

With the help and advice of a lay committee consisting of top radio producers, network officers, writers and radio personalities who help to "strategize" AJC's campaigns, our radio activities are multi-faceted and include:

- placing of well-known people on special programs
- feeding facts to newscasters
- stimulating dramatic and documentary productions
- suggesting special "angles" and subjects to producers and writers of quiz shows, discussion programs, children's programs, etc.
- working with producers and writers to inculcate favorable ideas and attitudes with respect to handling of minority problems.

Television offers untold opportunities for introducing educational concepts in terms of intergroup relations into existing programs and for developing new ones.

Magazines and Press Through continuing cooperation with magazine editors and writers we have been able to (a) place important articles and stories having a positive bearing upon Jews and matters of Jewish concern, and (b) have modified or eliminated articles and stories carrying negative or hostile references to Jews.

In the '40's, the necessity for reconstruction and the rehabilitation of Jews and their removal from internment into this country, the necessity for

The workshop technique is a sound method of problem discussion. It can be used for as few as 20 persons and for as many as 100. Under the guidance of qualified leaders, problems are analyzed, discussed, researched, and solutions arrived. Its secret for success: everyone participates. Group involvement in decision-making is decision-making.

In the summer of 1949, two outstanding workshops were held in Denver, jointly sponsored by the ADL and the University of Denver. ADL paid the regular salaries of the teachers and similar programs were made at the University of California, California Baptist, NYU, UCLA and Texas University. ADL consultants, such as Dr. B. B. B. on the West Coast and Dr. E. R. R. in the East helped in case these plans.

From California to Florida to New England, ADL, now and women traveled, numerous hours for their services at workshops. Regional directors and staff members attended more than 35 workshops, discussed problems in intercultural education with more than 2,000 teachers.

Leo Swanson, Director of ADL's Department of Education, guided the overall plan for workshop activities. He started his own summer program in June with a workshop for teachers sponsored by the Minneapolis Public Schools. More than 75 persons participated. He continued through July and August with two workshops sponsored by the Michigan State Department of Public Instruction and the American Jewish Committee's Christian Education, with 120 teachers. The list of ADL's workshop shops is long and the list of teachers who have made inroads into the Jewish community is long. The work has been continuing for two years. It has far exceeded the goals of intercultural education which is today the outstanding movement in the entire field of American education. And of immediate importance—ADL, in a community organization, has been placed in clear cooperation with every Jewish school system, college and university.

Territorialism

TERRITORIALISM, a movement which seeks to solve the so-called "Jewish problem" by establishing an autonomous settlement of Jews in any suitable and available part of the world. The movement is distinct from Zionism in that it does not insist on Palestine as the land of settlement nor is it geared to traditional aspirations for the national and religious renaissance of Israel on its ancestral soil. At the same time, it is also distinct from the usual type of colonization, since it envisages a distinctive and self-governing enclave. Nevertheless, it must be confessed that exponents of Territorialism and sponsors of territorialist projects have not always made it clear whether what they contemplate is (a) a central Jewish state, which is to determine the political standing of all Jews everywhere, or (b) simply the establishment of one or more independent settlements for such Jews as may happen to be suffering oppression. In other words, it tends to be left somewhat vague whether the movement is to be conceived in terms of nationalism or of colonization.

It has been claimed that Territorialism is as old as the settlement of the Hebrews in the territory of Goshen, while the independent Jewish principalities in pre-Islamic Arabia, Ethiopia and elsewhere have also been cited as prototypes of the movement. Such examples, however, are misleading. THE INHABITANTS OF GOSHEN WERE HEBREWS, NOT JEWS, while in the other cases we are concerned with local administrations, not with central colonies receiving Jewish refugees from all parts of the world. Historically speaking, Territorialism may be said to have arisen in the wake of the Inquisition, and to have been born primarily of a desire to find haven for Jews expelled from the Iberian peninsula. Thus, in 1652 a project was initiated by Joseph Nunez da Fonseca to establish a Jewish colony in Curacao, and in the following year he was delegated by the Council of Holland to transfer Jewish families to that territory, under the patronage of Jan de Ilan. A little later, similar plans were devised for settling in Surinam Jews exiled from Brazil on its reconquest by the Portuguese, while in 1659 the French West India Company accorded rights to David Nasi to establish a Jewish settlement in Cayenne.

The persecution of Jews in Eastern Europe during the 18th cent. likewise inspired a number of territorialist projects. In 1790 a Polish writer named Abraham Hirszenowicz proposed that Jews be settled in the Ukrainian province of Poland, although not upon an independent basis. In 1815 the Polish priest Xavier Szanowski suggested that the Congress of Vienna grant special territory to the Jews, while ten years later the Decembrist Pestel put forward a plan for a Jewish enclave in Asia Minor. Simultaneously, schemes were formulated in the United States for settlement of Jews in Mexico and in land between the Upper Mississippi and Tennessee rivers. The most ambitious and grandiose of the American projects was undoubtedly the founding of the colony Ararat by Mordecai Manuel Noah in the Niagara River near Buffalo in 1825, but this never went beyond the stage of formally laying the cornerstone.

Agitation for an autonomous Jewish settlement received fresh impetus from the Russian pogroms of the 1880's. In 1887 an anonymous Galician writer proposed the creation of a "New Judaea" between the Nebraska, Kansas and Arkansas rivers, while when Leo Pinsker published his famous Auto-Emancipation in 1881, his demand for a land for the Jews was conceived in territorialist rather than Zionist terms. Similarly, the project envisaged by Theodor Herzl in his Der Judenstaat was for the establishment of a Jewish state on any available territory. It was only later, when he acquired a following among Jews of a more traditional mold, that this project became political Zionism.

The most significant phase of Territorialism began in 1905, when the Seventh Zionist Congress rejected an offer by the British government to create an autonomous Jewish settlement in Kenya (the so-called

TOYNBEE EXPOSE!

Jewish Race Mixing Plans Destroyed Hellenic Civilization Too!

...The Hellenic experience was quite different. A revulsion against the immaturity of the traditional Hellenic religions had already begun to torment Hellenic souls before the fifth-century enlightenment deprived them even of these unsatisfying substitutes for a mature expression of religious faith. When the triumphal progress of their military and intellectual conquests brought the post-Alexandrine Hellenes into contact with full-blooded non-Hellenic religions, whose spiritual value and efficacy seemed to be guaranteed by the large-scale voluntary allegiance that they commanded, the Hellenic reaction was rather to envy their adherents as privileged possessors of a spiritual pearl of great price than to pity them as the dupes of an unscrupulously fraudulent priestcraft. Even the syncretistic religious cults devised by coldly calculating post-Alexandrine Hellenic statesmen - such as Ptolemy Soter's attempt to bring his Egyptian and Hellenic subjects together on common religious ground through his manufacture of the hybrid divinity Sarapis, or the Romans' institution of Caesar-worship as the religious symbol for their Hellenic universal state - were tributes to their Hellenic subjects' horror of a religious vacuum, besides being designs for taking advantage of their non-Hellenic subjects' religiosity. This receptive attitude of the post-Alexandrine Hellenic conquerors towards the religions of the societies which Hellenism had taken captive on the intellectual as well as on the military plane was one cause of the momentous religious consequences of the aggressive Hellenic Civilization's impact on its contemporaries.

The second difference between the expansion of Hellenism and the expansion of the Western Society is also the more crucial. THE MOST FATEFUL SINGLE EVENT IN ALL HELLENIC HISTORY WAS THE IDEOLOGICAL AND RELIGIOUS COLLISION, IN COELE SYRIA IN THE SECOND CENTURY B.C., BETWEEN HELLENISM AND A SYRIAC RELIGION, JUDAISM, which, by that date, had adopted some elements of an Iranian religion, Zoroastrianism (e.g. the beliefs in God's Holy Spirit and in a future Last Judgment). EVENTUALLY THE HELLENIC WORLD WAS CONVERTED TO A RELIGION OF JEWISH ORIGIN THAT WAS, AND REMAINED ESSENTIALLY JUDAIC IN ITS INSPIRATION AND ITS PRINCIPLES, notwithstanding its compromises with Hellenism in the fields of theology and visual art, and its adoption, into its pantheon, of the Great Mother of God - a deity that had been evicted from Judaism but had survived as Cybele in Asia Minor and as Isis in Egypt. This conversion of the Hellenic World to Christianity (ed. note: to a Judaized and perverted pseudo-Christianity) was the end of the Hellenic Civilization. As a result of the conversion, Hellenism lost its identity.

THUS, UNLIKE THE WEST AS FAR AS WE KNOW TO DATE, THE HELLENIC CIVILIZATION WAS ULTIMATELY DISSOLVED AS A RESULT OF THE MOST MOMENTOUS OF ITS ENCOUNTERS WITH ITS CONTEMPORARIES. THE (JEWISH) SYRIAC CIVILIZATION IN FACT TOOK ITS CONQUEROR CAPTIVE BY A SUBTLE PROCESS OF CULTURAL DECOMPOSITION AND AMALGAMATION...

Ed. note: Cultural decomposition is the inevitable result of mongrelization caused by amalgamation, which is another name for integration, and the culture destroyers of this world are accomplishing their objectives by forcing "equal opportunity" and "civil rights" programs against all White peoples everywhere, but they are now doing it more aggressively than ever before. At this point in time, the same race of people are destroying our civilization that destroyed all civilizations in the past, and by the same methods, and they are using the tremendous power of their unlimited wealth to buy the services of greedy, unscrupulous and influential people, to further their nefarious program of race and culture destruction. These people are obsessed with an illusion: they envision themselves as masters of the earth and all other people as their slaves; and, in their mad desire to accomplish this, they try to change or destroy everything that stands in their way. This is the basic cause of all troubles in the world, now, as it has been for countless thousands of years past.

NEW CHRISTIAN CRUSADE CHURCH

This investigation is based upon information which indicates that the New Christian Crusade Church (NCCC) is engaged in activities which could involve a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2384, (Seditious Conspiracy) and Chapter 12, Section 241, (Civil Rights Act of 1968).

[REDACTED] made available a copy of "NS Bulletin" self-identified as a publication of the National Socialist White People's Party (NSWPP) (a characterization of which is contained in the appendix hereto). This issue dated January 1, 1969, contained a warning to readers about a "right-wing profiteer" named [REDACTED] This bulletin contained the following:

"Members and supporters will remember his Hollywood 'Nazi Party' which folded after several thousand dollars had been squeezed from that gimmick... [REDACTED] has undertaken fresh efforts to bilk the unsuspecting with the sale of Swastika jewelry and reprints of early Party literature... These are peddled under the name 'Sons of Liberty'".

NEW CHRISTIAN CRUSADE CHURCH

This bulletin referred to Sons of Liberty as one of [redacted] fronts and said [redacted] was nothing more than a greedy fraud. b7C

[redacted] advised in April 1970, that [redacted] functioned as [redacted] Sons of Liberty, which he used for literature sales. b2/b7D/b7C

[redacted] advised in May 1970, that Sons of Liberty was a "paper outfit" which had no national organization and that [redacted] was "the local organization". b2/b7D/b7C

[redacted] advised in November 1972, that Post Office Box 3247, Hollywood Station, Los Angeles, had been issued on August 24, 1970 to [redacted] for an organization named NCCC, 6715 Hollywood Boulevard, Suite 284, Los Angeles, California. As of November 1972, this box was still issued to the NCCC and the latter was identified as being of a religious publishing and distributing nature. b2/b7D/b7C

[redacted] advised on October 2, 1970, that the NCCC, Post Office Box 3247, was distributing a leaflet containing an article on "Why Race-Mixing is anti-Christian". The author said his ministry was anti-Jew and anti-Negro. The author wrote that the Jews were usurpers of the "Chosen People" title and position which rightfully belonged to the "True White Israelite people". He wrote there would be bloodshed in this country between whites and negroes with Jews on the sidelines egging on the fight. This article was written by Reverend David K. Stacey. b2/b7D

[redacted] advised that on or about October 2, 1971, both [redacted] and Sons of Liberty had apparently moved from 6715 Hollywood Boulevard, Los Angeles. b2/b7D/b7C

[redacted] made available a copy of Christian Vanguard dated April - May 1971, Issue Number 1, and also a letter on the letterhead of NCCC, Box 3247, Hollywood, California, dated April 19, 1971 addressed to "Dear Christian Patriot". The letter enclosed the "first issue" b2/b7D

Issue number 1 of Christian Vanguard identified itself as the official publication of the NCCC, Post Office Box 3247, Hollywood, California. The article on page one was captioned "Future of the Various Races". The editor was identified as James K. Warner. This issue contained a form which could be utilized as a membership and subscription application for the NCCC in Hollywood. The membership required $10.00 for one year which included a subscription to 12 issues of Christian Vanguard. The form included "I am a White Christian and want to help in the New Christian Crusade's fight for Christianity and the White Race."

[REDACTED] advised in June 1971 that a new Jew baiting organization named NCCC at Hollywood was soliciting memberships by mail and was [REDACTED]. The NCCC listed books for sale by William P. Gale and others. Source stated that the listing of books by Gale indicated that Gale was a supporter of [REDACTED] and his "church" organization. Source said that [REDACTED] stated his publications are Christian Vanguard and Sons of Liberty Newsletter. Source further advised that an undated NCCC letter advised that all those joining would be sent membership cards and receive newsletters and leaflets.

[REDACTED] advised that a letter written by [REDACTED] on the letterhead of the NCCC, Hollywood, dated June 1971, advised that they had a chance to purchase a mailing list of "right wing" religious people and introduce them to "this Identity message". He wrote that all work done by the NCCC was voluntary and that he received no pay of any kind for work done. He indicated he was fighting for Christ and the White Race. This source also made available a notice of [REDACTED] regarding a Sons of Liberty and NCCC National Convention to be held July 3 and 4, 1971 at the Congress Inn, 12800 Michigan Ave., Dearborn, Mich. Another organization was also holding its National Convention then in that area and "patriots" attending would have a chance to meet officials of other patriotic groups. [REDACTED] wrote there would be a gathering of several other patriotic groups in that area at that time.

[REDACTED] made available Issue number 2 of Christian Vanguard dated June - July, 1971. It identified [redacted] advised that a letter of [redacted] headed "Sons of Liberty and New Christian Crusade Church" announcing that on the weekend of July 3 and 4, 1971, "we" are holding our first National Convention and Leadership Conference at the Congress Inn, 12800 Michigan Avenue, Dearborn, Michigan. That location was picked as it would fit in with the gathering of several other "patriotic" organizations.

b7C

[redacted] advised that in October 1971, [redacted] was active in putting out racist literature through the mail under the cover of a church which he headed, the NCCC.

b2/b7D/b7C

[redacted] advised in November 1971 that [redacted] indicated he was engaged in so-called "church work" even though he had expressed himself as not believing in God. [redacted] had recently moved to [redacted] telephone number [redacted]

b7C

In November 1971, [redacted] referred to the Christian Vanguard as a new racist White Christian paper. Source stated Warner was its editor and he had several "Reverends" as contributing editors including Bertrand L. Comparet, a racist rabble rouser.

b2/b7D

[redacted] advised on November 10, 1972, that Sons of Liberty, Hollywood, was a book selling organization which [redacted] had used to make money. It had no national organization, no members and no meetings. As an organization, it existed only on paper and was not a membership organization. Source advised that [redacted] had become interested in the right wing New Christian Crusade Church which he had started up. Source stated the NCCC was anti-Negro and anti-Semitic and that it occupied no conventional church building.

[redacted] advised in November 1972 that [redacted] announced that their "national meeting"

b2/b7D/b7C

to be held at the Los Angeles Hilton, 930 Wilshire Boulevard, Los Angeles, California.

[redacted] in December 1972 advised that the NCCC b2/b7D was a right wing organization based upon white supremacy and that the "supposed national meeting" of the NCCC had been held at the Los Angeles Hilton, December 3, 1972, with approximately 65 in attendance. Among those present were guest speakers [redacted] and b7C Bertrand Lewis Comparet. Another speaker, [redacted] expressed disappointment at the small turnout. [redacted] acted as master of ceremonies and made introductions of guests. Among others present was [redacted] who was also a speaker. The talks were along the neo-Nazi line with an appeal to those present to recruit new members into the organization. William Potter Gale of Identity Group (a characterization of which is contained in the appendix hereto) did not appear.

[redacted] advised that the Christian Vanguard, b2/b7D Issue number 19, dated April 1973, identified the real enemies of Christianity and the White Race as being the Jews. This issue contained a list of books which could be ordered through the NCCC. This issue contained a notice that for church services in the New York City area, "Rev. Adone S. Pirrone, Founder, New Christian Crusade Church of N.Y.C" should be contacted. The address furnished was G.P.O. Box 2501, New York, New York, 10001. Another notice said that for time and place of services in Southern California, one should write to Reverend Bertrand Comparet, Box 2431, San Diego, California.

Another notice in this issue headed "Chicago People know your Identity!" advised attending a meeting each Sunday at 2:00 p.m. and hearing Identity tapes by Reverend William P. Gale, with [redacted] b7C [redacted] who were the [redacted] Another notice advised that Reverend Bertrand L. Comparet was on radio station KTYM (1460 K.C) in the Los Angeles area Monday through Friday at 11:15 a.m.

[redacted] advised during May-June, 1973 that b2/b7D

NEW CHRISTIAN CRUSADE CHURCH

[REDACTED] made available the January 1974 issue of Christian Vanguard, Issue number 27, containing 12 pages. Among contributing editors of this publication were Reverend Joshua Nunn, James Combs, Barabbas, Judge Raymond L. Drake and James Miller. An advertisement in this issue advised that NCCC would rent a film called "Your Identity" for $15.00. This film ran for 15 minutes and was [REDACTED]. It was made in 1973 and was said to be ideal for convincing people that Caucasians are "God's real chosen people". It was stated that this film was based on studies made by various people including Colonel W. Gale, Doctor B. Comparet, [REDACTED] and others. b2/b7D b7C

This issue listed various books which could be ordered through NCCC, Hollywood, and through Sons of Liberty, Post Office Box 1896, Hollywood. This issue advised that the NCCC building fund was off to a slow start and that facilities were needed for their printing plant. Also a large meeting room was needed, along with a bookstore and living quarters for personnel that would guard the building. It was said that when the money needed for the down payment on a building was secured, then "We" will become more active and reorganize the "Christian Defense League". It was indicated that the building fund had gained $813.50 from November 15 - December 15, 1973.

[REDACTED] advised that the NCCC held a meeting on January 6, 1974, at Oneira Hall, 4649 Hawley Boulevard, San Diego, California. [REDACTED] spoke of food in capsule form for survival in case of emergency. At this meeting, [REDACTED] of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (a characterization of which is contained in the appendix hereto) was a speaker. Another speaker identified the real enemies of our country as being the Jews and the blacks. He states that the goals of the NCCC were: (1) To inform the public who the real Israelites are - the Caucasians. (2) To build a substantial building to house the NCCC headquarters in Los Angeles, which would also be used for protection of papers and for holding meetings. b2/b7D b7C

[REDACTED] advised that [REDACTED] attended a meeting b2/b7D / b7C

NEW CHRISTIAN CRUSADE CHURCH

[REDACTED] advised in March 1974 that the NCCC, b2/b7D Hollywood was a white racist organization which promoted the concept that all Caucasians are the true Israelites and descendants of Adam as opposed to members of other races. Source advised Bertram L. Comparet is the leader of this group who conducts monthly meetings in San Diego.

[REDACTED] made available copies of two letters b2/b7D headed New Christian Crusade Church, Post Office Box 3247, Hollywood. One was dated June 1974 and the other March - April 1974. Both were from [REDACTED] and addressed to "Dear b7C Christian Friend". Each of the letters solicited money for contributions towards the general fund or the building fund. In the June letter, [REDACTED] stated that by the time the recipient of the letter received it, he, [REDACTED] should be on his way to the "right wing" European Youth Congress in Barcelona, Spain. This was referred to as an anti-Jewist congress. [REDACTED] was to speak at it on the subject of international cooperation between various right wing groups. Set forth below are the conditions of the two page March - April 1974 newsletter.

The purpose was to unify various factions of the right wing. Source identified [REDACTED] as being with the "New Christian Crusade".

[REDACTED] on October 13, 1974 provided the following information which was contained in an article entitled, "City Survival - City Resistance," which appeared in the October, 1974 issue of "Christian Vanguard" published by the NCCC.

This article stated that personnel for the resistance movement should be recruited. It is better to have a small group that is completely trustworthy than it is to have a large group filled with informers. Each member should be trained in the familiarization of as many weapons as possible, including hand guns, shot guns, bolt action and automatic rifles, incendiarys and demolitions. Each member should also be familiar with intelligence, communications, photography, map and compass reading, sniper techniques, etc.

The article mentions the great importance of radio operations and technicians. This would include repair and operation of ham radio equipment. The article concludes by urging expertise in markmanship and first-aid.

[REDACTED] made available copies of the August and October 1974 newsletters of the NCCC [REDACTED] In the October 1974 newsletter, [REDACTED] said the 1974/1975 Sons of Liberty book list would be out in November. He wrote that he supported himself through book sales with his own corporation, Sons of Liberty. He said he became involved in the "right wing" over 17 years ago. He wrote that he was fighting against the "anti-Christ" and to this point had been paying for most of his travel expenses in behalf of NCCC out of his own pocket. To protect Constitution

Idaho men organize 'Posse Comitatus' to get charter

REXBURG GROUP FORMS POSSE

by Richard W. Bevan

The court hearing of a Rexburg, Idaho man forced to defend himself against the Occupational Safety and Health Acts (OSHA) arbitrary and unreasonable fines prompted seven of the Counties citizens to file a charter of Posse Comitatus.

This Posse is made up of members of our Citizens For Better Government Organization, a Madison County group of concerned people who feel our Constitutional rights are being infringed by the federal and state governments. Unfortunately our motives have been misunderstood by many of the local folks. Some of these being the political and social leaders of the community. Evidently it is hard for people who have had a free reign to swallow the fact that citizens are starting to awaken and challenge the time honored powers of all stages of government.

We view with alarm the gluttonous appetite for power of government officials who seem to pay little attention to the wishes of the people. Our own sheriff, a good man, but who's knowledge of the Constitution seems to be very limited, referred to us as "a bunch of vigilantes". It was this statement, made to members of the local press, we thank for much of the publicity we received even though most of it was negative.

We feel there is some difference between the Posse Comitatus and the usual vigilante committee although their purposes may be nearly the same. The dictionary lists Posse Comitatus as: The power of a county — law — the body of men which the sheriff is empowered to raise in case of emergency — etc.

The sheriff has the right to call all men between the ages of 18 and 45 and all others who may volunteer. Since the sheriff is the servant of the inhabitants of the county, it is not his choice as to whether the Posse is organized although he has the decision of using it or not.

Vigilantes are generally a secretly organized group of citizens with the desire to punish law breakers whom the elected lawmen fail to deal with properly. As in the case of the Plummer gang (Virginia City, Montana) in the gold rush days, Henry Plummer, the sheriff, was also the leader of the gang. He was hanged along with 25 of his henchmen. The vigilantes performed an invaluable service to that part of the territory.

It is hoped that the mere presence of posse comitatus will serve as a warning to all public officials to perform in their various duties without encroaching on the rights of the people. This nation has been asleep while our enemies have been busy infiltrating the high places in government. It is time to stop them where it counts, at the grass roots.

The unconstitutional laws cannot be enforced if the people stand their ground and demand God-given rights.

It is our understanding that Posse Comitatus is being implemented in an increasing number of counties across the country, if so, we feel the battle is not yet lost. We wish to encourage all who may desire to join us in our own county, and all other counties to support us by organizing the same way. It can do no harm and it may well save this nation from socialism. If the sheriff fails to act in his duty to protect constitutional rights of any or all citizens of his county, it then becomes the duty of the posse to see that he is removed from office. Also to see that the offenders are punished. This is a lawful constitutional prerogative of the people given by God for the control of tyranny. Let us use it in a righteous endeavor to regain lost freedoms and to let the world know that to us the Constitution is still the supreme law of the land and that we intend to have it no other way.

A growing number of Christian Americans, increasingly appalled at the worsening conditions in these United States, are beginning to realize that action must be taken to prevent their public servants from completely destroying this once great Christian Nation.

These Christian Americans have come to the knowledge that their public servants are not obeying, and have no intention of obeying, the Constitution of the United States and the Christian Common Laws as have been provided for the Government of our land.

Noah Webster, in his original dictionary of 1828, defined Law in a very applicable way in his "general definition" as follows:

"In general, law is a rule of action prescribed for the government of rational beings or moral agents, to which they are bound to yield obedience, in default of which they are exposed to punishment."

The Posse Comitatus

By Authority of

The Constitution of the United States

In the formation of this Constitutional Republic, the COUNTY has always been—and remains to this day—the TRUE seat of the government for the citizens who are inhabitants thereof. The County Sheriff is the only legal law enforcement officer in these United States of America.

The Sheriff can mobilize all men between the ages of 18 and 45 who are in good health and not in the federal military service. OTHERS CAN VOLUNTEER! This body of Citizens is the SHERIFF'S POSSE. All of them serve when called by the Sheriff. The Title of this Body is POSSE COMITATUS.

This Posse is the entire body of those inhabitants who may be summoned by the Sheriff, or who may volunteer, to preserve the public peace or execute any lawful precept that is opposed. Since the Sheriff is the servant of the citizens who are inhabitants of the County, it is not his choice as to whether or not the Posse is organized and brought into being. It is only his choice as to whether or not he wishes to use it.

The Sheriff is under Oath of Office to uphold, preserve and defend the Constitution of these United States and the State in which his COUNTY exists. NOTHING MORE! It is his duty to protect citizens from unlawful acts of any person, including agencies of government. It should be emphasized that this protection extends to citizens who are being subjected to unlawful acts by officials of government, whether these be judges of Courts or Federal or State Agents of any kind whatsoever.

The Constitution of these United States is the SUPREME LAW for the means today what it meant when it was written. For example, the Ninth Amendment says, "The enumeration in the constitution of certain rights shall not be construed to deny or disparage others RETAINED by the people." This simply means that because the contract enumerated rights for the States, that the listing of these rights does not mean that the same must be done for the People but that the PEOPLE retain ALL RIGHTS without having them enumerated in the contract. The Tenth Amendment says, "The powers not delegated to the United States by the constitution, nor prohibited by it to the states, are reserved to the states respectively, or to the people." This simply means that the Federal government has ONLY those powers which have been listed for it in the Constitution. If the power is not listed, then the Federal Government DOES NOT HAVE IT! All powers not listed for the Federal Government in the CONTRACT, remain with the States or to the People.

POSSE ACTION: County Sheriffs must be advised of the instances where unlawful acts of officials or agencies of government are committed. It is the duty of the Sheriff to protect the local citizens from such unlawful acts. Once he has been advised and refuses to perform his lawful duty in respect to the matter, the Posse Comitatus has the lawful right under natural law to act in the Name of the Sheriff to protect local jurisdiction. Since the Second Amendment to the Constitution says, "... the right of the PEOPLE to keep and bear arms in the execution of the law, any act of any legislature or directives issued by the Judiciary or Executive notwithstanding, Agents may be made. The criminal may unlawful Orders from Judges or the Courts. They are the Judiciary but the Sheriff is of the Executive branch of our government. He is responsible to protect citizens, even from unlawful acts of officials of government. If he refuses to do so, he should be removed from office promptly.

Since the formation of our Republic, the local County or Parish has always been the seat of government for the body politic (the people). A County (or Parish) government is the highest authority of government in our Republic as it is closest to the politic (the People) who are, in fact, the GOVERNMENT. The County Sheriff is the only legal law enforcement officer in the United States of America. He is elected by the body politic and is directly responsible for law enforcement in his county. It is his responsibility to protect the body politic (people) of his county from unlawful acts on the part of anyone, including officials of government. His Oath of Office is to uphold, preserve and defend the Constitution of these United States and the State in which his County exists. He may be required to do no less and no more in the performance of his official duties.

CONCLUSION

All citizens who volunteer as members of locally organized POSSE COMITATUS should research their local LAW LIBRARY on the subject of "Posse Comitatus." You will learn that the Natural or Common Law of your country provides for the Posse Comitatus and for Posse action. In some instances of record the law provides for the following prosecution of officials of government who commit criminal acts or who violate their Oath of Office: "He shall be removed by the Posse to the

Christian Conscience and the State

By R. Donovan

Concurrently with the preaching of the Social Gospel which has become the norm of the Organised Churches, there has arisen within those churches what has become known as "Christian Conscience," an embrace concept of "Church Thought and Action" which has been accepted generally as conforming to Christian ethics as laid down in the Gospels and in the writings of the Apostles.

The ramifications of "Christian Conscience" have covered a wide range of subjects but none more so than that which has been occasioned by the South African Defense Further Amendment Bill at present in Draft form before Parliament, and which has received a wide coverage by the South African Press.

Among the provisions of the Bill is a clause which is generally considered to be a restriction on the rights of any person to refuse to render any military service on the grounds of "Conscientious Objection," and on any discussion which may aid or encourage such person to adopt such an action when called upon to serve in a military capacity.

This particular clause has raised a storm of controversy not only in Parliament, but throughout South Africa, and more particularly within the Organised Churches both Roman and Anglican, and within the churches under the auspices of the South African Council of Churches.

The Board of the Southern African Catholic Bishops Conference has publicly stated that should the Bill become law it would disobey the provisions of the Bill and has called upon its clergy and people as well as those of other churches to disobey it as well, on the grounds that it is an extreme measure INCOMPATIBLE WITH CHRIST'S GOSPEL OF PEACE.

Archbishop Denis Hurley, Roman Catholic Archbishop of Durban holds that because of the unjust situation in South Africa, young South Africans should refuse to fight on the borders, as to do so would be to support Apartheid. He further advocates that conscientious objection to military service should be adopted as a principle of the churches. He declared that unless we can reach understanding between Blacks and Whites in church members of military age to consider seriously the question of bearing arms in defense of South Africa with its sociological inequalities, maintaining that to do so was contrary to Christian ethics.

The leaders of the South African community of the Anglican Church supported the stand of the Roman Catholic Bishops, and as a lone voice crying in the wilderness of ecclesiastical dogma, Dr. Koot Vorster, Moderator of the N.G.K. said that the rejection of the Bill was unbiblical and that disobedience to the Law would be treason.

In support of the concept of conscientious objection to military service, the church leaders have glibly quoted: "We ought to obey God rather than men" (Acts 5: 17-29).

As has been pointed out, a text removed from its context is merely a pretext, and if the context of the text quoted is read, it will reveal that Peter and the Apostles used these words to the Religious Leaders who had demanded that they should cease preaching in the name of Jesus, and these words had not the slightest application to the political situation then obtaining in Palestine.

As the ecclesiastical leaders have appealed to Scripture in support of their claims to "conscientious objection" to military service, a review of Biblical FACTS in contradistinction to the dogma of the churches will be of advantage to sincere Christians who may not be fully acquainted with the Scriptures, and who are in danger of adopting a treasonable attitude at the instigation of the churches which should be teaching the entire Gospel of Christ laid down for their guidance in both the Old Testament and the New Testament, the principles of which they have rejected to a very large extent in the Social Gospel now being preached.

Many conscientious objectors to military service have based their decision on the sixth Commandment: "Thou shalt not kill" (Ex. 20: 13), but few realise that the Hebrew word ratsach translated "kill" actually means "murder." Literally the sixth Commandment reads: "Thou shalt not murder." and in His sermon on the Mount, Jesus Christ referred to this Commandment and used the Greek word phos meaning "murder."

From South Africa

How then can the aggressor be killed unless he is slain by defensive arms, and all conscientious objectors to military service and training in the use of arms should take particular note of Jesus Christ's warning: "...a strong man ARMED keepeth his palace" (Luke 11: 21) and the Greek word for "armed" is kathoplos and means "to equip fully with armour." Further He told His disciples: "...he that hath no sword, let him sell his garment and buy one" (Luke 22: 36).

IN TERMS OF CHRISTIAN ETHICS therefore, a true Christian should be accustomed to the use of weapons to enable him to protect his home, his family and the country of his residence against armed aggression.

This naturally raises the question of conscription in times of peace for military training which the South African Government has adopted and which is fully in accord with Scripture.

When God established His kingdom in Israel at Mount Sinai, He instructed Moses: "Take ye the sum of all the congregation of the children of Israel...every male by their polls: FROM TWENTY YEARS OLD AND UPWARD ALL THAT ARE ABLE TO GO FORTH TO WAR IN ISRAEL" (Num. 1: 2,3). Thus was conscription for military service in peace time authorised by God, an authority which has not been revoked in the New Testament, and which, insofar as His Laws are concerned, is fully operative today.

When, however, it became necessary for Israel to face their enemies, a new principle was ordained by God and which amounted to "Voluntary Service" in times of war, a Scriptural principle operated by the South African Government in World War II.

This principle is fully detailed in chapter 20 of Deuteronomy, and in brief lays down that on approaching the enemy, the priest shall address the army telling them to fear not as God will be fighting on their side. Further provisions laid down that a man who had just completed his home, or had just married a wife, or had just planted crops, was to be excused from military service, the modern equivalent being "essential services" for the maintenance of principle, nowhere in Scripture is there any authority for conscientious objection to military service.

Reverting to the statement of the Roman Catholic Bishops that the provisions of the Defense Further Amendment Bill was an extreme measure "incompatible with Jesus Christ's Gospel of Peace," they wisely abstained from quoting any Scriptural reference in support of their declaration.

Contrary to the pharisaical pronouncement by these Bishops, Jesus Christ said, as recorded in Matthew chapter 10 verse 34: "Think not that I am come to send peace on earth: I came not to send peace, but a sword," and no one can deny that the Christianity of the Gospels and the Epistles has caused division among families, friends, societies and nations, and in addition, did not Jesus Christ warn His disciples: "And ye shall hear of wars and rumours of wars...For nation shall rise against nation and kingdom against kingdom" (Matt. 24: 6,7). These do not indicate a Gospel of Peace.

In the prophecy recorded in Zechariah chapter 14, God says that when the invading hosts attack Jerusalem: "Then shall the Lord go forth and fight against those nations" (verse 3), and if God is prepared to take the field and fight against atheistic hordes who are out to destroy His people, how can the Organised Churches in Southern Africa call on their members to adopt the principle of conscientious objection to military service against the atheistic nation and its satellites now vigorously arming with the object of destroying God's people and Christianity, and whose avowed object is to rule the world under the atheistic banner of Communism?

When Jesus Christ returns to take over the rulership of the world (Matt. 24: 30) St. John records: "And I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and he that sat upon him was called Faithful and True, and in righteousness he doth judge and MAKE WAR, and his name is called, The Word of God (ch. John 1: 1). And the ARMIES which were in heaven followed him" (Rev. 19: 11-16).

These very words deny world peace and indicate continued conflict for which the true followers of the Lord Jesus Christ should be

Are they completely unaware of the well known and authenticated fact that the "Freedom Fighters" and "Liberation Movements" operating in Southern Africa are equipped with modern sophisticated arms supplied by atheistic powers for the specific reason and purpose of overthrowing duly elected stable governments in lands coveted by these foreign powers?

Further, it has been clearly demonstrated that the "Freedom Fighters" have not the slightest conception of the Policy of Apartheid, for they have committed unmentionable brutalities on the BLACK people in the areas in which they are operating.

Had they restricted their activities to Whites only, it might have been claimed they were fighting against the Policy of Apartheid, but their very actions have proved that they have been waging a war of terrorist aggression against the very people they claim to be liberating from White domination, and that their actions have been the very antithesis of Christianity.

That their actions have been diabolically inspired can be judged by the statement of the Lord Jesus Christ and which can also be applicable to the fulminations of the Organised Churches: "Beware of false prophets, which come to you in sheep's (Christian) clothing, (cf. John 10: 4) but inwardly they are ravening wolves. YE SHALL KNOW THEM BY THEIR FRUITS. Do men gather grapes of thorns, or figs of thistles? Even so, every good tree bringeth forth good fruit, but a corrupt tree bringeth forth evil fruit... (and) is hewn down, and cast into the fire. Wherefore, by their fruits ye shall know them" (Matt. 7: 15-20).

This raises the question as to whether separate development or apartheid stems from a "good tree" or a "corrupt tree," and is apartheid Anti-Christian?

In the Authenticated Version of Scripture it is recorded that Paul declared: "And hath made of one blood all nations of men," but it is well known in ecclesiastical circles that the word "blood" is an interpolation and does not appear in the best and oldest manuscripts, and yet they will quote this text in support of equality and integration.

Boston Exposes the Myth of Police Protection

The decline in our Republic can easily be traced by any researcher who combs newspaper files from the '30's to the present. Columnists in the leftist NEW YORK TIMES during the '30's screamed about New York's "fascist Irish police" giving protection to rallies of Father Coughlin and the German-American Bund.

In those days the Jews and their dupes shed tears because the police backed the Right and did indeed "protect and serve" the majority of patriotic Americans.

You yourself can probably recall the neighborhood "cop" who was just "one of the people"—not a walking badge, incapable of values or feelings beyond those "in the book." Whenever I see well-meaning patriots sporting "SUPPORT YOUR LOCAL POLICE" bumper stickers, I don't know whether to laugh or cry! Don't these people realize that—except for a few small-town sheriffs and policemen—the day of the patriotic policeman is gone!

Six Easy Stages

What happened during the last 30 years to change the American cop from Friend-and-Ally to Tool-of-the-Enemy? The explanation involves the corruption of America's institutions and society by the Jews. The process had six stages:

- First, in the late 1940's, recruitment of rookies shifted from patriotic civilians to ex-G.I.'s just back from "the War against Fascism." Conditioned just to follow orders without question, the new breed of cop seldom questioned the motives of his overlords.
- Second, as one Jewish lawyer after another climbed into judicial power, the courts began to undermine and demoralize those few independent-minded patriots left on the force. The wary policeman soon learned that, to get a conviction, one had to play by the new rules. Patriots in blue soon lost heart and gave up the fight.

- Third, the lure of money in the form of inflated salaries (plus bribes and "gratuities") warped any selfless motives that might have remained. Police "protective leagues" became Jew-dominated police unions, indistinguishable from any others. The new emphasis was on salary, not service. The cop came to think of himself as just another diner at the civil-service table, feeding off the bounty of Jewish bureaucrats and politicians.
- Fourth, the police academies—like their university equivalents—became hot houses for Jew-Liberal thought control. Lectures on patriotism gave place to harangues on "human (i.e. race) relations," "sociology," "affirmative action," and to the brain-bending tactics of "group therapy." (Atlanta patriots in the '60's, investigating local distortions in police-academy curricula, found the ADL behind the changes.)

- Fifth, to insure that he won't stray from his new fold, the rookie is constantly watched after graduation by recruits from the Inner City and from leftist colleges, who report any careless White locker-room talk of a "racist" nature.

- Finally, society is conditioned to accept the New Police by endless hours of televised police "drama" (cranked out by Hollywood's Jew-dominated entertainment industry). In these dramas, all the bad guys are White, and the mandatory Black and the mandatory Jew appear only as objects of our sympathy and approval.

Prominent among the criminals depicted are White bigots and White vigilantes. The TV messages are clear and unrelenting, season after season after season: "The police have sole authority to act in 'defense' of the community"; "all crime is the result of White social injustice"; "each policeman is working 'round the clock to protect YOU'; "all crimes can be solved if only the people will step aside and let our Blue Knights do their valiant work."

From Birmingham to Boston

We should have taken early warning that something was rotten in the local precinct house. As early as 1963, when the federal government demanded the integration of schools in Birmingham, Alabama, thousands of protesting young people (myself among them) paraded in the streets. We could see Confederate flags for miles. I recall that the LOCAL police attacked the White demonstrators with billy clubs while protecting invading Blacks with submachine guns.

Local patriots tried to justify these actions by saying that "the cops are secretly segregationist, but they have to do their job." Many of my friends to this day carry scars from beatings by those "secret segregationists" just doing their jobs.

Twelve years later, the foul tide of race mixing has crept all the way north into Massachusetts. This time it's Boston where we find the police being used as tools of Jewish social engineers. We find patriotic Whites in "Southie" demonstrating in the streets against the forced busing of Whites and Blacks far from their home neighborhoods. Without arms, the patriots there have no way of fighting back except by demonstrating in the streets.

But, again, we find local state officials using the police to break White resistance. The billy clubs of supposedly "friendly" cops are beating the dictates of the Jews into the skulls of White Bostonians. Once again, wily Jews in Washington are gloating over the stupidity of local, glib politicians who turn the police upon the very citizens who pay the cops' salaries—local politicians who, by their glibility, absolve the federal government of responsibility for enforcing hated edicts.

Washington brought about busing; why, then, aren't federal marshals and federal troops being used to enforce the race-mixing? The Jews and their presidential dupe are counting on the treason of local politicians and the total lack of White identity among local police to let them off the hook.

Beware of SWAT

Anyone who thinks the police are "on our side" should take a good look at the new SWAT teams being formed in all of our large cities. These men are being trained in commando tactics and are on 24-hour call to duty.

When the government tries to confiscate handguns, who will be doing their dirty work? Federal marshals or federal troops? No way! It will be "your" local police, backed up by SWAT teams.

In Boston, for example, the SWAT team (called "Tactical Police Force" here) was used in a mad-dog raid against the Rabbit Inn, busting heads indiscriminately, destroying $20,000 worth of property, and going all out to terrorize "Southie" into submission.

In Russian-occupied Eastern Europe, army troops are easily identified by the public. The people know the Russians control their countries by open force of arms. But, in the United States, our Jew-controlled government understands that the people would never stand for an open dictatorship run by a Jew-controlled military. So our enemy has devised the most ingenious plan in the history of psycho-politics:

Every major city in America has about four times as many police as it needs to "protect" the citizens (if each force were truly doing its job of protection). We pay the tax bills for these costly thousands of phony protectors because understandably, we fear the swelling armies of Black criminals who stalk our streets and parks.

As Black crime grows and as the government gradually disarms the populace, society will become more and more dependent on the police for protection—and the individual citizen will be helpless to resist government and its manipulators.

The courts, captured long ago by the Jews, will make short work of White patriots. Anyone doubting this danger need only look at the sham trials given to Robert Miles, Robert Shelton, Robert DePugh, and Warren Folks.

The Historic "Pellon Mentality"

The fact that America once had patriotic, independent-minded police is a credit to our frontier experience. Yet, even then, ours was an exceptional situation in the world-wide context. In my opinion, the majority of police throughout history have been little more than paid mercenaries defending the powers that be. In Nazi Germany, the head of the GESTAPO was one Gen. Heinrich Mueller. Mueller had been a police official in the Jewish-run Weimar Republic before Hitler came to power. As such, he had bashed many a Nazi skull.

But, when Hitler took over, Mueller became an overnight Nazi and eventually headed the GESTAPO. The flip-flop continued: At the end of World War II, Mueller defected to the Russians, proclaiming that "National Socialism is a dung heap!" Without hesitation, he went to work for the Communists, first in Moscow and then in East Germany. At last report, Mueller was a general in the East German Secret Police!

The Answer: An Armed Citizenry

Faced with the defection of our police to the enemy camp, we White citizen-patriots have a duty to arm ourselves and to stand ready to protect our families, if necessary, both from Black criminals and from blue-clad agents of the Jews.

As long as the police continue their slavish service to our ancient, alien foe, they have proved themselves enemies of the American Republic and of White Christians everywhere. Just as did our forefathers in 1776, so we too must declare that any form of government that no longer represents the White Christian majority has no place in our land.

We can no longer stand shuffling our feet while our White brothers and sisters are beaten, arrested, and jailed for the "crime" of protecting their children from Black savages forced upon them by diabolical Jews of the federal government. In 1776, Boston sparked the flame of liberty which consumed alien tyranny on our shores. In 1976, let the same city re-ignite the torch of White patriotism.

Force must be met with equal force. No longer will we tolerate our people being crushed into the ground by men we pay to "protect and serve." The people of Boston, joined by White Christians all over the land, must organize and stand ready to meet tyranny with active resistance. Let us join with our brothers in Boston in wresting the

Reflections on Christianity

A Letter Written by Frank R. Perkins and Convoited for Biblical and Ethical Accuracy by Rev. Harry J. Joshi

If thou wilt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus and believe in thine heart God raised Him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.
(Rom. 10:9)

It has been truly said "To shelter Prejudice with Truth is worse than a Lawyer Bearing a Writ." Almed at Truth, the following article evokes such vehement opposition it simply confirms this assertion.
Permission is granted for its use by anyone who desires to advance the cause of Christianity.

Disregarding your own opinion, please show, if you can, the Verse, chapter or Book where The Bible indicates these conclusions are erroneous. Do you read your Bible as an accurate continuous story of a great people, your own ancestors?
Should you do so you may find it most fascinating and receive a welcome thrill.

I have often wondered why such honorable, brilliant, highly educated men as Tom Paine, Robert Ingersoll, Ernest Hemingway, George Bernard Shaw and others lived their lives as Atheists. No satisfactory answer has been forthcoming. Perhaps the reason is that which caused my only brother - a decent, honest, conscientious gentleman - to become one.

Ours was a devout Christian family where Bible reading, family prayer and grace at mealtime was a daily habit. The Sabbath was rigidly observed, and no playing cards or Sunday papers were allowed in our home. Founder of a publishing company specializing in Church supplies, Dad copyrighted the first church calendar and the first duplex envelope, making them available with instant credit to any Christian Church. He might have recovered huge sums when a large concern infringed on his copyrights, but refused to seek any damages since their products were being used in the Lord's work.

We were taught that Jesus Christ was a Jew, and that the Holy Bible is a history of the Jews, in-which neither of us was particularly stereotyped. My brother read the Bible more than I, was more familiar with it, and began to express his disbelief early in life.
As a history of the Jews it made no more sense than would a history of the United States written about China. He became convinced it was a great pack of lies. I accepted our parents' admonition we should "believe as a little child," professing a belief in something I secretly doubted and could not understand. My brother, being more honest, refused to be frightened into accepting something he knew could not be true.

Following a soul shaking experience in Miami in 1951, a stranger who is now my best friend called on me. He convinced me that (all Israelites), but, unfortunately, they also brought with them a number of Babylonians, of an alien race, who had already developed a perverted theology called "the tradition of men"-that later became known as Judaism-which was in total opposition to the commandments of God.

During the approximately 600 years between the so-called "return from Babylon" and the destruction of Jerusalem, the inhabitants of the territory known as Judea were called Judeans, but there was no such word as "Jew" in any language at that time. The word Jew was first used in some early English Bibles, less than 400 years ago, as a short form of the word "Judean." But during the 600 years before 70 A.D., the inhabitants of Judea were perhaps the most confused mixture of different kinds and races of people that could be found anywhere-and they were morally just about as bad as people could possibly be. This abominable hodge-podge of people were called Judeans, and their descendants, including a later admixture of Asiatic Khazars, constitute a large body of people that are today known as Jews.

My friend also pointed out that Jesus was not a member of that portion of Judah which had racially ceased to exist in Judea, but lived with Mary and Joseph (two pure-blood Judahites) among the people of the tribe of Benjamin in Galilee.
He also proved, to my satisfaction, that all thirteen tribes of Israel are actually represented by the White Christian Nations of today-the Anglo-Saxon, Celtic, Nordic, Germanic, Scandinavian peoples and allied nations-who will receive the glorious rewards so graphically and clearly promised in the Bible for steadfast belief.

After passing my seventieth birthday I promised to read the Bible as a continuous story about my ancestors and yours-the White Christian Nations-who are the true Children of Israel, understanding that any one may become a "Child of Israel" (child of God) simply by accepting the Salvation of Jesus Christ, but which apparently is a capacity possessed only by real Israelites, that is, pureblooded White people. Keeping this promise, I became acquainted with the most thrilling, most interesting, exciting and fascinating narrative yet printed, which contains perfect rules for living a long, happy and prosperous life. I understand my friend's enthusiasm and his desire, which I share, to read this great book again and again again!

To many good Bible Scholars it simply is not possible for Christ to have been a Jew, although many educated so-called Christians accept this fallacy. The Old Testament says the Messiah would come of Virgin Birth from the House of David through the elder half-brother of Solomon, Nathan the Prophet, son of David's lawful wife. Mary was not Jewish, but a pureblooded Israelite.

Also, let us remember Joseph

Judah, "Judean" was a resident of the territory that formerly constituted the Kingdom of Judah; and after about 537 B.C. came under Persian, Grecian and then Roman control, and was still under Roman rule when the city of Jerusalem was destroyed in 70 A.D.

During the so-called "70-years of Babylonian captivity," the Edomites and their kinsmen, the Amalekites, moved into Judea, so when the 42,360 came to Jerusalem from Babylon about 534 B.C., to rebuild the temple and the wall around the city, Judea was crowded with a vast multitude of people with many and varied racial backgrounds, which included Canaanites, Hittites, Jebusites, Perizzites, Ammonites, Moabites and Egyptians, in addition to Edomites and Amalekites. And when the 42,360 arrived from Babylon, there were also added some Babylonians, as well as people of the tribes of Judah and Benjamin and a few of Levi. But there was no place available for the people of Benjamin to settle in Judea, so they went northward and settled in Galilee, and thus escaped the disaster of mongrelization.

The number of true people of Judah and Levi living in Judea by 730 B.C. probably did not total even one percent of the population, and mongrelization began there immediately, which the prophet Ezra greatly deplored.

From that time until the beginning of Christ's ministry, 500 years later, mongrelization continued unabated, and the people of the tribe of Judah and Levi completely disappeared from the land of Judea. Nevertheless, practically anyone living in Judea at that time could say he had at least a fraction of a drop of Judah blood (and his descendants are now called Jews), but he really was not a man of the tribe of Judah by any stretch of the imagination. Likewise, practically any negro in the present Watts area of Los Angeles or the Harlem area of New York City could claim to have at least a fraction of a drop of Caucasian White blood-but he still couldn't be called a Caucasian; and, no matter how light his skin, the negro has sense enough to classify himself as black, and all intelligent people recognize him as such. But if a Jew can claim to be an Israelite or a descendant of Judah, then, with equal truth, any negro in the U.S.A. can claim to be a White Caucasian. Such claims certainly would be totally false, but of course the ancestors of the present Jews were called liars and deceivers, and murderers of all the righteous slain on earth throughout the ages, according to Jesus Christ, and their descendants have continuously manifested these inherited traits by living up to their bad reputation.

Our Great Book is not only about the gospel of personal salvation, but also about the GOSPEL OF THE KINGDOM, mentioned many times in the four gospel books. Of course personal salvation is desirable, essential and a MUST-10

Jonah and the Whale

By Rev. Harry J. Joshi

There are many passages in the Bible, in all the different versions that are available for our study, which have long puzzled some of the most devout and serious minded seekers of truth among our

Should this not warn us that the United Nations intends to destroy rather than protect the United States and Christianity? In many instances the Bible states "Thou shalt make no covenants with them or their gods." Why does this so-called Christian Nation plead with the idol worshippers and Christ haters to enter into covenants with us, knowing they "break treaties like pie crusts"?
Our covenants with pagan countries are described in Isaiah 28: 15 as having been made "with death and with hell," and will result in eventual harm and destruction to us, as he prophesies in verse 18:
But, "this covenant with death shall be disannulled and your agreement with hell shall not stand" is the promise of our Lord Jesus Christ to us.

Christian leaders expending their talent to establish "Brotherhood of Man" might ponder.
Brothers have a common father, which, in this instance, is God.
Jesus tells us "those who know not me know not God," so no one can properly claim the true living God as his father without accepting Christ. Christians are, therefore, restricted to a BROTHERHOOD IN CHRIST, and are forbidden to make covenants with any other.

Only once in six thousand years of recorded history has a Christian nation been established, dedicated to God, expressing its belief "with a firm reliance on the protection of Divine Providence." This was no accident and is not likely to happen again. That Nation is now about to commit National Suicide.
Each week it is being pushed further along the path of its rapidly approaching doom by misguided leaders (and traitors) who, if they ever knew them, have apparently forgotten God's commands. Instead of opposing those who are dedicated to overthrowing the United States and to the utter destruction of Christianity, many so-called "religious leaders" assist the enemies of Christ by denouncing patriots who tell the simple truth in an effort to stop this diabolical conspiracy.

The Bible is hailed as the world's best seller. No doubt it will continue as such. However, do you not believe its sales, and what is more important, the number of sincere people who will read and understand it, may be multiplied when its exponents begin explaining it properly instead of carelessly repeating fallacies which have been accepted for generations? And may this not result in diminishing the number of otherwise splendid persons such as my brother who became Atheists?

It has been properly said "Bible Prophecy is history pre-written.

people. One such example is the story of Jonah and the whale.

Is it really true that Jonah was in the belly of a whale for three days and three nights?

In the King James Version, Jonah 1: 17 reads, "Now the Lord had prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah. And Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights." And verse 10 reads, "And the Lord spake unto the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land."

In the King James Version, Christ is quoted as saying, in Matthew 12: 40, "For as Jonas was three days and three nights in the whale's belly; so shall the Son of man be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth."

However, The Holy Bible in Modern English by Ferrar Fenton omits Jonah 1: 17 and renders Jonah 2: 1 as follows: "But the EVER-LIVING had appointed 'The Great Fish' to pick up Jonah. And Jonah was three days and nights in the hold of the 'Fish'."

In a footnote regarding chapter
2 verse 1, Ferrar Fenton says 'Great Fish' was the name of the ship mistranslated 'whale' in the version of the Greek translators, whose blunder has been repeated by all subsequent translators, in all languages, to the perplexity of their readers, until I decided to go back to the original statement of the prophet in his own Hebrew."
And Fenton gives the following translation of Jonah 2: 10: "The EVER-LIVING afterwards directed 'The Fish,' and it discharged Jonah on the land."

The Fenton translation quotes
Christ as saying, in Matthew 12: 40
"...for as Jonah was for three days and three nights in the hold of the Whale, then shall the Son of Man be for three days and nights in the heart of the earth."

The first letter of the word
"Whale" is capitalized in the Fenton translation, indicating that the word is actually a name, the distinctive appellation by which a thing is known. And of course we refer to the inside of a ship, the space below the decks of a vessel where cargo is stowed, as a "hold." Therefore I believe Christ referred to Jonah as having been three days and three nights inside a ship, inside the hold of a ship, called "The Great Fish."

There seems to have been a consistent effort on the part of certain translators and copiers of our Holy Scriptures to mistranslate or purposely change thousands of words for the purpose of confusing and deceiving us. Many statements in our present Bibles are false and misleading, and some are so obviously untrue that many sincere and intelligent people of our race have become agnostics or atheists.
This has happened because evil people who have always sought to destroy Christianity have infiltrated our churches by pretended conversions and, as translators and copiers, managed to alter the meaning of our Scriptures, in their

Crusaders Support Officials Against Illegal Aliens

CRUSADERS PICKETING

COMMANDER NORTON CONGRATULATES THE CRUSADERS ON A JOB WELL DONE, AS THEY RELAX AT A BAVARIAN HOFBRAU.

SHOWING THE FLAGS

By Rev. Rick Norton

It's becoming evident that Gen. Brown, Rep. Rarick, Sen. Fulbright and Atty. Gen. Saxbe have represented a small segment of the U.S. government that is aware of the yiddish menace. The CRUSADERS wish to encourage this small segment in opposition to Kissinger, Rockefeller, Burns, etc.

Although Atty. Gen. Saxbe has been "kicked upstairs" to be ambassador to India, he had spoken out against Jews and illegal aliens. In December, 1974, the CRUSADERS demonstrated for Saxbe's immigration officials against illegal aliens.

Southern California CRUSADER Commander Metzger arranged for the biggest and best CRUSADER demonstration yet at the Mexican border. For the first time, CRUSADERS had sharp-looking jackets to wear, thanks to Squad Leader Loso, of the San Diego Lindbergh unit. It was a pleasant Sunday afternoon when the CRUSADERS arrived at the California-Mexico border.

Two CRUSADER leaders were greeted warmly by the officer in charge of the U.S. Immigration officials, as a picket line was set up and literature was distributed. One of our CRUSADERS commented: "This is the first time I've demonstrated in favor of something."

Never has there been a more urgent need for demonstrations--and for action--as more and more Americans are thrown out of work due to the Babylonian money system of the Jewish "Federal Reserve." How shameful that illegal aliens are given the jobs taken from White Christian American citizens--citizens who pay taxes and who help the American economy instead of "exporting" their pay checks!

The corrupt U.S. courts have ruled that illegal aliens have to be fed by the taxpayers through welfare--and Latino Communist groups like "Raza Unida" openly boast that they intend to take the jobs and homes away from White Christians. "We want to break the sons of bitches," stated Jose Gutierrez of "Raza Unida" to the Associated Press.

Ominously, in the most recent elections, White Governors of Arizona and New Mexico were replaced by chicanos.

The Jews realize that, before they can disarm White Christians and make it a crime to speak against Jews, they have to provoke an invasion of America by millions of illegal Mexican, Chinese and Russian Jewish aliens.

Traditionally "conservative" groups have given the problem nothing but lip service. But, while the conservatives are "eating, meeting, and retreating," the CRUSADERS are out in the streets doing something.

While the CRUSADERS picketed the Mexican border, many White tourists took our literature and seemed glad to see us. A few ALIENS hooted at us, but didn't have the nerve to try anything.

Future CRUSADER targets include Church conferences and Koshers. Conservatives like Billy James Hargis. Future audiences for our messages include crowds at baseball and football games and parents visiting White youths trapped in black-power-dominated prisons.

Do you have what it takes to be a CRUSADER and spread the KING-dom-identity message? (See the ad in this issue.)

Why not join in the action, as Jesus Christ commanded?

Marxists in Churches

IN LIMA, Peru, recently, there was a conference held by Latin American Roman Catholic bishops. Two spokesmen for the conference, both bishops, said that capitalism must be rejected by the church and that "new political alternatives for the continent" must be sought.

In a lengthy documented special report entitled "The Marxist Revolution: Invasion of the Latin American Churches," the Church League of America, publishers of this DIGEST, has revealed that radical missionaries of the National Council of Churches serving in Latin America, have joined with Roman Catholic priests and nuns in calling for the denunciation and overthrow of capitalism and the substitution of the economic principles of Karl Marx in its place as the only way of curing the economic ills of Latin America.

In secret seminars, these religious revolutionaries have denounced the churches in North America for having sent missionaries in bygone years who preached a gospel which they charged "tied up with capitalism and defended North American industries which extracted raw materials from South America, made profits, after having turned them into manufactured items, while helping to keep the workers of South America in terrible poverty. They called for all missionaries to denounce the U.S. and to change their message to new Marxian "gospel." They held up as their types and martyrs of this new "gospel," the late Communist Che Guevara, onetime chief of staff of Fidel Castro, and a former Colombian priest, Camilo Torres, who left the church, joined the communist guerrillas and was shot by Colombian Army troops. The delegates even held "memorial" services to the memories of these marxists!

North American missionaries to Latin America participated in that seminar and the chairman was a United Presbyterian whose salary was paid by the home board in the United States! The delegates praised the Allende government in Chile and called for establishing that type in all the other Latin American countries.

More than 400 Roman Catholic priests in Chile supported the late Marxist Allende, openly.

Now, a so-called group of "Christian Leftists" in Chile, operating under-ground, describes their movement as "combative faith" in a "renewed struggle for socialism in Chile and Latin America."

A document was recently uncovered in La Paz, Bolivia revealing the plans of this group. It claims that the mixture of Christianity and socialism is nothing new for Latin America because Christian clergy and laity have long been involved in Socialist causes.

This group is, at least, honest enough to admit that it does not use the Bible to justify revolution. Rather, "It starts with the combative experience of working people."

NEWS NOTES

BRAZIL. The right-wing military dictatorship in Brazil has confiscated all property in the country belonging to the Nationalist Chinese. Several months ago, Brazil recognized Communist China as the official Chinese government and served notice on the Taiwan Embassy that it would have to pull up stakes. The confiscated property will be turned over to the "legitimate" government of China, the Communist Chinese. In 1974 a group of Nationalist Chinese and their families applied for Brazilian citizenship and offered to transfer some $500 million in their funds to Brazil. They were turned down. From all indications, Brazil's right wing generals are playing off the Communist Chinese against the Russians. Both are trying to establish a stronghold in South America, which is drifting ever further to the political right. The Russian Communists have become a serious internal threat to most South American governments including that of Peru. The Soviets have been training and supplying urban guerrillas throughout South and Central America with money and arms via Castro. Brazil's recent gift to Red China could be a means of telling the Russians. "Keep causing trouble here, and you'll be ousted and the Chinese welcomed in as the lesser of two evils."

SHAW OF IRAN. In the 1973 "Yom Kippur" War, Iran supplied both the U.S. and Israel with oil. In return, the U.S. has supplied Iran with several billion dollars worth of military equipment, including the latest jet fighters, helicopters and tanks. Iran is now among the 10 leading military powers in the world. A serious impediment to Iranian-Arab relations has been the Kurdish minority in Iraq. The Kurds number more than 600,000 in Iraq and over 2,000,000 in Turkey, Iraq, Iran and Russia. They are Moslem by religion and claim to be ARYAN by race. Iran, too, is Moslem by religion and claims to be ARYAN by race. The constant attacks of the Iraqi Army against the defenseless Kurds living in Iraq caused a rift between the Shaw of Iran and the Arabs. However, the International Bank has been using the Palestine situation as a cover up for their grab for all major oil sources in the Middle East. Kissinger has been talking of a possible invasion of both Libya and Kuwait in order to seize "needed" oil. As a Rockefeller man, Kissinger is intent upon the survival of the illegitimate Israeli State as well as increasing the Rockefeller financial empire. This talk of invading Libya and Kuwait has sobered the Shaw of Iran, and he now realizes that if the U.S. and the Israeli Jews seize the oil fields in Libya and Kuwait, it's just a matter of time until Iran and Saudi Arabia are invaded for their oil. As a result, the Shaw has recently come out in support of the Palestinian Arabs and promised to join forces with the Arabs in the event of another Middle East war.

and will be responsible for a third world war! The Shaw of Iran has now tipped the balance of power in the Middle East in favor of the Arabs.

JEWESS ELIZABETH TAYLOR. After her "conversion" to Judaism, Elizabeth Taylor's movies were banned in Egypt. To show her love for her kosher friends, she hosted an Israeli fund-raising banquet in Rome. Also, on the banned list in Egypt are Sammy Davis, Jr., Danny Kaye, Paul Newman, Joanne Woodward and Juliette Greco.

KLAN MEMBERS SHOT. The EVENING OUTLOOK (Dec. 2, 1974, page 23) said that authorities were giving six Blacks lie detector tests in relation to a shooting at a Klan rally in Wagener, S.C. The peaceful rally was raided by three car loads of Blacks firing buckshot. Several people were hit. We wonder if the FBI will investigate Black violations of "civil rights" of the White Klansmen. Don't hold your breath!

CALIFORNIA. The California legislature has its first non-Christian "chaplain." The Rev. Shoko Nasunaga, of the Buddhist Church of Sacramento, is the new chaplain for the California legislature. Strange to find a Christian nation accepting a non-Christian as religious counselor to our largest state government. Can you, in your wildest imagination, see the Israeli State having a Christian chaplain for its legislature, or the Libyans having a Buddhist as their religious leader? More insanity foisted upon Christian Americans by traitorous politicians and the Jews behind them.

PHYLLIS SCHLAFLY. Phyllis Schlafly, the "conservative patriot," has come out defending the illegitimate Israeli State. In SPECTRUM (Nov. 19, 1974) she calls for all-out aid to the Israeli State because "the Communists are supporting the Arabs." Right-wing patriots should stay clear of "patriots" like Mrs. Schlafly and her Jew-loving ilk.

THOSE POLISH JOKES. Strange how many "Polish" jokes, making fun of the Christian Polish people, have come out since the Poles started kicking the Jews out of their country in 1967. The Jews are getting even by making Poles the laughing stock of the Western World and non-Polish White Christians have fallen for it hook, line and sinker. Latest report from Poland indicates that there are less than 6,000 Jews left in Poland, and most of these are old and waiting to die. One Polish diplomat commented recently that, when he was a young man after World War II, he wanted to get into the foreign service. His professor told him, "You have no chance; - the Jews have preference and hold all key posts." Now, he says, "We Poles are back in power running our country, and the Jews are out." Thank God for the courage of the Polish people!

JEWES HECKLE BISHOP. When the Jews of Ft. Wayne, Indiana, criticize Christian religious leaders?

REV. ROBERT MILES. Right after we published a letter in CHRISTIAN VANGUARD from Rev. Robert E. Miles, he was transferred from his prison address. His new address is: Rev. Robert E. Miles, 87917-132, P.O. Box 1000, Marion, Ill. 62959.

JEW SUPPLY REDS. The pro-Communist Bach Mai Hospital Relief Fund has sent almost $1 million worth of medical supplies to the North Viet-Namers. More than 80,000 reds in America contributed towards the fund. The Chairman of the "Relief Fund" is the Jew, Dr. Morris Simon of Beth Israel Hospital. His assistant is another Jew, Mrs. Cora Weiss. A key supporter of the red fund is former Attorney General Ramsey Clark, an ardent supporter of the Israeli State. As our readers will remember, Clark has backed all pro-Jewish and anti-White movements in America. He is now backing the North Vietnamese as well as the Israelis.

BECKWITH TO STAND TRIAL. The State of Louisiana is going to try the Rev. Byron De La Beckwith on the charge of transporting explosives without a license. Rev. De La Beckwith was found innocent on the same charge in a federal court last year. This coming trial is subjecting Rev. De La Beckwith to double jeopardy, but District Court Judge Charles Ray Ward is out to get De La Beckwith and is pushing the trial. Foes of the man claim that he had a live time bomb in his car and was going to try to assassinate the New Orleans leader of the ADL.

MC DONALD OR MC KOSHER? We thought our readers might like to know that the "McDonald's Hamburger" restaurants are owned by Stanley L. Sloane. Sloane, a Jew, is chairman of the United Jewish Appeal. We suggest that McDonald's change their name to McKosher to reflect their real ownership.

ETHIOPIA. The new ruler of Ethiopia, Maj. Mengistu Haile Mariam, is a pure-blooded negro of peasant stock. Because of this, his picture is kept out of all Ethiopian newspapers. It seems that the mixed-blooded "high-caste" Ethiopians who have had the upper hand in Ethiopia for centuries resent having a "Black man" rule them.

JEWES FIGHT NATIVITY SCENE. In 1973, California State Senator Anthony Beilenson (D-Beverly Hills) objected to the use of state property for the erecting of a traditional nativity scene in Sacramento, California's capital. The nativity scene had been sponsored and built by the California Employees' Association. Jew Beilenson had the scene removed in 1973 using the excuse of the "energy shortage." This year, when the employees again said they would erect the scene, Beilenson went into a rage and threatened "to have it taken down if erected." However, the state employees got written permission from Governor Brown to put up the display. A ian students, who trounced the intruders.

BOSTON. The Jewish Labor Council of Massachusetts attacked those fighting busing in Boston and called for a "united front" to force Boston officials to enforce federal court orders. The Boston JEWISH ADVOCATE (Oct. 17) called for federal forces to be used to force busing on the Whites of Boston.

JEWES RUN ENGLAND. Of the 635 members of Britain's Parliament, 45 are Jews. The previous Parliament had only 41. Jew-loving Prime Minister Harold Wilson has 9 Jews in his cabinet.

JEWISH PLANS FOR MIDDLE EAST. The latest plan for dividing up the Middle East was outlined in the B'NAI B'RITH MESSENGER of Jan. 3, 1975. Israeli Jew Eliezer Whartman calls for a preemptive Israeli strike and takeover of Syria and Iraq. According to the plan, Syria would be divided into three states. One state would be Druze, the second Kurdistan, and the third a "shrunk Syria." The same plan is in line for Iraq, and the Iraqi oil fields would be handed over to the Kurds. The plan also calls for the U.S. to seize the straits controlling the Red Sea and—using an aircraft-carrier-borne assault—to take over the oil fields of Saudi Arabia, Kuwait and Bahrain. A secret deal has been made between the Soviet Union and the United States to allow this to happen, Jew Whartman reports. "There is an unwritten but perfectly understood agreement between Russia and the U.S. that neither side will intervene in areas which the other considers absolutely vital to its national interests. Thus, the U.S. did nothing to stop the invasion of Czechoslovakia in 1968, nor did Russia allow the Cuban missile crisis of 1961 to reach the point of armed confrontation."

ARABS TO FINANCE CORNFELD. Jewish financial wizard (and jailbird) Bernard Cornfeld and his Jewish partners are in the process of getting businessmen from Kuwait to finance one of their ventures. The Arabs are to purchase $20 million in certificates of deposit from three American banks that are in cahoots with Cornfeld. In turn, the banks will loan $10 million to the Cornfeld group. You can be sure that the profits from these gullible Arabs will go to help finance the Israelis so they can kill more Arabs! We sure do live in a world where greed and stupidity reign supreme!

INSANITY IN MASSACHUSETTS. White police are beating and jailing White patriots in Boston because they refuse to let their children go to school with savages, the officials in Springfield, Mass., are honoring the red who started all the racial turmoil in America, Martin Luther King! The city of Springfield has made King's birthday an official holiday, and the city hall and the schools have been closed in his "honor." Taking part in this insanity are the local Rabbis and Msgr. David Welch, editor in chief of the CATHOLIC OBSERVER.

CHRISTMAS IS OUT. The tragedy

23 million people profess some form of Christianity. But the shallowness of their faith is seen in the complete lack of public protest at the insult to the memory of Christ's birth. Dr. I. B. Bokelale, head of Zaire's protestant church council, suggests that some observance of Christ's birth be held on June 30, Zaire's independence day. Who will replace Jesus in the prayers of re-paganized Zaireans? Who else but Dictator Bobuto, who is being accorded the role of living god to his people—in keeping with the antics of all the other cannibal colonels in the increasingly dark Dark Continent.

JEWISH "REVIVALIST." In a bizarre attempt to arouse "ethnic pride" among young Jews, an orthodox rabbi's wife—one Esther Jungreis—is stumping the country using the platform style of Billy Graham to sell the most blatant Zionism to her young Jewish audiences. Despite her orthodox credential, Esther flaunts $30 hairdos and an obvious "pose job," as she regales her audiences with tales of "the Nazi holocaust" and the need to bleed America white in support of precious Israel. Her movements is called "Kineni" ("Here I am"). She boasts that it is so strong on the East Coast that "we have broken the 'Jews for Jesus' movement in New York!" Treated as an amusing-but-attractive kike by some and treated as a heroine by others, Mrs. Jungreis has yet to meet one hostile public critic who would label her as a "racist" or a "misuser of religion to cloak bigotry." Compare her reception to that given to the preachers of Christian Identity.

GREEK ANTI-JEWES. Despite the fall of Greece's right-wing government, hostility to Jews is mounting in the country because of Henry Kissinger's alleged role in Turkey's tough stance on the island of Cyprus. Typical of recent public statements is that of Bishop Chrysostomos of Piraeus, Greek Orthodox Metropolitan, who says, "The German Jewish Secretary of State of America is making suspicious trips throughout the world for the purpose of destroying Cyprus. Someone should be found to put a violent end to his attempts."

THE COUNT IS 7. The resignation of Postmaster General Klassen and the appointment of Benjamin Ballar to succeed him brings the count of Jews on President Ford's cabinet to seven—an all-time high. Able Attorney General William Saxbe was recently replaced by a Jew, Dr. Levi of the University of Chicago Arthur Schlesinger, Secretary of Defense, is a racial Jew (whose family professes Lutheranism). The list includes Treasury Secretary Simon; Arthur Burns, head of the Federal Reserve System; Caspar Weinberger, Secretary of H.E.W.; and Henry Kissinger, Secretary of State. (In addition, Ford's press secretary is Jew Ron Nessen, and one of his speech writers is Milton Friedman.) Of the remaining cabinet members, one is a Black and two are White Christians. Ford's involved with 62 other state institutions. A New York City assemblyman has charged that Bergman's homes "have over-charged the state's medical system at least $1.186 million; that about $2 million in the homes' Medicaid bills could not be accounted for by check or vouchers; and that liquor, fancy cars, political and religious donations have been billed to Medicaid." Several of Bergman's relatives, including his wife, have no-show jobs at his nursing homes for salaries ranging up to $26,000 a year.

ANGLICAN GAGGED. Australia's only Palestinian Anglican clergyman is Rev. Gordon Boutagy, a refugee from Jerusalem. In reply to his request for the title of "Chaplain to Migrants from Arab States," Boutagy's pro-Israeli Anglican overlords have demanded that he sign a statement promising "on no account to use his office to promote any discussion of a political character dealing with the Arab cause, especially in relation to Israel." Boutagy has refused to sign, claiming that—although officials of the Sydney diocese openly support Israel—he is being denied the right to stand up for his own people. (SYDNEY MORNING HERALD, 11/16/74.)

BELGIAN TURMOIL. The century-old dispute between Belgium's Flemish-speaking and French-speaking citizens has flared again. Focus of the problem is what the Flemings regard as a Wallonian (French-speaking) violation of the 1963 agreement establishing a "language border" south of Brussels dividing "Flanders" from "Wallonia." Despite the capital's location in Flanders, Brussels continues to become steadily more "frenchified." Wealthy Wallonians are invading the capital's suburbs demanding to be addressed in French by shopkeepers, and insisting on French-language schools for their children. "The Flemings are becoming strangers in their own capital, even though they pay most of the taxes," say spokesmen for Flanders. Recently some 40,000 Flemings—many in forbidden uniforms of the nationalist VMO, the Davidsfonds, the Vermeylenfonds, the Willemsfonds, and the Vlaamse Volksbeweging ("Flemish People's Movement")—paraded through the streets of Halle, on the border with Wallonia. They sported insignia outlawed since the end of World War II. "It's a fight for our cultural survival," the leaders of the march proclaimed. What a pity that White Christians in America don't care as much for their cultural survival, in the face of even greater incursions from cultural, racial and religious aliens!

BLAST AT VORSTER. Franz Joseph Strauss, leader of West Germany's powerful "Christian Social Union Party," has leveled a surprising attack against South Africa's Prime Minister John Vorster—which was surprising, behave promised the rebels power; but had the Whites—with South African help—been able to set up an organization with the majority of Blacks who favor a pro-Western multi-racial state in preference to becoming satellites of Moscow, the Communist-designed "independence" would have been impossible. The Bavarian charged that Vorster's new policy is "an acrobatic act without a safety net." He predicted that, once Moscow's friends are firmly ensconced in Angola and Mozambique, the Kremlin will order "the final onslaught against...the last bastion of the Whites." Vorster, Strauss said, has "lost himself in a maze of tactical maneuvers offering no strategy for the future."

WHITE PRISONER'S FLIGHT. New York's Corrections Commission has moved to dismiss Earl Schoonmaker from his post as teacher in the Eastern New York prison at Napanoch. Schoonmaker has taught for seven years at the 713-inmate medium-security facility. An admitted member of the Ku Klux Klan, he is now charged with "using an inmate to further Klan activities; bringing KKK material into the institution; and conducting a personal transaction with an inmate." Black prisoners have long been allowed "tutorage" from Black-Power advocates. But no pro-White personnel are to be allowed near White prisoners in New York State—men whose cultural heritage and whose very lives are in greater jeopardy with each passing day—from their Black fellow prisoners.

VATICAN GROVELS. Not even the latest sell-out by the Vatican to world Jewry has satisfied yiddish leaders, with their "rule-or-ruin" mentality. Seeking a "new relationship and a deeper fellowship" with Jews, the Catholics' "unity secretariat" has pledged that the Church will adopt actions to promote "increased theological dialogue, joint work for social justice, and modified approaches to commonly 'misconstrued' New Testament passages." Jewish leaders have been quick to declare that the Catholic offer is unsatisfactory. Rabbi March H. Tannenbaum, for instance, says the new guidelines "assume that Judaism is inadequate as the source of truth and value to the Jewish people and that the election of Israel as a covenanted people has somehow been terminated." Translation: the Jews are still The Chosen People and the Catholics must come hat-in-hand as inferiors in the dialogue table.

CHRISTIANS OUT, RABBIS IN. New York City's Jewish mayor, Abe Beame, recently appointed Rabbi David Havrovitz (of the Brooklyn Jewish Center, where Beame worships) to a $32,000-a-year post "to serve as liaison to Jewish groups and individuals in need of social services." The appointment came at the very time the mayor announced job cuts for 8,810 city employees. The storm of anti-Christian tirades, more smoke-screen, and more whining lies about the mythical "six million." A sample of the 36 books is FAITH AND FRATRICIDE by Rosemary Ruehrer, who alleges that "the New Testament and the church fathers planted the seeds for anti-semitism." Another volume of gruesome fiction about supposed Nazi atrocities is aimed at Junior high school students!

INFLUENTIAL FASCIST? Japanese millionaire Ryoichi Sasakawa, 75, claims to be "the world's wealthiest fascist." An outspoken admirer of Benito Mussolini, the colorful Ryoichi is a generous donor to martial-arts societies and Japanese charities, all in the name of patriotism and resistance to Liberal materialism. His generosity piles up "moral debts" among influential Japanese, which—rumor has it—he "cashes in" to insure the appointment of men whom Ryoichi favors as the country's prime-minister. Rumored beneficiaries of his "king-making" were former prime-ministers Sato and Tanaka.

CULTURAL PRIDE FOR WHITES? Verrazano College opened its first class last September at Saratoga Springs, N.Y. A project of Italian-American Joe Lombardi, the college pledges to foster "a love of the Italian cultural heritage" and "the retention of ethnic identity" among young Italian-Americans. According to Lombardi, the college will succeed if its students "understand and accept the fact that discipline is the way to fulfill one's potential." What's unique about the Verrazano venture is that—long after the foundation of Black and Jewish colleges teaching cultural identity—a White Christian ethnic group finally has realized the need for such an institution of its own.

NO RULING ON JESUS. A French district court on Dec. 11 sidestepped a decision as to who was guilty for the death of Jesus, but it fined Rev. Georges de Nantes one franc (23 cents) for "libeling" author Jacques Isorni. Isorni had written that Pontius Pilate was solely responsible for Christ's death and that Jesus was "an imposter" in his claim to be the son of God. Rev. de Nantes then had replied in print that Isorni had "oped for the Jews and against their victim." The French court declared that it was not competent to rule on such theological questions, but felt that Isorni had been libeled. It declared the one-franc fine to be "symbolic."

PATRIOTS MEET. Pictured here is Father Saenz (on the left) and Crusader Leader for Southern California Tom Metzger. Father Saenz has proved that the present Pope is a racial Jew and was "excommunicated" for his revelations. A constant foe of the Jews, Father Saenz will not back down in this fight. When asked about his "excommunication" Father Saenz commented, "I represent the truth Church and the beliefs of the founders of the Church. The present Pope represents the Jews that have taken over the Church and not the Catholic people." God bless Father Saenz and give us more like him.

The Blue Ribbon Goyim and the CIA

By Estance Mullins

Seymour Hersh and the New York Times have scored another propaganda coup with the revelations that the CIA has been engaged in domestic espionage against American citizens. In making these charges, Hersh, a Jewish propagandist, and the Jewish owned New York Times are raising another smoke screen in a frantic effort to prevent the unmasking of the real villain, the Anti-Defamation League of B'nai B'rith. Like the FBI, the CIA's domestic operations, which were forbidden specifically in its Congressional authorization, were designed solely to prevent a native anti-Zionist movement from arising in America. In this, they have been successful, at the cost of many millions of dollars and the activities of hundreds of agents who, acting for the ADL, have engaged in bribery, intimidation, extortion, interstate conspiracy to defame and defraud, and many other violations of the federal statutes. For many years, the ADL directly engaged in these activities, but for the past quarter of a century, the Zionists have used the FBI and the CIA for their legwork.

The work of these agents provocateurs in infiltrating and rendering helpless a multitude of patriotic organizations in the United States required that the ADL spend many millions of the taxpayers' funds. As a cover for its real mission of eliminating all patriotic groups which opposed Zionism, the CIA made token efforts to penetrate some "leftwing radical groups," but these efforts could hardly be serious, as many of these groups were being funded by the CIA. The real "search and destroy" operations of the CIA in the United States have always been directed against patriotic Americans. Their effectiveness has been proven by the fact that nearly all American voices opposing the crimes of Zionism have been silenced. Hundreds of rightwing organizations and publications have been infiltrated and destroyed during the past quarter of a century, since the establishment of the State of Israel. This writer has literally "had his horse shot out from under him" dozens of times, as the publications from which he was writing were

ADL. The Zionists have always been fearful that a few patriotic soldiers would form a "military conspiracy" and order them executed for treason. Hersh's My Lai story was used to destroy the careers of a number of American officers whom the ADL felt might eventually make a move against the Zionist traitors in America. They also served as an object lesson to other American officers that the power of the ADL was too great for any group to oppose.

To cover up for the ADL, President Ford has selected a "blue ribbon panel" to conceal the subversion of the CIA by a foreign power. Nelson Rockefeller is the Chairman, and the work will be "guided" by two Jews on the panel, Gen. Lyman Lemnitzer and C. Douglas Dillon, or Lapowitz, as his father was known. The others, such as Edgar Shannon, who resigned as president of the University of Virginia after radicals took over the campus, and Ronald Reagan, who signed special legislation to allow California savings banks to load their portfolios with worthless Israeli bonds, know nothing about the CIA and will sign whatever the Jews put in front of them.

One item which they are certain to cover up is the CIA inspired "campus riots" of the 1960s, which made a shambles of our higher educational system. Although the charter of the CIA specifically prohibits it from engaging in domestic espionage, in open defiance of this prohibition, a domestic Operations Branch was set up. Its major mission was against the Anti-Zionist forces in America, but early in the 1960s, a national "anti-Vietnam" crusade was launched on American campuses. Twenty million dollars was spent by the CIA, all of it given to wild-eyed Jewish radical "students" at our major universities; many of them bearded thugs in their mid-thirties. They were also supplied with large quantities of hard drugs, as the CIA was heavily engaged in dope smuggling in Asia.

As a result of this influx of drugs, many gentile students became hopeless drug addicts, while the campus riots brought education to a halt at many schools. At Columbia University, a group of students occupied the president's office for days, defecating on his desk and mutilating his files. The CIA riots took a turn which was regarded as extremely unfortunate by the ADL when, at Kent State University, several Jewish students were killed in a pitched battle with the Ohio National Guard. The word immediately went out that campus agitation would await new developments. With the withdrawal of American troops from Vietnam, overnight all CIA funds and drug supplies to the colleges came to a halt. The campus agitation immediately ceased. The longterm effect of these riots, however, will be felt for years, as American

"Dillon" calling the shots, all reference to the ADL agents provocateurs will be erased from the findings of the "blue ribbon" panel investigating the CIA.

The American people are doomed unless we can make a showing against the subversion of our country by the ADL. Write to your Congressman and demand that an impartial investigation be made. Reagan, Shannon, and the other goy stooges on Ford's panel are too dumb to realize that they are the sleek and wellfed prize goy cattle who are being led out to be gaped at by the crowds for the benefit of their Jewish overseers. It is a role for which their limited intelligence eminently suits them, but Americans must ignore them, and look to real men to lead them out of their difficulties. The present revelations about the CIA may, in fact, be a new smoke screen to conceal their international work on the part of Israel to such an extent that in many foreign capitals, the CIA is known as the "Central Israeli Agency." Evans and Novak, in the Washington Post of Jan. 8, 1975, bemoan the departure of James Angleton from the Counterintelligence Division of the CIA because of his "intimate and invaluable connections with the Israeli Secret Service" and his secret contacts with Israeli agents. "What they are really complaining about is the fact that Angleton has for years turned over the full resources of the CIA to the Israelis, including unlimited funds drawn from the six and a half billion dollars in CIA Defense Department funds which the CIA spends each year without accounting for it."

In 1956, the Swiss Government expelled four CIA agents on charges of spying for Israel. More recently, CIA agents set up the assassinations of a number of Arabs in Lebanon, among them an Arab poet who had never engaged in terrorist activities. For the past twenty-five years, the CIA has conducted a silent vendetta against American military and diplomatic officials who were unsympathetic to the State of Israel; they were forced to resign by fake charges of sex, drunkenness, and other failings brought against them by CIA agents stationed in their areas. This terror campaign against loyal Americans was recently documented in a book by Miles Copeland, a former CIA adviser. The worldwide activities of the CIA on behalf of the State of Israel, which have long been well known in Arab countries, was a much more basic reason for the turning of the Arabs against the United States than our other economic and military aid to Israel. The Arabs could cope with the Israelis on their own ground, but they had no international intelligence service to cope with the CIA on a worldwide basis, and it was this shortcoming which gave rise to the feelings of bitterness and despair among Arab leaders who had always been friendly to the JOSEPH DELYS. Everyday thousands of people see Mr. Joseph Delys of Chicago out selling patriotic papers on the streets of Chicago. He was born in Lithuania in 1903 and was wounded fighting the Communists. He openly and bravely points out the Jewish background of Communism. Mr. Delys supports the work of the NEW CHRISTIAN CRUSADE CHURCH and distributes CHRISTIAN VANGUARD. He deserves a well earned thanks from all White Christian patriots. His address is: Mr. Joseph Delys, 3607 S. Union Ave., Chicago, Ill. 60609. Those sending a donation will receive a large selection of patriotic literature from Mr. Delys.

The government admits that the buying power of the 1973 dollar was reduced to 32 cents since 1940. But this is the beginning of 1975 and the government doesn't tell all. We had over 15% inflation in 1973 and more than that in 1974. Our paper dollar at this rate won't last long. Some economists believe that the U. S. has entered a period of hyper-inflation which can reach 50% or more shortly. This means 50% of what's left each year. So the time has come to get out of our paper dollars and get into something that will at least remain the same in value, such as gold or silver.

If we go into gold and silver and the storage of survival foods, we should also encourage our friends and neighbors to do likewise. Otherwise, when the dust comes and they're hungry, they'll all lean on us. Let each man and his family take themselves secure right now by his foresight and knowledge of what lies ahead. Help your friends and neighbors to see what is coming in time to put something value of the money continues to fall. People will have plenty of paper money and hunger at the same time. Only those who have put food in storage will be able to eat. But, then, what about the mobs of hungry people who will attack the supermarkets to take what they want by force?

This will bring about a police state and martial law. Guns will be taken away from the people, and this is what the Communists want to aid their take-over from within.

All over the world economists agree on one thing: The good old days are over!

Economic collapse threatens Italy - Great Britain - France - South America - Africa - Asia - and there's no one to help them.

The Industrial Bank of Japan predicts that in 1975 it will be 2% cheaper to make TV receivers in America than in Nippon. That's quite a switch from 1970, when it was 19.2% more costly to build sets in the U.S.

The bank estimates that up to 1975 wages are going up by an average 18% a year in Japan, but only 6% in America. Raw materials are figured as rising 7% annually in Japan, 5% in the U.S.

The yen's high value and Japan's lack of plant sites also spurs moves abroad.

Look around us in this country: Stocks and bonds are still going down. Someone said, "The market is as treacherous as a minefield." Real estate prices are at an all-time high - but virtually no one can buy or sell because there's no mortgage money available.

Even industry is short of funds for expansion. This produces shortages: Gasoline. Fuel oil. Electricity. Steel. Paper goods. Lumber. Food.

"When the capitalist world starts to trade with us - on that day they will begin to finance their own destruction."
V. I. Lenin

On our savings today, we can earn only about 5% from banks, up to 8% (long term) from Savings & Loans, or 10% to 12% on mortgages with risk - but we're losing about 15% in the value of our dollar each year because of inflation!

Gold and silver values refuse to remain stable, but they are generally moving up. Silver, used in industry, is getting scarce. Gold, now about $175 an ounce, is predicted to rise to $200 soon, and then some. Brokers see nothing in it for them.

The American public will wake up all of a sudden. The socialists in our bureaucracy threw away another $5 billion last year on foreign aid. Our government hasn't balanced the budget but once in the last 17 years!

Karl Marx, the father of Communism, once said that he had but two objectives in life: 1) To dethrone God; and 2) to destroy capitalism. The socialists in our own government are helping do it.

latter part of 1973. But, while farm prices and industrial commodities have been falling, CONSUMER GOODS' PRICES HAVE CONTINUED TO RISE! So this is a new type of recession: We're having an inflationary recession or depression without any fall in prices. We're suffering from the worst features of both boom and bust.

A person who is "well adjusted" these days simply isn't paying attention.

Some people may still believe that "Where ignorance is bliss, 'tis folly to be wise," but no one can fail to see what is happening today when they go to the stores and see how prices have risen again and again, overnight!

It's not just that the prices are going up on everything - it's that the value of our dollar keeps going down.

You see, our dollar can no longer be exchanged for either gold or silver. Paper money is worth no more than the public's confidence in it. And people are beginning to get wise to what has happened to our dollar! Even our small change does not have the metallic value that most people think it has. Over the last 40 years we've been short-changed by politicians who have pulled the wool over our eyes.

Now the Chairman of the Federal Reserve Board, Arthur F. Burns, tells us that "the future of our country is in jeopardy" if inflation continues at the present rate.

On May 26, last year, Burns told a graduation class in Illinois that "the gravity of our current inflationary problems can hardly be overestimated. Except for a brief period at the end of World War II, prices in the United States have of late been rising faster than in any other peacetime period of our history. If past experience is any guide, the future of our country is in jeopardy. No country I know of has been able to maintain widespread economic prosperity once inflation got out of hand. And the unhappy consequences are by no means solely of an economic nature. If long continued, inflation at anything like the present rate would threaten the very foundation of our society."

Mr. Burns said he laid the blame for our current inflation on a 50% increase in federal spending during the past five years. That this spending is undermining private initiative and could lead to "a significant decline of economic and political freedom for the American people." He says the only ways to check inflation are to reduce federal spending, reduce consumer spending, and for business and labor to accept lower prices and wages. That's closing the barn door after everything has gotten out!

Look at the stock market. Those of us who invested in stocks in recent years have seen our investments go down, down, down. The same is true of mutual funds. We've lost nearly half of our life savings through no fault of our own because we believed that "the real cost of money. Because banks require business borrowers to keep part of their loans on deposit, the effective interest rate on the money that prime-rate borrowers actually get to use is closer to 14%. For many small businessmen without the credentials to get the prime rate, interest charges range up to 15%, 16% or even more - when loans are available.

We learn from TIME, 6/10/74, that 440 builders in the U.S. failed in the first quarter of 1974 because they couldn't get loans. They left unpaid debts of over $130 million. This more than doubled the liabilities of bankrupt builders in 1973.

Another thing - while the banks are charging from 11-1/4% to 15%, they are not allowed by the government to pay the depositors even 8%. One bank here recently offered 9% for an investment of $20,000 for six months and the federal government quickly made them withdraw the offer.

Banks and Savings & Loans are running out of money to lend. If they had a run on the banks now, what would happen with 75% to 80% of their deposits loaned out? Already the withdrawals are terrific. In April of last year the savings banks lost $650 million in deposits and the Savings & Loans lost $335 million.

If you lose money in the stock market, and bonds are not a good investment, and it's risky to keep your savings in banks or Savings & Loans, what should you do with them?

You should do what the government should still be doing - put a good percentage of your savings into gold and silver. Not on margin, but to own outright!

Now is the time to get into gold coins and to buy silver coins and silver bars. Those who did this two or three years ago have already more than doubled their money. And the value of gold and silver will continue to rise.

Please remember that I do not sell gold or silver, but strongly recommend them now in exchange for your rapidly-falling paper dollar.

I don't sell food either, but it's wise to buy dried foods for storage for six months or a year's supply. Do it now before the price goes up any further. If you had done it a year or so ago, you'd have gotten it much cheaper. But it will go up in price, as the demand increases and the supply grows short.

"The American dollar is in trouble," says the president of Hillsdale College, Hillsdale, Mich. He highly recommends a new book, "America's Coming Bankruptcy," published by Arlington House and written by Harvey W. Peters, a Milwaukee attorney who has specialized in taxes, finance and corporate law. Listen to this.

"America's real debt - government, private and business debt - now totals over one and one-half trillion dollars. That's more than

"If drastic remedial action is not taken, Peters warns, 'Eventually all Americans, from the Federal Government to the lowliest citizen, must become impoverished. This has happened before to nations whose former greatness is now only reflected in the pages of history books, and this can happen to America.'

"We would have gladly borne the tax on tea if we could have been granted the power to create our own money."

Benjamin Franklin

"Peters ends his new book, 'America's Coming Bankruptcy,' with:

"It is more appropriate to end this woeful tale about the wreckage of your dollar by expressing the hope that Americans will not allow a government by a dictatorship to be forced upon them. However, with that hope must be included a prayer to the Almighty that Americans shall, by legal means, terminate the existence of the Federal income tax and establish a new 'Magna Carta' that, like its English predecessor, shall remove the American people from a tyranny of a tax system that has denied Americans the right to their earning."

Do your friends a favor - let your immediate neighbors know about this now while there is still time to take action. Otherwise, they may be caught short with paper money that is nearly worthless, and without food in the house to save their families from hunger.

Priests Front for Communism

It seems that the majority of today's Roman Catholic priests are following the suicidal course of the Protestants' "National Council of Churches" and are joining the vanguard of Communism. During the '30's some of the most violent opponents of the anti-Communist government in Germany were priests and ministers.

The Los Angeles Times of Oct. 21, 1974, reports that Bishop William McNaughton of Boston and a number of priests and nuns were the leaders of the anti-government riots in Seoul, South Korea.

Identifying Jews

By James Conza

CHRISTIAN SHEEP AND SATAN'S WOLVES is a book published by the New Christian Crusade Church which attempts to give an overall, if brief, view of Jewry's determination to destroy white, Christian nationalism.

As author of the book, I recently received some criticism about it from a fine patriot and scholar. It was suggested that I erred in identifying several individuals as Jews. If this is so, then I owe my readers an apology for unintentionally misinforming them. Regardless, it is believed that several things should be said about the identifying of Jews.

So utterly massive is the involvement of Jews in the socio-political revolution sweeping the world that it is understandable, if not excusable, some "gentile" stooges and revolutionists get identified as Jewish. As a good example of this, the film comedian Charlie Chaplin has often been referred to as a "Jew." At least two things prompted this: for one, Chaplin was noted for his pro-Russian and pro-communist leanings, and for the other Hollywood was (is!) saturated with Reds and "pinks" who were known Jews. Soon, Chaplin was being identified as "really" being Israel Thonstein and a Jew. Only in fairly recent years have we learned that he is supposedly NOT Jewish and that his name really is Chaplin (NATIONAL ENQUIRER, May 23, 1971, Page 16, etc.).

The obviously bad thing about these mis-identifications is that in making inadvertent errors of this sort we—any of us—tend to discredit the vast preponderance of accurate information known about Jewry. This writer, for example, can recall years ago being a little unsettled upon discovering that a well-known patriot had erred in identifying V. I. Lenin as "really" being Chaim Goldman and a Jew. If Jewry's commitment to our ruin had not been so great and incessant, I—as a new student on the subject—might have become disillusioned and believed Jews' constant charges of "anti-semitism" and "hate-mongering."

However, it was the mounting involvement of Jews in revolution which allowed me to overlook that "Chaim Goldman" matter. It was discovered that in spite of this apparent error Jews WERE the force behind revolution in all its forms. This incident taught me—I thought—a lesson: Be accurate about your facts and identities. Then, the patriot-critic politely informed me that there was a question of accuracy in CHRISTIAN SHEEP.

Frankly, this writer has heard of Hall, Liebknecht, and Norman referred to as Jews so long that he

"gentile" was nominal "head" of the Communist Party, but Jews ("J. Peters"—Isador Boorstein and Gerhart Isler) really directed communist operations "behind the scene." Undoubtedly, such Jews exist today "behind the scene" as well. Enough operate openly! Likely the most important man in the Party is its top thinker ("theoretician") Herbert Aptheker, a Jew; it is his daughter, Bettina, who is publicly credited with being the motivation—with other young Jews—behind the disruptive-chaotic campus riots of the 1960's. Other Jews as Alva Buxenbaum, Alexander Bittelman, Betty Gannett, Emanuel Levine, Hyman Lumer, etc. have more than made their leadership presence known in U.S. communism over the years. And, without Jews, there would virtually have been no effective espionage operation on behalf of communism in America!

Karl Liebknecht was prominent as a leader of the "Spartacist" movement in post-W.W. I Germany. However, effective as he was as an orator and a rabble rouser, Liebknecht was only a strong lieutenant to Jewess Rosa Luxemburg. Historian-writer A. J. Ryder stated she was the "outstanding personality of the left..." (Page 7, THE GERMAN REVOLUTION OF 1918, Cambridge Press, 1967). One of our greatest patriots was the late Elizabeth Dilling. In her book THE PLOT AGAINST CHRISTIANITY (The Elizabeth Dilling Foundation, 1964) on Page 86, she identified Liebknecht as being a Jew. Though some indication exists that he, too, was a "Lutheran," it is not easy to determine his heritage. However, again, this is not of major import. Even if a "gentile," he was surrounded by and inflamed by Jewish revolutionists and supporters of his day (similar to "gentile" politician-revolutionists in America today...a la George McGovern, Hubert Humphrey, etc.). Communism in Germany was in its essence Jewish from Rosa Luxemburg to Ruth Fischer.

As for Montagu Norman, though his last name would not seem to be very Jewish, it is not unusual for Jews to adopt it. Thus, e.g., the NEW STANDARD JEWISH ENCYCLOPEDIA (4th Edition, Doubleday, 1970) lists the "noted" Jew Edward A. Norman (Page 1454). Also, as for the un-Jewish sounding first name of "Montagu," this too has been "picked up" by Jews wishing to hide or change their identity. A well-known example of this is the radical-Jew, "social thinker" Montague Ashley Montagu; his proper name is Israel Ehrenberg before he altered it (U.S. District Court, Philadelphia, September 25, 1940, Certificate #4931109). So, it is not unheard of that the famed banker Montagu Norman was identified as Jewish; other writers have done likewise. This man WAS significant. He headed the Bank of England and was afforded much power in that post. However, the Jewish House a Rothschild agent. His family was in the banking business and undoubtedly would have been supremely pleased to act—as "gentiles" of today—as Rothschild "fronts." Famed "gentile" J. P. Morgan is an American case in point. As writer Stephen Birmingham pointed out (modestly), Morgan worked closely with (and one dares say for) the Rothschilds (OUR CROWD, Page 135, Dell Publishing Company, 1967. So, whether Norman was Jewish matters slightly).

This significance of Jews really ruling different nations' monetary systems from behind the scene is important. All too often, men—Jew or "gentile"—whom we are told lead some organization, banking institution, or even country are, indeed, only "fronts"—cover-up men for Jewry's hierarchy. One previously-unrevealed and powerful such Jew behind the scene is Michel Fribourg. Surprisingly, PARADE MAGAZINE (April 16, 1972, Page 21) disclosed that—apparently—Fribourg is wealthier than John Paul Getty, Howard Hughes, the Rockefellers, etc. combined! He was said to be somewhat on the social-financial level of the all-important Rothschilds. How many more such "hidden" Jews are there? Regardless, we can be assured that the Montagu Normans, past and present, ARE under control by these fabulously-wealthy Jews.

As for Paul Hoffman being identified as Jewish, the same commendable source referred to earlier also states this person is not Jewish. Besides looking somewhat Jewish, having a potentially-Jewish name, Hoffman is also wed to the Jewess Anna Rosenberg. She was the "leftist" Secretary of Defense for the U.S. in the 1950's and a strong influence on Nelson Rockefeller in more recent years. Hoffman is supposedly a "protestant"; but, this writer, as with Gus Hall, would like to see his "pedigree." This man has had many power positions...as with the Ford Foundation and the Fund for the Republic. His—public—help in selecting Eisenhower and Nixon for political posts was mentioned in CHRISTIAN SHEEP. But, who "selected" Hoffman can only well be speculated upon. With the influence of Jews, as the massively powerful Sidney J. Weinberg, on operations as the Ford Foundation, it is reasonable to assume Hoffman was chosen for an important but "front" role. The same is true for his political involvements.

CHRISTIAN SHEEP only conjectured that Cord Meyer, Jr. was Jewish. Actually—as "gentile" or Jew—Meyer has not been overly important in the Jewish-contrived labor to destroy white-Christian nationalism. The United Federalists, for which he was its first "head," was controlled (and likely created) by the Jew James Paul Warburg.

Aside from these five individuals, it has been questioned over the years whether Alexander Kerensky, of Russian Revolution

Get Organized, or Accept Inevitable Enslavement by Money Power

Lt. Gen. Pedro A. del Valle

By Lt. Gen. Pedro A. del Valle

1. FACTS

a. George Meany, King-maker of the AFL-CIO Labor Monopoly through the Union's political strong-arm machine, called "COPE," is already well underway toward subverting representative government. By purchasing two-thirds of each House of Congress he misuses the money the workers pay him for their constitutional right to work, union or no union.

b. The Rockefellers, who have garnered a few more "trillions" by their phony fuel shortage, have been in control of the White House. Their puppets now man the Presidential Chair and all the most important cabinet positions including the Departments of State, Defense, Treasury, Health, Education and Welfare, Housing and Urban Development, and almost all the presidential speech writers and advisers. Whose money do you suppose is being used so heavily to buy enough members of both Houses of Congress to get Nelson Rockefeller confirmed as Ford's vice-president?

c. The Federal Reserve Board, headed by Arthur Burns, has, by an earlier unlawful act of Congress, gained control over our money. They are a group of international bankers including both Rothschilds and Rockefellers. Their present role in the take-over of the U.S.A. is to cause, [by pumping more cold cash currency into our economy than can be used by our industry and commerce], the inflation we now suffer and which will cheapen and destroy the U.S. dollar. Members of the Congress, fearing this Money Power will unseat them from their lush Congressional chairs, and knowing that money can do this to them, refuse to act in the only way they can act to stop inflation. Repeal the Federal Reserve Act and restore the sovereign right of the people to control their money.

2. SIGNIFICANCE

a. The bankruptcy, which stems directly and inevitably from the foregoing "Facts," is treason and will destroy the U.S.A. As stated in "Business Week," the McGraw-Hill publication of 12 October, 1974: "The U.S. is the Debt Economy without peer. It has the biggest lenders, the biggest bor-billions in U.S. Government debt, $200 billions in State and local government debt, $200 billions in consumer debt. To fuel nearly three decades of postwar economic boom at home and export it abroad, this Nation has borrowed an average of $200 million a day since the close of World War II."

b. Regional Governance (called Fascism in Italy. In the U.S. it is generally referred to as "corporate socialism"). By Executive Order No. 11647, the nation was reorganized into 10 Regions, with each Region encompassing several states. Each Region is directed and controlled from a capital city within the Region by bureaucratic appointees. Unless some catastrophe strikes beforehand, as soon as sub-regional offices are established throughout the Nation and all public corporations and agencies are properly settled, staffed and coordinated with all other public corporations and agencies, State, County and Municipal Governments will have become superfluous and will "die on the vine." Large private corporations, such as "ATT&T," "Gen Motors," and "IBM," etc., will be broken down into smaller organizations that fit wholly within the boundaries of an assigned Region and thus avoid overlap and confusion among the ten Regions. This reorganization not only destroys our Constitution, but sets up as tight a dictatorship as Soviet Russia, with which anti-Christian, amoral Dictatorship our political leaders would make us "partners in slavery" along with the Russian people. This is high treason. As such it is intolerable and explains why the enemy seeks to confiscate our tens of millions of privately owned firearms.

c. Public mis-education, demoralization and mis-information keeps the American people from realizing the criminal, immoral, suicidal, anti-Christian course our controlled government is following. The Money Powers also control our schools, news media, and libraries to ensure that the United States will have an ignorant and gullible electorate. Followed up by intense doses of boopis and sports, they have thus produced a situation where samplings nation-wide show that only about 20% of those voters (electorate - Ed) had any idea of who the candidates were and almost none knew the issues involved. Thus by purchase of legislators, presidents, governors, courts, schools (N.E.A.), libraries (A.L.A.), news media including TV, etc., the three Money Monsters (Rockefeller, Rothschild and Burnsweig) have our country at their mercy. An ignorant electorate will never be able to get free of their chains by political action.

3. ACTION INDICATED

a. John Paul Jones, from his rotten, sinking "Bon Homme Richard" answered his British opponent's call to surrender by saying, in effect, "Surrender - Hell! We have not yet begun to fight! He then grappled the enemy ship.

HEROES OF THE WHITE RACE

Horst Wessel

From the past we recall a man's form: tall, blond with a broad forehead—a young man, a German and a White Christian—not only by accident of birth but with his heart and soul. One of the best. His name was Horst Wessel.

He came to the German capital from the province of Westphalia, to continue his studies at the University of Berlin. Being sharp of wit, a keen observer, he soon became the favorite and transgressor of the corrupt Weimar public. He was dumbfounded by an alien spirituality he found in the capital—aimed at the German people from state, screen, advertising, billboards, magazines and even art shows—an alien spirituality distorting and poisoning the taste, thought and even the speech of his countrymen.

"If only I could see something here in the German capital that is really German!" With these words, Horst Wessel expressed his inbred love of country and his religious upbringing, both of which gradually hardened into a firm core of nationalism.

He saw the alien parasites who showed no interest in the seven million unemployed forming long lines at the doors of factories, at public kitchens and at welfare offices. He saw his people living in quarters unfit for the lowest of animals—breeding grounds for Communism. In the dark of night, reds whispered "In Russia every worker has a comfortable home"; "in Russia everyone is either a worker or a doctor"; "in Russia there are no other distinctions."

Then he found what, deep down, he had been looking for: the brown-shirts of Hitler. These brown-shirted storm troops were propagating a new kind of socialism in the face of Communist propaganda: nationalism and socialism combined.

Horst Wessel joined the National Socialist German Worker's Party, and from then on, all his efforts, all his spare moments were given to this party. He attended lectures and later became one of the lecturers himself. His oratorical ability was soon matched by his success at organizing. The six-member group entrusted to his care grew to sixty-six members inside of four weeks.

He knew that the people suffering under the corrupt Weimar regime would need a social rebirth, but he was aware that the only way to achieve this was to neutralize every bit of Communist propaganda and to prove that the German people were sufficiently mature to build their own future without direction from alien agitators.

He announced that the father of Communist socialism, Karl Marx, did not represent the people's spirit; instead he represented the spirit of the Talmud, the revenge-seeking spirit of the Jews. It was not by accident that materialism and class differences between workers and intellectuals were both Jewish concepts. The Communist dream of proletarian rule, he said, only served to hide the talmudist conviction that Jews will rule over all the non-Jews of the world.

Admittedly, Karl Marx was the first in world history to found a movement of socialist workers against exploitation by capitalists; but the purer ideology of socialism—Christian socialism—had existed since the days of St. Paul. In Paul's second letter to the Thessalonians (Chapter 3, Verse 10) we read: "For also when we were with you, this we declared to you: that, if any man will not work, neither let him eat..."; or, in his first letter to Timothy (Chapter 5, Verse 18): "For the scripture saith: thou shalt not muzzle the ox that treadeth the corn; and the labourer is worthy of his reward..." These two sentences are the basis of true Christian socialism, not the "dialectical materialism" of the grandson of a Trier rabbi, Karl Marx.

As Wessel's success grew, the Red Front's hatred for this young German burgeoned. He knew of the growing danger to himself, but his boundless love for his country and his people would not let him retreat. His group originated the marching song, "Die Fahne hoch" ("Raise high the Banner"), which quickly became the official march of the National Socialist German Worker's Party.

On February 22nd, 1930, during a street fight, Horst Wessel was seriously wounded. The next day, Communist terrorists entered his home, knocking down his old housekeeper and, waking him with blows, then shooting him as he lay in bed. Neighbors, attracted by the noise, ran to his aid, and one called a physician. The nearest doctor, who happened to be Jewish, refused to aid the young "Nazi."

Thus, after a short period of intense pain, Horst Wessel died, a martyr to National Socialism. His last word was "Deutschland" (Germany).

Wessel's funeral was not uneventful either. Communist bandits attacked the procession, discarded and trampled the wreaths which were decorated with swastikas, and began a gigantic free-for-all with the men who were following the casket.

Three years later, Hitler's flags fluttered throughout Germany, bringing a new order, a national rebirth, a socialism without Jewish influence, and the end of unemployment. Hundreds of thousands were now singing "Die Fahne hoch," whose author now slept in a Berlin cemetery.

The German "Folkish" ideology as well as the National Socialist German Worker's Party are things of the past. Today's problems require a world-wide movement of White Christians for their solution—not merely isolated movements within each land. Yet we still feel that, today, on the 45th anniversary of his death, we must remember this hero and martyr, if only because his homeland seems to have forgotten him. To seek his memory in Germany, you must find one of those little country inns where veterans gather. And maybe, if you're patient, you'll hear softly from some table in a corner the strains of Horst Wessel's marching song:

Close up the ranks! Rise high our honored banner!
The storm troops march with calm and steady pace.
Our comrades, shot by Red Front and reaction, Amid our ranks in spirit keep their place.

Bureaucrats Want to Punish Whites for Fleeing Cities

WASHINGTON—Future historians will marvel at the silliness of the American people.

First, they allowed corrupt politicians to turn great cities into centers of hate and violence, by permitting negro criminals to rob, rape, abuse and murder whites. Politicians are fearful of the negro bloc vote and therefore give far more consideration to the "rights" of the negro criminal than to the "rights" of the white victim.

Second, instead of standing together to defend their homes and families, whites abandoned their cities to move to the suburbs at great expense. They sold their homes for heartbreak losses in many instances. They gave up their churches, clubs and schools. Instead of banding together to defeat corrupt politicians and insist upon saving their cities, they ran.

(In running away, they often gave other excuses. But the truth is that they knew that the cities had become too dangerous for them and their children, too vile and too dirty.)

The bureaucrats intend to chase them down, however, and to again destroy their home values.

The U.S. Commission on Civil Rights proposed on August 12 in a message to President Ford that the federal government provide bribes to any black willing to move to white suburbs.

This outrageous proposal called the bribes by a sugar-coated name: "suitable subsidies."

The message to Ford from the bureaucrats said that "Suitable subsidies" should be used to lure more blacks into white neighborhoods to carry out a proposed "national public policy designed to promote racial integration of neighborhoods throughout the U.S."

The proposal is a busing plan that makes the busing of school children look paltry by comparison.

The suggested forms of bribery:

1. Give any negro a special income tax deduction if he agrees to move to a white neighborhood.
2. Give any negro a direct cash payment or folding money bribe if he agrees to be a block-buster. The money would be taken from whites and non-agitating negroes through taxation. In other words, the victim would have to pay for his own victimization.
3. Waive property taxes for negroes willing to move into white neighborhoods. (Property taxes have been a matter for local governments in the past, but there's no telling what a radical federal judge might decide in such a matter.)

These were only a part of the anti-white recommendations of the U.S. Civil Rights Commission which, incidentally, is also paid for its revolutionary activity by way of federal taxation of the victims. George III was never so bold.

What can whites do about it?

First, they must learn to vote together. If they can do this, they can change enough congressmen to purge the Leftwing bureaucrats from their posts of authority. They can make America safe for all law-abiding citizens, white and black. If they are unwilling to stand up

Two Reasons Why Rudolf Hess Is Hated

In his book, Prisoner #7: Rudolf Hess (Viking Press, N.Y., 1974, 270 pages, $10.00), Col. Eugene Bird, the former director of Spandau, may inadvertently have given two reasons why the Germanophobic breed among the victors hates Rudolf Hess with such an eye-for-an-eye passion. The Communists hate him and presumably want him to die incommunicado in the Spandau jail because Hess might reveal what Soviet-Russian barbarities and threats provoked Hitler to attack them. But why should the minority in the West which also hates the Palestinians be so vindictive towards Hess?

One reason may be that Hess continues to contradict one prime propaganda lie alleged against the Third Reich. When Dr. Maurice Walsh, U.S. psychiatrist, grilled him on May 25, 1948, and asked if he believed in a "Master Race,"

"Hess smiled. He had never used the expression. These expressions were employed by German propaganda for foreign consumption. They were not used in Germany. Anyway, I do not believe in this concept." (p. 83)

The defamers of the Third Reich cannot forgive anyone who would puncture their racialist lie about it.

Another characteristic of the professional Germanophobes is their championship of pornography in the phony name of freedom of expression and the press. The Morgenthauists control the business of pornography and hate with a satanic vengeance anyone who is not "with it." That includes Hess. Not only is his family life ideal, but he is also a thoroughly decent individual, which to his persecutors is as unpardonable as Christ's purity was to the Pharisees. Rudolf Hess "unpardonably" spurned the Jewish filth magazine Playboy. Col. Bird writes:

"On Playboy magazine: 'I do not read magazines like that.' (A warder who showed him a copy, which he rejected, said: 'I have taken them into him at Spandau and he has always pushed them aside. He will never tell or listen to a dirty joke.')

Naturally the breed of Germanophobes and pornographers wants to keep such a man in jail!

Rabbi Says: Jews Are a Race

In an interview with the Los Angeles Times (Dec. 29, 1974, page 7) the Ashkenazi chief rabbi of the Israeli State, Shlomo Goren, said, "I believe we cannot count conversion to the NATION (Race), only to the faith (religion)... That bounds (territories) of the people according to the number of the children of Israel. For the Lord's portion is his people; Jacob is the lot of his inheritance."

Christian Conscience

In this process of Divine division and selection is the key to a proper understanding of today's race problems.

God's Plan of selection and allotting of territories for all nations, Black, Coloured and White, with a specific culture in each, was to the end that the various races should retain their RACIAL PURITY, and His fiat for each was that they were to develop EACH AFTER HIS KIND. Racial integration is therefore contrary to the Will of God and contrary to His purpose for His people.

There is no doubt that many ecclesiasts and others object to the use of Old Testament Laws as of authority in a Christian era, and yet the Lord Jesus Christ said emphatically: "Think not that I am come to destroy the law or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil. For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled" (Matt. 5: 17, 18). Further, He confirmed that the Ten Commandments were still of full force and effect (Matt. 22: 35-39).

Christians give pride of place to the actual words of their Lord, Redeemer and Saviour, as recorded in the New Testament. In doing so they can and must rely on the record and statements made by the Lord Jesus Christ and His Apostles. To be one in faith does not imply all one in race, nor does it abolish the innate barriers of race ordained by God, and which the Organised Churches are now trying to break down in defiance of God's Laws, let alone the Laws of the State.

An unholy mixing of races and puerile patter of equality of all races, without regard to their inherent character and potentialities, is foolishness in the extreme. It is not supported by the Bible, nor the facts of life. Say what you will the Bible is a discriminating Book. Let Christians therefore beware of the cliché: "no discrimination," unless of course they want to ally themselves with the international schemers in both Church and State to destroy our Christian heritage.

The Caucasian (White) race, in spite of all its frailties, stupidities and evil ways of bureaucracy, has demonstrated a capacity for creative greatness that has produced most of the civilisations of history. On the other hand, whatever its other virtues may be the African race has never produced any civilisation anywhere, at any time, a self-evident truth in relation to all independent African territories, especially where the advice and guidance of the Caucasian race has been rejected.

Scriptural evidence emphasizes the original Divine intention that all races are separate and distinct and

Special to Christian Vanguard

From Jeffrey L. Spencer
in Salisbury, Rhodesia

ON SOUTH AFRICA

The South African political scene is probably not changing so drastically as might originally have been supposed, at least not domestically. With the most vibrant and wealthy economy on the African continent, much of it controlled by the Jew Harry Oppenheimer and his cohorts, South Africa's government sees the new white-black detente as a means to curb its western-like rate of inflation through industrial expansion in the black nations of the north. Its new foreign policy might even be described in THIRD WORLD terms as a form of economic imperialism. It is commonly believed here, despite the government's short sighted international games, that its internal policy of Apartheid (separate development) will continue, but at a faster pace. This belief was strengthened over the weekend of November 21-23 by the Prime Minister, Mr. John Vorster, unto Caesar, or not?" Jesus asked them to show Him a coin, and then asked them: "Whose is this image and superscription? They say unto Him, Caesar's. Then saith He unto them, render unto Caesar the things that are Caesar's, and unto God the things that are God's" (Matt. 22: 15-21).

It will be noticed that the Lord Jesus Christ put the mundane material requirements of the Roman World Order before the spiritual requirements of the Kingdom of Heaven.

Further, it was a law in His day that a Roman soldier could demand of any civilian that he carry his equipment for the distance of one mile (1000 stadia). Contrary to telling His hearers to disobey the law and refuse to carry the equipment, He told them: "And whosoever shall compel thee to go a mile, go with him twain" (Matt. 5: 41). He thus indicated that to go a mile was to obey the law, but to VOLUNTEER to go an additional mile was an example of Christian attitude to the laws of the land.

The ecclesiasts and churches of South Africa, and indeed those of the Western world, should recall, study and inwardly digest Paul's advice to Christians: "Let every soul be subject to the higher authority. For there is no authority but of God... Whosoever therefore resisteth the authority, resisteth the ordinance of God... For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wherefore ye must needs be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake. For, for this cause pay ye tribute (taxes) also... RENDER THEREFORE ALL THEIR DUES (tribute to whom tribute is due, custom to whom custom is due, fear (respect) to whom respect is due, honour to whom honour is due" (Rom. 13: 1-7) or in the words of Peter: "SUBMIT YOURSELVES TO in a speech he delivered in Zeerust, at which time he stated in quite concise terms "there will be majority rule in South Africa. The National Party has approved of it and it will consist of majority rule for the TWANALAND, the VENDA, the ZULU and KWA ZULU. But the WHITES will govern South Africa." Further, he made light of the interpretation many leftists had placed on his now famous phrase "...give South Africa six months," saying that what they envisaged (black rule) would never come to pass.

As it may well be beneficial for Mr. Vorster's country to seek "peaceful co-existence" (if it is in reality possible) with the African banana republics, the case is quite different from Rhodesia's. As the Rightist PROPERTY AND FINANCE publication put it: "even at some risk South Africa can afford to attempt some form of so-called detente with Black neighbours, and with its own Black Homelands, without fatally prejudicing its interests as a White State; but, in contrast, the Prime Minister (Mr. Smith), having firmly opted for a continuance of racial 'Partnership,' rather than Separate Development that he and his Party promised, cannot publicly follow the South African lead without fatally weakening the position of a White electorate liable to react vehemently to any overt signs of sell out." Obviously, each country's involvement must be viewed separately, though both have their dangerous implications.

The most significant and frightening aspect in South Africa today is the almost total surrender of the previously Rightist Afrikaans press to the forces of Jew Oppenheimer and his sell-out rabble. Today there is very little difference between the English (Jewish) and Afrikaans newspaper editorial policies. On the other hand, however, a racist breakaway from the National Party, the HERUGSTE NATIONALE PARTIJ, is quickly gaining support among the more observant and realistic voters.

There is as much that is unknown in the present situation, and so many variables concerned, that it is impossible to state categorically any one train of thought. With the government of Rhodesia's "phase out White Rule" policy, Mr. Vorster may well be considering that the Limpopo is easier to defend than the Zambezi. It would be prudent for him to remember, however, that to the primitive black, concessions are a display of weakness—not humanitarian diplomacy, and in his hands lie the destinies of the White population, including his own unique Afrikaans. One reporter here stated that detente was the first original thought to emerge from South Africa in decades; let us hope that Western strength and fortitude, lacking for thirty years in the White world, will be re-discovered and re-instated here.

ON RHODESIA

have been defeated, as in Kenya a score ago, and again as in eastern Africa, a cloud of tremendous importance is brewing over the land south of the Zambezi. Southern Africa is in the peak of the rainy season, however, more importantly, it is in the peak of "detente," a cloud much gloomier and foreboding than those of the heavenly bodies.

With the release of the terrorist leaders in Rhodesia by its Prime Minister, Ian Smith, the future of the European is very doubtful indeed. Joshua Nkomo, ex-leader of the terrorist organisation ZAPU, returned home from imprisonment and greeted by the cries and shouts for joy of thousands of his racial brethren, somewhat disapproving Mr. Smith's claims to have the "happiest Africans on the continent." In fact, the truth would seem to be the opposite; while still in fear and respect of the white man, there appears to be seething discontent among the black population, due in large part to the vacillation of the European government. For the first time there is a crack in the Rhodesia Front, and Black Power may well become a reality in the near future, via either renewed terror, civil disobedience, or white surrender. Two weeks ago, Bishop Muzarewa of the African National Council, chief among the black agitators, stated in an interview that "this country (Rhodesia) would see black domination before the end of the rains," which is approximately the end of February/March. Blood has been smelled, the weakness seen, and the blacks are prepared, determined, to launch this European paradise into the orbit of the Stone Age through majority rule.

All this is not to say that the Whites will concede defeat, for these White Rhodesians are a hardy lot, comprised largely of immigrants from other African Territories who left after their respective countries gained "independence." However, the white man has a very small political memory, especially when it comes to racial policies. It must be said though, that white racist newspapers and magazines are sold openly here, and are subscribed to by a large sector of the European population. The problem seems to be that Mr. Smith and his party have become something of an "institution" in the minds of Rhodesians, and it is still in doubt just how far his constituents are willing to follow him down the road of concession.

Many Whites here are determined to stand firm, for otherwise there is no life left for them. All that remains is the Cape and the sea. There is one certainty that has emerged from the recent chain of events, that if White Southern Africa fell it would deal a near fatal blow to the morale, aspirations and hopes of the white man the world over. Just whether the European African will shirk his responsibility, as his racial brothers have continuously done on other continents since 1945, only time will tell. The

Cultural Relativity

By Ronald Lee Shale

From the remote past, the various peoples of the world have banded together to form separate and distinct cultures and civilizations, each with its own ideals, values and spirit. Each was a response by the people to the conditions that surrounded them at the time, based upon their past experiences. Ours, the Western culture, is in itself unique in its aspirations. It is one aspect of this view of the world held by Western man that concerns itself with this argument; that is our Western universality.

Our culture has, as no other before it, sought to make the entire world conform to Western ideals and traditions. To a large degree this has been superficially done. One has but to look anywhere in the world and he will find the Western cultural imprint on every nation of the world. From their form of government, down to the clothes that they wear, the world is but a large copy of Europe. The idea that whatever is foreign is wrong and inferior, is not new, as most people react in this way to something of a different culture, but it is the crusading spirit with which we have gone out and forced the world to conform to our norms, that makes us different and thus makes our world outlook different.

The Christian religion was our Western culture's first formalized code of ethics, and being an integral part of our culture, it assumed this Western universalism from its very inception. Our whole idea of sending missionaries to the "heathens" to save their souls is an expression of this Faustian spirit in its purist form. The thought that the moral teachings of these missionaries had little value in the new setting they found themselves in, did not seem to concern them. In reality it was not the moral teaching that changed the world, it was the muzzle of a .75 caliber Brown Bess; for when the guns were gone the missionaries went into the pots and were the next night's dinner. Even those that accepted the Western religion, modified it to suit their particular cultural needs. This can be seen in the Buddhist-Catholics in Asia, which use the traditional Catholic ritual but present the theology in a truly Oriental light. Closer to home is the rise of the idea of a Black Christ, which is being widely accepted here in Detroit. The combination of Voodoo and Christianity in Haiti is but one other example of how the Western traditions are adopted by other peoples; the rituals and words may be the same but the true Western spiritual meaning behind it is lacking. They have taken something of ours and transformed it into a product of their culture, for nothing can be lifted from one culture and accepted into another without it being modified to fit the preconceived patterns of the recipient culture.

It is this lack of other cultures to adapt themselves totally to West-

Hail to a Patriot

The fact that WE are (unlawfully) pledged to the support and continuance of the foreign state of Israel is proof of General Geo. S. Brown's remarks concerning Jewry and its influence in the USA. This is contrary to our own national interests in connection with the Arabs and our oil supply. It would seem that the bell tolls for a free America when her President (Ford) exonerates an honorable citizen exercising his right of free speech. Evidently General Brown, Chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, was asked questions by Duke University students after his lecture to them—which brought forth his warning about the power and influence of Organized Zionist Jewry in American affairs and the people as to what is justifiable and what is not. A cannibal, living in a cannibalistic society, would feel perfectly justified in killing someone for dinner, and might be quite horrified at our idea of burying someone and wasting all that food. Our literature is filled with stories of the glories of war, and of the hero, who is the one that kills the most of the enemy. Our wars in which millions are slaughtered for ideologies, would be incomprehensible to a cannibal and probably shock him as much as his activities would shock the missionary. In this case who is right? This can clearly be answered by referring to the ethics of different people and deciding which you personally like. But you will almost invariably choose the same as the rest of the people in your culture. This is because of the inborn "gut" feeling most of us have concerning our cultural norms. It is thus natural for a cannibal to act like a cannibal and for a European to act like a European. The abnormality only arises when the cannibal acts like a European while in a cannibalistic culture, or for the reverse to happen. Our moral standards seem to us to be, for the most part, unquestionable. This is as it should be; but to expect the rest of the world to unquestionably accept our Western standards completely, is asking them something that is impossible to do. This is also as it should be. As soon as our military superiority fades, the rest of the world will soon revert to the patterns of the past, incorporating the remnants of Western thought that is left there by us, into a true expression of their own cultural values. This can be seen happening in Mainland China, parts of South America, and Africa, even within the ethnic groups in America. They are finding that the Western culture is not theirs and that they should stop trying to conform to our mode of life, and instead revive their own culture interests. He evidently thought: it was his duty to answer honestly, since our youth may soon be called upon to fight a Jewish-caused war in the Middle East, in behalf of the stolen State of Israel. But General Brown was made to eat crow by our President for putting loyalty to his Country FIRST—which all members of the Armed Services are supposed to do.

Probably General Brown did not know that Organized Zionist Jewry are the "untouchables" whom nobody may justifiably criticize with impunity. Writers on behalf of White Christian Constitutional Americanism learned that long ago. President Ford opted in behalf of this secretive, powerful sect of Zionist Jewry, which demands what is granted to no other people or group, i.e. complete immunity from criticism. General Brown was correct in his remarks concerning the wealth and power of Antichrist Jewry in the United States, as well as in the world. There is NO other organized group comparable to them in wealth, power and influence—which they exercise in their own particular interests, and not those of Constitutional Americanism per se. Their TALMUD and teaching is definitely anti-Christ and un-Christian—which is what President Ford was thereby upholding and favoring as against his own presumed tenants of Christianity and loyalty to our Constitutional free speech. (I often am forced to wonder WHY our Armed Forces want to make sacrifices, even of life, to preserve the sort of mixed-up heterogeneous one-world sort of country we have now become—which is so very different from the ideals and principles set up by our noble Founding Fathers, who would definitely have approved General Brown's AMERICA FIRST stand.)

The power of alien organized Zionist Jewry is now so pervasive and punitive-financial, political, presswise etc.—that virtually NO MAN IN PUBLIC LIFE DARES TO CRITICIZE THEM, AS THEY WOULD ANY OTHER ORDINARY CITIZENS (with possible exception of Organized Blacks, who now pattern after Jewry). There is no other group in the USA who is so sacrosanct as to be utterly free from criticism, in this humorously called "Free" Republic. Of course (?) we are all free: only organized anti-Christ Jewry is just MORE SO! Our ambitious politicians know this, and do not care to 'break a lance for America'—most are ignoble captives and craven cowards. General Brown, amazingly, had some courage and patriotism, so dared to speak what ALL WELL-INFORMED PEOPLE KNOW. He was therefore rebuked by our President, who is either totally UNinformed or else totally subservient to the unwritten LAW that it is 'lese-majeste' to criticize the anti-Christ Jew. When your free speech and press is gone, so is your

Letters to the Editor

Dear Sir:

Just wanted to write you concerning several items of vital interest of which perhaps you may be unaware. I am enclosing articles which reflect the awakening of people in this area. Your paper on the Potomac River Basin Compact and Land Planning seems to be getting results. At least the local people in the Regional Planning

Area are reacting by getting out while yet possible. Missouri State Senator Melton of 201 West 9th Street (Zip 65625) Cassville, Mo. has been a frequent speaker against such government planning. But there seems to always be a smooth-talking Jew in charge of these Planning Commissions that try to brainwash the people and cover-up the true intent of the organization. At least the people in the articles appear to be awakening perhaps a bit late, but not "too late."

According to your article "The Potomac River Basin Compact"—"The Master Land Plan" there was mentioned that there would be foreign personages to take-over our government—yet they are to have Americanized names, etc. Perhaps you are unaware that at this very time there are "foreign colonies" already established inside this U.S.A. It is known that they now exist in both Dakotas and Wisconsin as well as Georgia. All states supposedly have such colonies. No "outsider" is allowed within these areas of these states.

Their mode of operation is to come in and acquire land as cheap as possible surrounding (enclosing) other areas and finally squeeze out those U.S. citizens within their "enclosure." This was definitely practiced in the Dakotas! Also of note is their financial independence. They never require loans or do business with anyone else once established. They say in the Dakotas that these people are from Russia! Now you and I know that an immigrant or group of immigrants arriving from Russia is supposedly penniless, yet these are apparently financially independent.

Are these people financed by our government or that of Russia? They must be Jews, for the only people now leaving Russia are Jews, and only Jews do as these people are doing—establishing their own stores, banks, schools and continuing to use only their language. The local civil authorities are not permitted to enter their area, etc. The authorities do not know what is going on or what transpires. Even the U.S. Senators, etc. profess unawareness of this situation. Can you supply the American public a full exposure of this critical situation of so-called "foreign colonies" inside the U.S.? And the real intent and purpose of them. Are these the hidden concentration camps being prepared?

Here in the immediate area of Ripley County, Missouri, there has been a "camp" prepared in the past two years. It is said the party heading the camp (hippy style) appears Jewish and is reputed to have several millions in St. Louis Banks. Their camp is approximately one mile square and extensive building has been done in the past two years. They acquired a $10,000 bulldozer and other heavy equipment. The place has been high-fenced elaborately and rigged with radio-controlled gates. Some claim the fences are electrified. This fall a very large septic tank was installed—enough for a small town. They acquire food and supplies by the truck-load.

Recently two trucks of unknown contents were delivered from Ft. Leonard Wood (U.S. Army). The local people have been unable to find out what this camp is really about.

The people cannot be able to resist a takeover as Kissinger has military control and with the program of trained Jew immigrants, who are being "buried" in our midst via our government programs to get them out of Russia, and presumably to "Palestine," he has then a Trojan horse ready-made. Remember the ancient Jews who always opened the city gates to the hordes of Genghis Khan! These immigrants are likely their very descendants who slaughtered Christianity in centuries past. And the American people are paying their way over here! You and I know the only people ever allowed to leave Russia are Jews. The American People will never awaken unless this simple plan of takeover is given their immediate attention via Headline Exposure!

Perhaps you caught the phrase used by Ford in his Economy Address—that of the Grand Design. Have you read this book by Joseph Kraft—"The Grand Design"? We've had the New Deal, the Great Society, etc. and now, finally, The Grand Design. It is a plan to incorporate the Atlantic Alliance, with the U.S.A. and the 10 Common Market Countries, into one government—"The Grand Design." Surely this is the true intent of this catch-phrase.

Sincerely and gratefully,
J.B.R.

TV Series to Glorify Race-mixing

Norman Lear, an anti-White Jew, is going to produce a TV series based on inter-marriage. Lear is the producer of "All in the Family," the series that makes patriotic Americans look stupid, and of another sick program called "Mannix." CBS has already contracted to carry the race-mixing show.

Lear is planning to put over his race-mixing in a very clever way: He says, "We plan to open the series by concentrating on the boy's career, and have the girl appear as just a side character. Their relationship will develop slowly throughout the first year, until we've created an atmosphere the public is so in favor of, they'll write and demand we allow the couple to marry."

Beside promoting anti-White hate and race-mixing, Lear is active in left-wing causes and is the president of the American Civil Liberties Union Foundation of Southern California.

Patriots should write to CBS in New York and to local CBS-affiliate TV stations demanding that the show be cancelled before it gets off the ground. Lear is further, living proof that the Jews are actively promoting the mixing of the White and Black races.

NEW CHRISTIAN CRUSADE CHURCH

This investigation is based on information which indicates that the New Christian Crusade Church (NCCC), also known as the New Christian Crusade (NCC), and the "Crusaders", is engaged in activities which would involve a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1114 (Assaulting or Killing a Federal Officer); Section 2383 (Rebellion or Insurrection); Section 241 (Conspiracy Against Rights of Citizens); Section 245 (Federally Protected Activities); Civil Rights Act of 1968 or related Civil Rights statutes; and the Act for Protection of Foreign Officials and Official Guests of the United States.

The New Christian Crusade (NCC), Post Office Box 3247, Hollywood, California, is a white racist organization that promotes the concept that all Caucasians are the true Israelites and descendants of Adam, as opposed to members of other races. This organization has a cooperative association with retired Colonel Reverend William Potter Gale of the Ministry of Christ Church (MCC) also known as the Identity Group. (See appendix for Identity Group). The

[redacted] March 11, 1974) b2/b7D

The NCCC has been holding regularly scheduled monthly meetings on the third Saturday of each month at Oneira Hall, 4649 Hawley Boulevard, San Diego, California, since early 1974. Bertrand L. Comparet, a retired attorney, and author of many books and articles which espouse the philosophy of the Identity Movement, is the leader of these meetings, and usually is also the primary speaker.

On January 6, 1974, a combined meeting of the NCCC and the MCC was held in San Diego at Oneira Hall, which was attended by approximately 40 people. The speakers were [redacted] b7C

b7C

- (1) To inform the public that the real Israelites are Caucasians
- (2) To have a television show in which Norton would be the speaker
- (3) To build a strong building to be used for headquarters of the NCCC in Los Angeles, California, and for the production of pamphlets and papers espousing the organization's philosophies, and to serve as a place for meetings

[REDACTED] spoke primarily about "food in capsule form", which was being [REDACTED] of the Minutemen (see appendix).

All three of these speakers pointed out that their predictions concerning a coming economy crisis, and food shortages, were coming true and that this was making people become more interested in their respective organizations. They expressed their opinions that only 1% of the population is needed to accomplish their purposes, which are namely to make the Caucasians and the United States "supreme".

The regular San Diego NCCC meeting held on January 18, 1975, was attended by approximately 50 people. Past NCCC meetings had been attended by usually from 12 to 15 older people; however, this meeting in which Comparet spoke about the unfair trial given Christ by the Jews was attended by many young men, in addition to the older people. The Regional Western meeting of various right wing extremists, resulting from the meeting which took place with [REDACTED] in Norborne, Missouri, during 1974, was scheduled to take place in Los Angeles over the weekend of February 15 - 16, 1975; however, it has been decided to hold this meeting only on February 16, 1975, beginning at 2:00 P.M. In addition to [REDACTED] of the Ku Klux Klan and [REDACTED] of the National States Rights Party, [REDACTED] of the [REDACTED] Knights of the Ku Klux Klan is also to attend this meeting, possibly as a guest speaker. The Aryan Brotherhood, which numbers about 450 men, was formed at San Quentin Prison in California in about 1968, and run by a council that votes on new membership and major business. The Aryan Brotherhood is anti-black, and membership is composed primarily of those who support white supremacy. Membership is for life. Members operating on the street contribute a sizable amount of their profits to the organization to support operations within the institution. Members of the Aryan Brotherhood have no by-laws, and gain status through "hits". Ties have been traced to the Charles Manson family, mostly dealing with narcotics. Two Aryan Brotherhood brothers with an Aryan Brotherhood tattoo on their fists "AB", were arrested for the murder of a Stockton, California couple, and their companions included four of [REDACTED] "girls",

The Crusaders hope to begin a determined campaign in San Diego County designed to give the impression that several groups have "sprung up" there, and are "going full bore" against the Jews and other minorities. This maneuver, it is hoped, will confuse the authorities as well as the "racial enemies" of the NCCC. In reality it will be the Crusaders who will be trying to broaden their power base. IDENTITY GROUP

The Ministry of Christ Church (MCC), also known as the Identity Group (IG), filed Articles of Incorporation in California in October, 1964, with the stated purpose of "establishment, maintenance and conducting of a church of the Christian faith." The Group has been referred to as a cover for an underground army, and has a mailing address of P. O. Box 423, Glendale, California. In 1972, 100 acres of land, known as the Manasseh Ranch, were purchased in Mariposa County, California, and is the national headquarters.

William Potter Gale, the leader of the IG, and other members have expressed hatred for Jews and Negroes, and have advocated killing FBI Agents and Internal Revenue Service Agents as well as hanging certain judges.

"Identity," a quarterly news bulletin published by this Group, sets forth that the U. S. Christian Posse Association was being formed under the MCC to assist and provide the necessary direction towards the formation of a Christian posse in every county in the U. S. "Identity" states that the body of citizens constituting the sheriff's posse was titled "posse comitatus." The IG believes that the county sheriff is the only legal law enforcement officer in the U. S. and should the sheriff fail to perform his duties, the Posse Comitatus must act in the name of the sheriff to enforce the law.

JEWISH DEFENSE LEAGUE

The Jewish Defense League (JDL), organized in September, 1968, [REDACTED] and headquartered in New York, New York, is composed primarily of young Jewish-American extremists who consider themselves to be protectors of "Jewish rights" and supporters of the State of Israel in its relations with other nations of the world, particularly those of the Middle East. The JDL has chapters located in several of the larger metropolitan areas of the United States and many of its members have been trained in self-defense and the use of firearms. JDL members have engaged in numerous harassing demonstrations throughout the United States while attempting to dramatize the conditions of Jews in the Soviet Union and in Arab nations. Many of its militant members and sympathizers, while combating what they believe to be anti-Semitism, have engaged in acts of terrorism resulting in violence and the impairment of other nations of the world. [REDACTED] of the organization, has publicly proclaimed on several occasions that violence is necessary at times to accomplish the objectives of JDL.

SOCIALIST WORKERS PARTY

The Socialist Workers Party (SWP) is a revolutionary, Trotskyist-communist organization, which is headquartered in New York City. Its purpose, as stated in its Declaration of Principles, is the overthrow of the U. S. Government and the institution of a dictatorship of the working class and the eventual achievement of a communist society. It was founded in 1933 and maintains close association with international Trotskyist organizations as a "sympathizing" group, but it denies formal membership in any foreign group to escape application of the Voorhis Act, which regulates certain types of organizations subject to foreign control. While the SWP does not openly advocate the use of violence at the present time to overthrow the U. S. Government, it believes that eventual violent revolution in the U. S. is inevitable. Its objection to the current use of violence is based on the ground that it believes violence is premature at this time. The SWP seeks to precipitate a revolution when conditions are ripe and to seize control of the revolution and to direct it when it occurs.

COMMUNIST PARTY, USA

Title 50, U. S. Code, Section 781 (Internal Security Act of 1950) stated that, as a result of evidence adduced before various committees of the Senate and House of Representatives, Congress found the existence of a world communist revolutionary movement, whose purpose is to establish a communist totalitarian dictatorship in the world's countries through the medium of a world-wide communist organization. Communist action organizations in various countries endeavor to carry out the objectives of the world communist movement by bringing about the overthrow of existing governments by any means. The communist organization in the United States - the Communist Party, USA (CPUSA) - pursuing its stated objectives, presents "a clear and present danger to the security of the United States." The Subversive Activities Control Board, established by Section 791 of the above Act, found the CPUSA to be a communist action organization. This finding was upheld by the United States Supreme Court in June, 1961. The CPUSA has continued to be an arm of the international communist movement dominated by the Soviet Union. The CPUSA, in its dependence on the Soviet Union, has never knowingly adopted a position contrary to Soviet policy. Its leaders frequently confer with Soviet leaders to receive guidance and direction on the policies the CPUSA is to follow. There has been no evidence that the primary aims of the CPUSA, as they conform to Soviet objectives, have changed over the years.

THE GALL OF JEWRY

By James Concha

In this year of Our Lord, 1974, most white Christian Americans have forgotten that this nation was created, unquestionably, for them.

The force which has seen to this lapse of memory is Jewry. Jews have distorted Christian whites' perspectives in several significant ways in order to accomplish this. One such way was in convincing our people that aliens (Jews and reds) have an "equal right" to our heritage and blessings.

This has been achieved primarily by Jews controlling the communications media in America, including what now passes for "social education" (from a Franz Boas and his "equalitarian anthropology" to a Benjamin Spock and his permissiveness). Jews saw at an early stage in their war on our people (here and in Europe) that their conquest of us would best be realized through twisting our people's thinking, values, traditions, etc. out of focus. A success of this would lead to a more permanent enslavement of us than would a mere physical control. Thus, Jews grasped, possibly before any other dominant people in time, that a control of communications was essential in any effort to destroy an enemy.

They have succeeded at such control. Either through outright ownership of all national media (TV, films, publishing) or through a frightening "influence" (via huge purchases of advertisements and by literal intimidation of "gentile" owners of remaining media), Jews DO control "our" communications.

White Christians, therefore, for the most part, now only know and do what Jews would have them. For instance, if the Jewish "music" world (the record industry, night club circuit, etc.) emphasizes "acid-based, animal-like noise" ("acid rock," etc.) as the "music" for "with-it" people to enjoy, then great numbers of our obeying people will become devotees of such. Those who do not accept the noise are "squares."

In the process of white Christians lowering themselves to this culturally-degenerate depth, they also become more tolerant of negroes from whom Jews took the basics of the degeneracy. Negro "musicians" as "Chubby Checkers, Isaac Hays, etc. have been lionized by duped, adoring whites. Socially-decaying integration is, thus, pushed forward another step by Jewry.

CONTROL OF NEWS MEDIA. Jews controlling the nation's news media have made their boy Henry Kissinger a "hero" to the non-Jewish American public. No matter what's done in international diplomacy by Americans-Kissinger gets full credit. Pictured above are the two Jews, Kissinger and Ribicoff, planning ways of advancing the cause of World Jewry.

brought the colored greatly into our midst (AND sympathy). So thoroughly have white Christians been shamed into accepting the blacks and orientals that most of our kindred are highly reluctant now to even express resentment against what has taken place.

And, let us regard just what did take place. The gall of Jewry in doing as it has, is incredible.

As stated, this society was designed by, for, and of white Christians. In no way, shape, nor form was it intended on any equal basis for Jews and the colored. Our Founding Fathers were wiser than "our" sold-out, Jew-owned "leaders" of today. The creators of America knew that masses of Jews had brought Jewry into other unfortunate white Christian societies. Jews began entering - modestly at first and then in waves - into our land.

The first ones laid the groundwork for others to come. Humbly at first, they exerted their influence on our people. This was seen, as an example, after General U. S. Grant, in the American Civil War, attempted to keep culture-like Jews out of the war zone area (his general Order #11, December 18, 1862). So severe, however, was the slap on Grant's wrist by powers in Washington, D.C., (who had come under Jewish sway), that he rescinded his order and apologized. Unfortunately he "saw the refuge from some European land that had grown disgusted with them), but we cannot be grateful to Christians for that. They are our inferiors and it is repugnant to live by their limiting, puritan, strait-laced ideals; to close our stores on their Sunday sabbaths while having them work on ours (Saturday); to put up with their abominable Christmas season (though we do make much money from it). Their national "isolationism" is intolerable, etc. We cannot be the rulership of a one-world state if these goyim keep themselves so separated from the colored, at home and abroad. This all must be altered. White Christians must be as our Founders intended. They could not live within our value system; that could not be allowed. Who are we - in our own land - to tell Jews how to live!

So, things had to be changed... and they were. For all intent and purpose, this is a Jewish culture and country today. It was no exaggeration when Jew Leslie Fiedler was quoted in TIME magazine to the effect that the "...basic tone of creative intellectualism in the U.S. is now Jewish" (August 19, 1966, Page 80). TIME was earlier quoted (June 25, 1965, Page 34): "...the U.S. is growing more Jewish."

The underlying and admitted philosophy of Jews that nobly rationalizes their conquering conduct is: "...discrimination against any group in America (editor: read "colored group") makes the position of other groups (editor: read "Jewry") insecure" (American Jewish Committee report of the 48th Annual Meeting, January, 1955, Page 44).

Upon this subversive philosophy, Jews have turned our society upside down. Our cities and neighborhoods are in a steady state, as is our government and economy...all due to enslaving Jews striving to obtain a desired-for rule over the world. As the COLUMBIA ENCYCLOPEDIA, under "Judaism," put it (1950, Page 1026): "The firm hope of Israel...[is] that a Prince will arise in Israel, the Messiah, and make his God worshipped by all the world, and his people its rulers." Be certain, this did not refer to our Israel and that the "God" mentioned would have to be Satan. If the mounting decay appearing in the Western World, caused by powerful Jewry, is any indication, then the father of Jewry, the devil (St. John 8: 39-) is becoming "worshipped."

If our people could only become aware of the gall demonstrated by Jewry, they would be filled with indignation and a resolve to save their society. But, to the contrary, white Christians do not recognize the ponderous insult they endure.

Here is a fantastic situation whereby Jews are moving parasitic colored into our society and our people are meekly accepting the tragedy. Jews have our folk so deceived that they cannot even muster up resentment. The Jew standard by which we now live goes like this: 1) it is the proper "American" thing for Jews and

Jews, Arabs and Christians: Time for a Reappraisal

By James K. Wozniak

The death of Haj Amin El Hussein, the Grand Mufti of Palestine, has left a great void in the Arab world and a feeling of loss among his friends in the White Christian community.

One of the last sane Arab leaders, the Grand Mufti was determined to fight the Jews as Jews, without the phony distinction between "good Jews" and "bad Zionists."

Looking through patriotic material dating back to 1920, one can easily see that the principal supporters of the Arabs have always been CHRISTIAN right-wing patriots—those who also stood for the survival of the White race. Until the 1960's the Arab cause had few supporters on the Left; and now, with the subsiding of the New Left surge that began around 1965, left-wing support for the Arabs is again on the decline.

Over the years, various right-wing authors have proved that the Communists originally supported the concept of an Israeli state. Now, for geopolitical reasons, the U.S.S.R. is suddenly "pro-Arab." But the Soviet commitment to the Arabs is shallow at best and may well vanish as quickly as it materialized.

COLONIALIST "BROTHERS"

Those of us with some historical knowledge look back to a time when most of the Arab lands were controlled by those apostles of "democracy and brotherhood," Britain and France. At the outbreak of World War II, these two colonial powers governed the Middle East with an iron will. Arabs like the Grand Mufti who dared stand up to the Jews were classed among the anti-colonialist "troublemakers" and were forced by the brotherhood boys to seek refuge amid the White "racists" in Germany.

The Mufti and his key men were constant visitors in Berlin and had use of German radio facilities and millions of Reichsmarks to promote their ideas throughout the Middle East. During the war, the Third Reich actively recruited Arabs for a Moslem legion to help liberate the Arab lands. Photographs of the Axis armies include Arabs wearing special German uniforms which bore the crescent and featured the fea.

To recap: from 1920 until 1945, support for the Arab cause came solely from WHITE CHRISTIAN "RACISTS." These Whites led the fight to liberate the Arabs, both from their democratic, brotherly overlords and from the advance guard of world Jewry. All this time, both the brotherhood boys and the Communists were supporting the Jewish claim to Palestine.

AN EXODUS THAT WASN'T

Before 1948, Jewish propaganda had stressed that "the Jews of the world want their own country"—that, presumably, "all Jews want to return to the Holy Land."

But it didn't work out that way. After stealing Palestine from the Arabs, world Jewry sent only a token force to the Israeli state. The rest of the Jews opted to stay where they were raking in the shekels and draining the life blood out of the host nations. No dough, no go!

Take America as an example: despite tirades from David Ben-Gurion and Golda Meir, the vast majority of Jews in the U.S. decided only to contribute (tax-deductable bucks) to the Zionist coffers and only to vacation in the Israeli state; rather than moving there on a permanent basis. To aid this Jewish cop-out, the U.S. government even granted dual citizenship to Jews living in America, so they could maintain the fiction of residence in the Holy Land while lolling in Yankee comfort.

With their political stooges in the U.S. government assuring massive American military and economic aid, the Jews pursued their ruthless policy, uprooting the Arab residents of Palestine and plunging headlong into war after war. Their insatiable land grabbing became an embarrassment to the United States.

CHANGE IN LEADERSHIP

At the same time that America was replacing Britain and Russia as the Israelis' best friend, Arab leaders such as the Grand Mufti were being discredited and replaced by loud-mouthed, left-wing Arab agitators. Simultaneously, the Arab nations suffered a mass attack of amnesia: Arab leaders forgot who had supported their cause from 1920 to 1945 and who had continued to furnish support after World War II.

Having lost European financing and leadership due to the victory of the Jews in W.W. II, the Arabs began making eyes at the victors—notably, the U.S. and the U.S.S.R. The Arab "dowry" included both the enormous reserves of Middle Eastern petroleum and the promise that the new Arab states would ally with their benefactors in matters of foreign policy.

The powerful leftist-egalitarian gang won out in the courtship. And, for their part, the Arabs dutifully fell in line with their new partners in the U.N. Increasingly, the White states of Africa came under verbal attack from the Arabs. Two cases in point are the countries of Rhodesia and South Africa: recent Arab propaganda against these states has proved so vicious as to force them to seek other friends wherever in the world they can find them. (And, you guessed it, the Israelis now have made overtures to South Africa—after attacking it for 20 years in the U.N. With the United States, Britain, Russia and the Arabs supplying Black terrorists with funds and arms to attack Whites all over the Dark Continent, South Africans may well fall into the Jewish web.)

RACIAL TRAGEDY

Although a world-wide alliance between the right wing and the Israeli state is hardly likely, the Arabs will be making a serious mistake if they

Africa. But these elements were eventually swamped by an inundation of sub-Saharan Blacks and Asiatic nomads.

Dragged down by their lowest racial types, the Arabs—even with the recent economic boon of vast oil revenues—are having a rough time competing internationally with White nations. The result is resentment and a growing anti-White paranoia. But, just as the Arabs themselves are the cause of most of their own present social dilemmas, in the same sense they are the only ones who can solve those dilemmas...through racial reform.

The solution will involve, not paranoid attacks on White nations, but an end to Arab intermarriage with Blacks and a careful nurturing of their remaining White strains. For there are Whites among the Arabs—men like the Mufti, who share kinship with the other culture-bearing people of the Mediterranean. If the Arabs want to identify with White civilization, they must save their own White strains from inundation. But, if they choose to identify with Blacks, they can only expect to be treated accordingly.

The sad fact remains that the designation "Arab" today refers, not to a cohesive racial community, but to a sprawling and racially diverse group of North African and Levantine Moslems. Their only common feature seems to be ingratitude toward their long-term supporters on the Right.

PENNILESS RIGHT WING

Despite all the Jewish hubbub about "Arab oil millionaires financing right-wing groups," as far as we can determine, not one cent has come through from the Arab treasuries to help the cause. Certainly, a few impoverished Arab-Americans have helped as best they could. But more philosophy of race mix, our obligation to care for the colored masses of the world, etc. can be daily broadcast on the Jewish communications media (from government officials to a Billy Graham); but our traditional, sane philosophy of racial supremacy, nationalism, and Christianity finds no nationwide platform. In this whole matter Jews of course are supposed to be entirely above any criticism. Jews will invariably look shocked—and highly indignant if one takes them to account for bringing disruptive grief to our society. If they are seriously put on the defensive, though, Jews will resort to the infamous lie that "6 million Jews were murdered by hate mongers in the World War II period." This is calculated to put any of us on the defensive by "shaming" us out of "threatening" another "persecution" of Jewry!

To stress Jewry's gall, we would have to say again that not only do Jews expect us to adapt to their satanic mania for world control (at our ruin) but also they demand that we like it! The way Jews see it (and aggressively demand it) is: they may be the right way to do things, but more importantly, there is the Jewish way. If you question such gall, then be prepared to suffer smear, abuses, belittlement by even your devilishly-duped kindred, and possibly (in even more brutal years ahead) death. It has happened in other Jew-conquered lands: it can happen here. Jews are defenders of "freedom of thought and expression...THEIRS. But, white Christians are entitled to only one freedom: to agree with the Jews. Such gall!

Kosher Kissinger Stabs Servicemen and Prisoners

By Rev. Rick Norton

While the "great yiddish intellectual" Henry Kissinger is jetting around the world with his new wife, to visit his "buddies" in Red China, many good Christians are rotting in the prisons of that nation as well as the jails of S.E. Asia and the United States. Tricky Dicky Nixon even lied to a nationwide TV audience when he stated that "all" our POW's had come home to "peace with honor." POW wives exposed this brazen lie by driving their caravans around the White House with signs informing Nixon that "all" POW's did not come home, as they had a list of men who were known to have been alive; but had never come home.

Kissinger was largely responsible for this situation. He once had a meeting with POW wives where he was arrogant and un-co-operative. And prior to this meeting, it had been reliably reported that his office had been responsible for a security leak to the Reds in S.E. Asia which resulted in the failure of a rescue mission behind enemy lines. The Reds had been tipped off; so they moved POW's to a new location so they could not be freed.

But even worse than these matters, it was Kissinger who negotiated the "peace" which was little more than a surrender to the Reds. While we should never have gotten bogged down in an unconstitutional land war in Asia, once we were in the war, there was "no substitute for victory." And that victory should have swept all the kosher-communists in the world into the fiery furnace where Jesus stated they would ultimately end up. The debacle in Vietnam only means that Satan's descendants have just made their final doom more certain.

Everything that has been done to debase and degrade the White Christian military men of the U.S. will be doubled in spades when the hikes ultimately rot in hell. Already the cauldron is boiling. Perhaps you have read recently that the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff have had spies watching Kissinger. Do you suppose that it had anything to do with the fact that Kissinger personally had a U.S. Admiral kidnapped and put in a mental institution (much like Gen. Walker had been treated several years ago)? For full details, see articles by Gary Allen in back issues of American Opinion magazine.

In early 1974, the yiddish-controlled TV networks hit a new low when they showed a movie which depicted the wives of POW's as traitors, adulteresses, whores, etc. I almost vomited as I watched this "TV entertainment" - but I forced myself to see it all.

Kissinger and his anti-Christian allies have made things rough for even those servicemen who were lucky enough to return from Vietnam. Many are receiving such poor treatment in V.A. hospitals that the head of the V.A. was recently fired. Many vets are not receiving government checks to which they are much more entitled than the Watts rioters. And many, many vets are unemployed.

Here in the United States, the "Jew"-controlled courts and F.B.I. are keeping innocent men like Rev. Miles in jail for "conspiring" to blow up race-mix busses, even though someone else confessed to the act of blowing up the busses. Injustices such as these have gone on for years. "The best men rot in filthy jails, while those who cry 'Appease, Appear' are hanged" by those they try to please.

As I type this article, I am not doing it just for you, dear reader.

can finish it and say "How sad."

But I am doing it in the hope that maybe a few people who read this will exert a little more effort in order to free Rev. Miles and the POW's. When was the last time you bought extra copies of CHRISTIAN VANGUARD and put them on parked cars? Or when was the last time that you wrote, phoned or visited your Congressman to get him to act? Don't tell me it isn't worthwhile. Remember, only a few Senators stopped the so-called "Genocide Treaty."

WON'T YOU PLEASE DO SOMETHING TODAY TO FREE THE RIGHT PRISONERS AND BRING CREEPS LIKE KISSINGER TO JUSTICE?

One of the POW/MIA wives, Mrs. Patricia Hardy - and her children asked: "Where is my Daddy?" They are victims of Kosher Kissinger's "America Last" policy.

SHAW'S ADVICE

LONDON, May 24.—The first chapter of The Seven Pillars of Wisdom, which T. E. Lawrence ("of Arabia") omitted on Bernard Shaw's advice, for political reasons, is now being published by Lawrence's brother.

The book is entitled "Oriental Assembly."

This chapter powerfully sums up Lawrence's allegation that the British Government persuaded him to make promises to the Arabs, which the Government never intended to keep.

The chapter reveals that Lawrence did not accept a reward, surrendered the rank of Colonel and joined the ranks.

The chapter sets out: "The Cabinet raised the Arabs by definite promises of self-government. The Arabs believe in persons, not in institutions. They saw in me the British Government's free agent. So I had to join in the conspiracy. They performed some fine things, but while proud of what we did I was continually and bitterly ashamed.

"It was evident from the beginning that if we won the war the promises would be dead paper. Had I been an honest adviser I would have advised the Arabs not to risk their lives fighting for such stuff. But I saved myself in the hope of leading to the defeat, not only of the Turks, but of the British Government. In the council chamber I risked fraud, because I was convinced it was better for the allies to win the war, and to break their word, than to lose."

Bernard Shaw, interviewed, says he advised the omission of the chapter, because it was a bad opening for a book which already was too long.

Double Talk in Africa

Recently a coup of sorts was pulled in Uganda.

The black leader of Uganda, General Idi Amin, contracted to have a 90 minute propaganda movie made which would project a favorable image of him across the world.

A Swiss film maker was hired for the job and Amin got the "knife in the back."

It seems that Jews and liberals, that are always forcing integration on us and calling for "liberation" and "freedom" in Africa, have got their "fill" with Amin.

Amin, like most "liberated" African leaders, gets rid of his political enemies in a variety of ways. His Security Police find it amusing to crack the heads of their prisoners with sledge hammers. Cabinet members that oppose Amin are found dead a few days later.

But of course, liberals the world over have excused similar excesses by other black African leaders.

Regardless of atrocities committed against both Africans and Whites, White liberals and Jews have tended to overlook them and in fact excuse them.

Not so with Amin.

Why? Amin is anti-Jewish! Besides being a "loveable" bully, Amin is also anti-Israeli.

In the warped thinking of White liberals, it is all right to kill Africans and Whites but totally inexcusable to attack the Jews - even if it is only in writing.

Not long ago Amin sent a telegram to the United Nations stating that the Jews were illegally occupying Palestine and that Hitler was right in getting rid of the Jews.

He is now training his ragged army to help the Arabs invade the Golan Heights. He has kicked the Israeli's out of Uganda. He frequently quotes the Protocols to foreign journalists.

So the "free" press decided to make an example of Amin. In this new movie Amin is made out to be a fool (and at his own expense). The film editors show Amin with the Protocols and then comment "these are forgeries."

However, Amin does make a few good points concerning the Jews in his movie, "General Idi Amin," in spite of the efforts made to completely discredit any African that would "dare" challenge the Jews.

Who Is Yahweh?

The name of Yahweh has been replaced with the substitute title of LORD over 7,000 times in King James Bible. Many prominent scholars agree that the most accurate rendering of the tetragrammaton is Y.H.W.H., which is pronounced Yahweh!

"Extol Him that rides upon the heavens by His name YAH, and rejoice before Him." (Psalms 68:4)

typical is the case of the White "racist" who published a million booklets for one Arab group a few years ago entirely out of his own pocket.

The growing consensus among embattled right-wingers is that it's high time the newly rich Arab states put up or shut up. If they don't, then we patriots should reconsider our whole pro-Arab stand.

Question: in the long run, has this stand served the best interests of Christianity and the White race? What do we care who controls the wastelands of Palestine at a time when we face the total extinction of our own race and way of life?

In the main, right-wingers have supported the Arabs because we were supposedly fighting a common enemy, the Jew, in all his guises. But now the Arab propagandists are claiming that only the "Zionists" are the bad guys. Given such an outlook, even if the Arabs were to retake Palestine from the Jews, how would that benefit us? In our climes, the Jews would still sit gloating atop our prostrate nations, as strong and arrogant as ever. In fact, if the Palestinians did succeed in displacing some Israelis, where would the displaced Jews go? Right! To the affluent White countries, beginning with the United States. Do we want a few million more Jews in America?

A FORCED EXODUS?

We must consider the possibility that White civilization might benefit if ALL Jews were to move to Palestine. Since the Arabs now claim to love the non-Zionist Jew, we might consider sending them every non-Zionist Jew

News Notes

"ANTI-SOVIET" SMOKE-SCREEN--Since Nixon's return from the U.S.S.R. the Liberal news media are making much of the public posturing of Jewish mouthpieces attacking the "Chevrolet Summit." The gripe is that Nixon "failed to take steps against Soviet 'mistreatment' of Russian Jews." A few years ago the obviously close ties between the Jews and worldwide Communism led wags to suggest that the United Jewish Appeal and the C.P.U.S.A. save money by combining their mailing lists. Yet now we hear much criticism of the Soviets from Jews. The truth, of course, is that the Jews are the only group in Russia ever allowed to emigrate and the only group allowed to maintain a religious identity. So don't be misled by all the news-media flim-flam.

JEWESS BOUNDS IMMIGRANTS--Incredibly, with the nation heading into the worst political and economic mess of its recent history, Rep. Elizabeth Holtzman (D-NY) is devoting her time to hounding the U.S. Immigration Service for allowing the U.S. to "harbor" 70 accused "Nazi war criminals." Coming mostly from the former Axis states of Romania, Croatia, Estonia, Latvia, Lithuania, and the Ukraine, the 70 now have an average age of 65. If Jewess Holtzman has her way, they will all soon be given over to the tender mercies of Iron Curtain "justice."

ANOTHER VICTIM OF "CONSPIRACY"--The hazy charge of "conspiracy" has been used increasingly against leading figures in the fight for a Christian America. (Curiously, not a single leftist--Ellsberg, Angela Davis, the Bergmans or the Chicago Seven--has been convicted for conspiracy.) Latest outrage in the one-sided assault on the Right involves the deathbed confession of one Elmer Tackett, who admitted to the FBI that he alone had dynamited those school buses in Pontiac, Michigan, at the height of the bussing controversy. Even so, the FBI refuses to act on the confession, despite the fact that Rev. Robert Miles still languishes in prison because of Tackett's deed. Why no action? Miles is the former head of the Michigan KKK, so the FBI maintains he was convicted, not of blowing up the busses, but of conspiring to do so.

A MEERE 66 MILLION--The Left is squirming with discomfort over Walter Cronkite's recent televised interview with exiled Russian author Alexander Solzhenitsyn during which the novelist charged that the "squalid Communist system" had murdered more than 66 million people since its founding. This is virtually the only instance of America's Jew-controlled news media allowing mention of such Soviet atrocities, even though the statistics have been available for years. The fact that virtually all of Communism's victims have been Gentile just might explain previous Liberal silence on the matter.

Philharmonic. For the third year in a row he has failed. In a counter-move, some of Wagner's U.S. fans are urging that there be an "embargo on Wagner's music to any country where the Jews have a stranglehold on the local cultural life."

"CHRISTIAN" BLOOD MONEY--Since 1969, to combat "White racism," the World Council of Churches has donated a total of $1,050,000 of lay members' dues to Black African groups practicing terrorism and guerilla war in the name of "revolutionary liberation." The W.C.C. has never required an accounting of how the money was spent, choosing to ignore charges that it has helped finance the slaughter of White farmers and their families. Recently the W.C.C.'s secretary was asked to cite evidence proving that the money has gone for nonviolent purposes. He could list only two items: the expansion of a secondary school in Mozambique and supplies for an adult sewing center in Angola. Incredibly, not one member church of the 264 Protestant and Eastern Orthodox congregations in the W.C.C. has pulled out in protest. Cynics observe that, if the world's Protestants allow themselves to be robbed and betrayed in the name of Christianity, can the Catholics be far behind?

TERMITES IN THE VATICAN?--Pope Paul VI recently called for an end to "worldwide racial discrimination," during a meeting at the Vatican with members of the U.N. Committee on Apartheid. Lest the visitors doubt the depth of his commitment, the Pontiff assured them he would be setting up "a precise plan with a definite timetable" to combat not only "racism" within areas of Catholic influence, but also "the denial of equal dignity" to women and migrant workers. (Noted in the SPRINGFIELD UNION, May 23, '74.)

Other evidences of strange goings-on are the new "pop Masses" incorporating Yiddish folk tunes and the new translations of the liturgy, parts of which seek to reduce Christ to the status accorded him by the Jews: as one of the prophets, but not the Messiah. (Noted in VERITAS SHILLELAGH, June 27, 1974.)

POPE KNIGHTS JEW--There seems a scarcity of White Christians deserving Papal honors these days. Why else would Pope Paul have had to turn to a Jew, Irving Salomon, to find an acceptable candidate for the knightly Order of St. Gregory? Salomon is the first known Jew to receive this honor. When Jews get into positions of power they make sure their racial brethren are given whatever honors are available. The Salomon case therefore seems to lend credence to the charge from some Catholics that Paul himself is a crypto-Jew.

LUTHERANS AGAINST LUTHER--American Lutherans are being asked to disavow the writings of Martin Luther...and it looks as if the French Revolution and Schubert died penniless of malnutrition.) To compound its collectivist idiocy, Peking has assured its people that, "far superior" to anything by Mozart, Beethoven, or Schubert, is the Yellow River Concerto by "the Central Philharmonic Society of the People's Republic of China." A tepid piece of imitation movie music, the concerto is actually by one Hsien Hsing-hai, a non-Communist killed during World War II. But, even so, poor Hsien apparently is the best the Reds have to offer. (STERO REVIEW, July '74.)

WHY PATTON WAS FIRED--A forgotten fact of history has come to light again, helping to explain why Gen. George S. Patton, America's most brilliant and effective commander in World War II, was fired from his post as head of U.S. Third Army forces in occupied Bavaria so soon after his greatest triumphs in the field. Unreported at the time--but well known to Roosevelt's Jewish cronies such as Henry Morgenthau and Felix Frankfurter--was the fact that, in that famous slapping incident, Patton had called the malingering soldier a "yellow-bellied Jew." Roosevelt and company let the general stay on for a while (after a reprimand and his public apology), but only until the end of the fighting in Europe. Official excuse for the firing was that he had "used former Nazis in administering towns under his command." In reply, Patton pointed out that the desperate winter conditions called for men with local administrative experience, so "Who else was there?"

A NEW CHURCHILL?--Elizabeth Sandys, wife of Winston Churchill's grandson, Jilian Sandys, has made headlines in London by her open support of Enoch Powell as "the only man with the honesty and courage to lead Britain--the only man with the ability to see what has to be done and to inspire us all to do it." Ever since Powell denounced Britain's policy of unlimited immigration (which has flooded London with coloreds and created massive problems of crime and welfare), the outspoken member of parliament has been ostracized by the leaders of his own party.

DISTORTION VERBOTEN--Playwright Tennessee Williams recently asked a German court to halt a local Jewish director's production of his modern classic, Streetcar Named Desire. It seems the director had cast a Black in the lead and had changed the interpretation of the role from that of a rapist and foe of civilization to that of "a democratizing love-god." To quote the director, according to author Williams, the proposed casting and changes made nonsense of the play's meaning. The three-judge panel decided to restore the playwright's original wording and to require the actor to don a Caucasian wig and light make-up.

INTEGRATION ON THE REDNE--A few Germans are finally voicing

Germans wonder why the U.S. continues to blacken its image here. The whole mess should remind us of the post-war occupation strategy of Roosevelt's favorite Jew, Henry Morgenthau. "FASCISTS" OR OPPORTUNISTS?--Recent developments in Portugal and a recent poll in Spain have shown the danger of underestimating the all-pervasiveness of anti-Christian forces everywhere in the world. The swift reappearance in Portugal of a powerful left wing following the recent coup shocked many on the Right who, ironically, had believed the Communist propaganda about the extent of "Fascist control" in the Iberian Peninsula. Spanish patriots fear that, in Franco's wake, the same leftist resurgence will break out there. They note a recent survey conducted by the Lee Burnett polling service. The results show that "conservatism's" supposedly staunchest supporters in Spain aren't so staunch after all: a majority of persons under 40 who responded said they support left-wing ideologies.

Those Americans whose ideas of Spain come from the Liberal news media tend to overlook Franco's life-long opportunism and his refusal to make an unequivocal commitment to any thoroughgoing philosophy. Franco's official successor, Prince Juan Carlos, is viewed with apprehension by those on the Right who know that his exiled father has long flirted with the Left in hopes that he himself will someday occupy Spain's vacant throne.

SHUT UP, PROFESSOR!--British student radicals have joined their American counterparts in denying free speech and academic freedom to any on whom they can pin the "racist" label. Latest victim of the ban is Enoch Powell, the eloquent ex-professor whose campus appearances nowadays provoke such disruption by party-lining yahoos that all invitations for Powell to speak at English colleges have been withdrawn. In America, the same treatment has been accorded not only to Nobel-Prize winning physicist William Shockley, but to any speaker on the subject of the population explosion--a subject that Black radicals have also dubbed "racist."

THE SHAH SPEAKS OUT--In a recent interview, the Shah of Iran commented on the rise in oil prices to America. He said that the U.S. government takes in several times as much in gas taxes each year as Iran makes from the initial sale of the gasoline itself. He commented that, as a solution to high gas prices, the U.S. should abolish the gas tax and instead place a higher tax on cigarettes and alcoholic beverages to take its place.

ENGLAND TOES THE PARTY LINE--British Prime Minister Harold Wilson, responding to the Labor Party's Communists, has now revoked all arms deals with "Fascist" states. The Labor Party ordered Rolls-Royce to stop serving the planes because it sold anti-Jewish literature. Jews all over the world went into fits about the display and are now trying to get the U.N. to ban such exhibitions in future. Most of the books on display were printed in Mexico City--at present, the largest anti-Jewish publishing center in Latin America.

"RELIGION" IN A STRANGE GUSE--The schools in Birmingham, England, are now including the study of Communism in their "religious instruction" course. The red-tainted texts even include the addresses where students can obtain further sympathetic information on Communism from some 150 sources.

ANOTHER PHONY "ANTI-COMMUNIST"--So-called "anti-communist," Senator Henry "Scoop" Jackson (D-Wash.), was quoted in the CHICAGO TRIBUNE July 2 as saying, "we must move toward an early recognition of the People's Republic of China." For years Jackson has posed as the Senate's leading red-baiter. His excuse for toadying to the Israeli lobby has been that the Jewish state "stands as a bulwark against Communist aggression in the Middle East." Recently, Jackson's version of anti-Communism has fixated on Russian "mistreatment of the Jews" and on the need to pour more money and arms into the coffers of the Jewish masters.

ANTI-WHITE T.V. SPOTS--The Department of Health, Education and Welfare recently spent the sum of $811,000 through TV channel WTTW (Chicago) to produce 30 one minute ads designed to "eliminate or prevent minority group isolation." What this really means is that the ads will be used to destroy all White pride in the name of promoting minority groups. WTTW will also distribute these hate spots to over 500 TV stations across America. The ads are directed at children from 8 to 12 and from 13 to 17. It seems the government wants to start brainwashing White youth at early ages so they'll fit in with their one-race, one-world ideas. To make sure that the ads do their brainwashing job, the government hired a team of psychologists from the University of Chicago to take charge.

"PRESS FREEDOM" IN PERU--The left wing dictatorship of Gen. Juan Velasco recently seized control of the country's eight major newspapers and turned them over to Communist-dominated labor unions. Six of the papers had commented that the government was coming under more and more control of Marxist groups.

JEWES AND HAITIANS--The anti-White paranoia of the Jews never ends. The SAN DIEGO UNION (7/20/74) reported that the American (?) Jewish Committee has officially urged the State Department to allow 800 Haitian political refugees "political asylum" in the U.S. To try to get the Blacks into the U.S. on a permanent basis, the Jews again raised the race issue. The Jews are once again brain-

Israel in the New Testament

By Rev. Bertrand L. Compere

It is impossible to truly understand the Bible—or any part of it—without understanding that the Anglo-Saxon-Germanic and Scandinavian peoples of today are the ISRAEL of the Bible. The Bible speaks always and only to ISRAEL; and to claim its benefits for yourself, you must start by putting yourself in the ranks of Israel. Even the major churches show some dim awareness of this fact, although they won't admit it. For example, the Episcopal Church won't admit that we are Israel—but read their Book of Common Prayer: throughout, it speaks always from the standpoint of Israel. To get out of the embarrassment of this inconsistency, most churches teach substantially this: "Although God's promises to Israel were absolute and unconditional, God willed on those promises, and has given them to the church."

BERTRAND L. COMPARET

instead—although they don't express this quite so frankly. If their doctrine were true, they wouldn't have much of a religion: if Israel couldn't trust God's word, who else could? But it is NOT true: God never willed on a promise; every promise He ever made to Israel. He has fulfilled and is today fulfilling, to Israel and to no one else.

Then the churches say, "Well, we are only Gentiles; but we have become spiritual Israel." Now that is a most remarkable statement. The people of Israel were never, at any time, a group of people who all held the same religious belief: at the best, there were always many apostates and idolaters among them; and during much of their history, nearly the entire nation became apostates. The great prophet Elijah found that in the whole nation of Israel there remained only 7,000 men still loyal to God. But the Bible never says that they ceased to be Israel, when it is denouncing them for their apostasy. Israel always was purely a racial group, all of the same race, despite the apostasy of some of them from the true religion. Therefore, the only way anyone could become a "spiritual Israelite" would have to be the same process by which he could become a "spiritual negro" or a "spiritual mongolian"—something no one could ever do. You can be an Israelite only by birth, by inheritance.

In many previous broadcasts, I have presented the evidence that the Israelites exist today under the name of the Anglo-Saxon, Scandinavian and Germanic peoples, and that God's promises to Israel have been actually fulfilled to them. But many churches teach that the New Testament has done away with all of this, that it threw all of God's promises and prophecies about Israel into the rubbish-can, and started a new religion with Israel left out of it. This is positively not true: the whole Bible is consistent from beginning to end. I have often told you that there is as much Christianity in the Old Testament as in the New—though it is harder to understand, because it is presented in the forms of prophecy, ISRAEL." Again, when Jesus sent out His 12 disciples to teach the people, we read in Matthew 10:5-6, "These 12 Jesus sent forth, and commanded them, saying, 'Go not into the way of the Gentiles, and into any city of the Samaritans enter ye not: but go rather to the lost sheep of the House of ISRAEL.'" Again, in Matthew 19:27-28, Peter asked Jesus what reward would be given to those who had given up all to follow Him; and Jesus replied to Peter, "Verily I say unto you, That ye which have followed Me, in the regeneration when the Son of man shall sit on the throne of His glory, ye also shall sit upon 12 thrones judging the 12 Tribes of Israel." Note that carefully: He didn't say that they would become heads of the Methodist, Episcopal and Baptist Churches, but that they would become rulers and judges over the 12 Tribes of Israel. This is not something of the past, which God had to discard as a failure: this is Jesus Christ's prophecy of what was so eternally true that it would still be in effect in the Millennium when He comes back to rule the earth in person. Also, many of the parables used by Jesus Christ concerned Israel. So Jesus Christ testified, in the Gospels, that God has not changed His mind concerning His people, Israel.

Surely, no other authority as great as that of Jesus Christ can be found, to testify what is truly Christian. Yet there are still many people who mistakenly believe that the Apostle Paul changed all this, threw out not only all of the Old Testament but also the teachings of Jesus Christ, and set up a new religion. Paul would be the last person in all the world to try such a thing! Paul makes it clear, in nearly every Epistle he wrote, that he is writing TO and writing ABOUT Israel—although some of this has been hidden by mis-translation in the King James Version of the Bible. Let's review some of them.

First, let's take the Epistle to the Romans—so-called. To whom does Paul address it? Chapter 1, v. 7 shows that it is addressed to those persons in Rome who are "called saints." Yes, I know that your King James Version says "called TO BE saints"; but you will notice that the words "to be" are in italic type, which shows that these two words were not in the original writing, but that the translators added them, in order to make it correspond with what the translators thought Paul should have said. But let's take Paul at his own word, what he actually did write, instead of what somebody else substituted for it. Remember that Paul was a very well educated man, who knew the Scriptures well. Paul knew that a "saint" was not somebody who would be named as such by the church in the dark ages, several centuries after Paul wrote, because the so-called "saint" had done some deed of piety. Do you know who ALL of the saints are? Paul knew—for he knew the Psalms. In the first place, what does "saint" mean? It means "set apart or

Statesman of Personal Force, Skill

HITLER, by Joachim Fest, Harcourt Brace Jovanovich, 764 pages, $15.00.

Question: what was Hitler's real name?

If you answered Schicklgruber, you're wrong, in spite of all those 1940's movies in which he was alluded to contemptuously by his grandfather's name.

Question: what was Hitler's trade when he lived in Vienna?

If you said he was a house-painter, you're wrong again. Actually, Hitler was an artist and even made his living selling paintings, with the aid of another young man who acted as his agent. The fact is, just as the Germans built up Hitler into a kind of demi-god, so did the Allies create a Hitler that never existed, a kind of automaton elevated somehow into a position of authority, without talent, without qualities. Such a view of Hitler naturally fails to explain how the man could have led his country with such startling command, but the anti-mythology had its answer to that question as well. Hitler, it was held, was merely a pawn of another force entirely, usually identified as what we now call the military-industrial complex.

Joachim Fest, in his superb biography of Hitler, demonstrates as it is wrongly named in your Bible (for Paul didn't call it that, but the translators did), in this book Paul says he is writing "To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called saints." Since ALL of the saints are Israelites according to the Bible, which Paul knew very well, we know that he was not writing to just Romans in general. Nero, for example, was a Roman—in fact, Nero was emperor at the time Paul wrote this epistle—and we may be sure that Paul never considered Nero a saint. And these saints are also identified as "called." Paul knew whom God had called: Israel 41:8-9 told it: "But thou, ISRAEL, art my servant; Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham My friend. Thou whom I have taken from the ends of the earth, and CALLED THEE from the chief men thereof, and said unto thee, 'Thou art my servant; I have chosen thee, and not cast thee away.'" And Isaiah 51:2, "Look unto Abraham your father, and unto Sarah that bore you; for I CALLED HER ALONE, and blessed him, and increased him." Paul well knew that God had called and predestined His people Israel to be the people who are consecrated to His service—which is just what the word "saint" means. Therefore, in Romans 8:30, Paul says, "Moreover, whom He did predestinate them He also called; and whom He called, He also justified; and whom He justified, them He also glorified."

well enough that, however much we may dislike the idea that evil and genius can coexist, the fact is that Hitler was a kind of genius of politics, with an uncanny ability to work his opponents off against each other and thus get an advantage over them. "His insight into the true nature of situations, his knack for penetrating the various strata of interests, for spotting weaknesses and setting up temporary coalitions, in short, his tactical instinct, certainly contributed as much to his rise as his oratorical powers, the backing of the army, industry, and the judiciary and the terrorism of his brown shirts. To insist on the magical, the conspiratorial or the brutal elements in Hitler's rise to power certainly betrays an inadequate understanding of the course of events. All the facts belie that picture. Hitler was consummately skillful in the field of politics."

Why, then, is he not regarded as a Great Man? Much of the reason, obviously, has to do with the fact that (1) he was our enemy and (2) he lost. But Napoleon and Robert E. Lee lost too, without losing their claim to greatness. Nor is it sufficient to point to Hitler's undeniable viciousness as a suitable reason for his low status. Even if you are uncomfortable with Lord Acton's dictum that "all great men are bad men," you have to recognize that viciousness is not a quality that is absent in great men. Certainly not in Churchill, of whom his closest friend, Lord Beaverbrook, wrote that "Churchill on top of the wave had in him the stuff of which tyrants are made," and who was distrusted for many years after he ordered troops to shoot down striking miners and dock workers.

But Churchill did have some idea of how a great man conducts himself, a kind of dignity that offsets his petulance and ill-temper, whereas Hitler carried his pettiboisness style into government. As Fest expresses it, "He was still (after the abortive Putsch in 1923) having his old trouble arriving at a consistent style, for he combined his air of a Caesar with Lederbosen, a Bavarian peasant jacket, and often a hat."

Hitler's personal force was simply awesome, by all accounts. As Fest remarks, "Sometimes it seems as if he had the faculty for shattering, in ways hard to understand, the relationship to reality of all those who entered his presence."

And although in retrospect we may wonder how the western nations failed to recognize in Hitler a serious threat to world peace, contemporary accounts—even by some exceptionally perceptive observers—show Hitler as a highly intelligent, persuasive, and seemingly reasonable politician.

ARAB-MADE ARMS—On May 20th Arab foreign and defense ministers met in Cairo, Egypt, and agreed to form an Arab armament industry. According to the agreement, each Arab state will contribute two percent of its gross national product to build this arms industry. The industry will be located in Egypt. Missing from the meeting were Syria, Iraq and Libya.

JEWIS ILLEGALLY IN ENGLAND—No session of the English Parliament has ever repealed the 1290 edict expelling the Jews from England. Jew-lover Oliver Cromwell tried to get Parliament to repeal the edict, but Parliament refused. Under Cromwell the Jews began their clandestine return to England, and no Government since has had the moral courage to kick them out again.

JEWISH VERSION OF COMPUTER DATING—THE SANTA ANA REGISTER (July 19, 1974) carries a story about a Rabbi Mayer Abramowitz, head of the Rabbinical Assembly of America. Abramowitz says, "There's an erosion of Jewish families because of intermarriage with other faiths... This tide should be stemmed." Because of this "erosion" the Jews have set up a computerized dating service, for Jews only, called Jewish Compu-Date. Another case of the Jewish double standard: while doing all in their power to promote race mixing for Whites, the Jews are now setting up their own computer-matching service to make sure their children marry within their own race!

NO EASTER FOR MIAMI—Jewish high school teacher Leonard Speisler was upset because Christians had Good Friday off from school but the Jews had to take "sick leave" to observe their satanic

ON JUNE 15 between one and two thousand members and supporters of the National Front took part in a perfectly lawful and peaceful parade through London to protest against the Labour Government's amnesty for illegal immigrants. The activity was opposed by an armed rabble of Communist students who started two serious riots with the police in attempts, first to attack the hall where the National Front were to hold a meeting, and, secondly, to attack the approaching National Front column itself. Thirty-nine police officers were injured and over fifty Communists arrested. The National Front was not involved.

The National Front march and meeting in Conway Hall, Red Lion Square, had been planned several weeks before. Coming after the National Front's recent electoral success and growing penetration into schools and colleges, Britain's Communist organizations planned a 'counter-demonstration' on the same day and in the same place under the banner of a front body - Liberation.

The events of the 15th. were preceded by a week of mounting hysteria in Communist newspapers such as Morning Star, Red Weekly and Socialist Worker.

1 The Red counter march begins on the Thames Embankment and proceeds to Red Lion Square. The demonstrators are carrying placards and flags mounted on heavy metal and wooden poles, many of which have been sharpened to a point.

Some commentators were later to suggest that it was National Front members who carried swastikas. In fact it was the Reds who were falsely attempting to stigmatize the Front as a Nazi organization.

2 As the Communists enter Red Lion Square they are supposed to turn right for an open air meeting. On a prearranged signal, however, one group turns left and charges the police cordon guarding Conway Hall. A student is injured in the fracas and is later to die. His name is Kevin Gately and he comes from an Irish Republican background.

3 An injured policeman is carried from the scene by his colleagues.

4 National Front members on the march. These are the people the Communists want to "smash". Various newspapers and M.P.s were to refer to "black shirts". Blackshirts were, in fact, very much less numerous than shirts of any other colour. It might just as well have been pointed out that most of the men in the National Front column were wearing socks, which is more than could be said for the opposition.

5 The National Front drum corps.

6 The Communists advance towards the approaching National Front column, but halt as the National Front members spread out across the road to confront them with flags waving and drums beating. Some smoke bombs are thrown by the Reds, but fall short.

7 A police cordon gradually forms between the two sides. The National Front members stand peacefully during the confrontation. The policemen directly in front of the NF are relaxed, folding their arms, not linking them, and are facing across the road towards the Communists.

8 Police push back the Reds in order to keep them well clear of the National Front's path. One elderly NF member is hit on the head by a rock thrown by a Communist. This is the nearest the National Front ever comes to being "involved" in the clashes.

The National Front members proceed to Conway Hall for a highly successful meeting. The Left has failed in its attempt to stop the NF.

In the basement level forecourt of some nearby premises police uncover a Communist arsenal of sharpened bamboo stakes, metal bars and wooden clubs with nails sticking out of them.

SOUTH AFRICA, ISRAEL AND THE B'NAI B'RITH

by S.E.D. Brown from South Africa

FROM THE BIRTH of Israel up to the present, a blind, unquestioning pro-Zionist ideology has so permeated and dominated Western thinking that whenever discussions have turned to that country and the Middle East, leaders in every walk of public life abandon all reason, judgment and moral courage — not to mention their intellectual integrity.

So perfected have the propaganda techniques of International Finance and World Zionism become in fact that it is very difficult for Israel to be adjudged guilty of any offence in regard to the Arab-Israeli dispute — and Israel herself has come to expect the automatic support of the Governments of the West in most matters.

The same blind and unquestioning support for Israel, on the part of the South African Government — at a time when sanity and commonsense dictated strict neutrality, if not condemnation of Israel — first became evident after the Arab-Israeli war in 1967, when the Minister of Transport, Mr. B.J. Schoeman, was pleased to tell the South African Jewish Guild that "although Israel had in past years sided with the enemies of South Africa at international conferences and had voted at the U.N. for mandatory sanctions against South Africa, no retaliatory action had been taken by South Africa."

'HUMANITARIAN PURPOSES'

Noting that the South African Government had been officially neutral during this Arab-Israeli war, Mr. Schoeman continued: "That did not mean that we did not sympathise with Israel. Because of that sympathy we agreed that funds for humanitarian purposes could be sent from South Africa to Israel."

This automatic support for Israel, it must be emphasised, was given notwithstanding the fact that Israel had for 20 years, together with Russia, voted against South Africa in every U.N. motion against her; in spite of Israel voting against South Africa at every international organisation, including the International Olympics Committee; in spite of Israel siding consistently with Black Africa and the O.A.U. against the Whites in Southern Africa, and helping to train Black military, airforce and terrorist personnel in Africa who would be used against the White South — and in spite of the fact, too, that Jews in South Africa itself had long been playing a leading role in communist, socialist, progressive, "black power" and other left-wing politics, all designed to break down the racial and national integrity of the White man in South Africa.

In sharp contrast with this new official attitude was that of Dr. Verwoerd who in his day had told Israel that she had chosen to attack South Africa in the hope that she would win the favours of the non-White states, and warned her that if one day she found herself in trouble because she had chosen her friends and enemies wrongly, South Africa would not readily give her aid.

SAME AFTER YOM KIPPUR WAR

The same blind and automatic support for Israel on the part of the Vorster Government after the 1967 war was again apparent on the outbreak of the Yom Kippur war last year when the Minister of Defence, Mr. P.W. Botha, immediately said there existed a deep feeling of sympathy in South Africa with Israel in its "life-and-death" struggle against forces supported by communist militarism, and that the South African Government would certainly give her moral support, and find ways and means of showing her sympathy in every practical way within her means.

The Prime Minister, Mr. Vorster, also jumped into the act by saying that the war was being waged against Israel "not by Syria and Egypt, but by Russia."

Mr. Vorster's chief security adviser, Gen. H.J. van den Bergh, had shortly before that told a newspaper in Tel Aviv that Israel was a "bulwark against —"

But how Israel can be regarded as a bulwark against Communism when all the evidence, the real evidence, proves the contrary, is something that Mr. Vorster, Mr. P.W. Botha and General Van den Bergh have yet to explain to the South African people.

BECOMES STAUNCH NEW FRIEND

But it was the Yom Kippur War last year which was to cement the growing friendship between the Vorster Government and Israel.

For 25 years, during which Israel, Black Africa and the O.A.U. had worked closely together, South Africa was their inveterate enemy. Then with the new war everything changed dramatically, and Mr. Vorster found himself with a staunch new "friend" on the international scene.

And the secret of his ability to win friends and influence people? The Black states had all decided to desert their former friend and take the side of the Arabs — and Israel in her hour of need most conveniently found for herself yet another accommodating new friend in Mr. Vorster, who, like most other Western leaders in the world today, was prepared to put the interests of another country before their own.

And since that time, trade between the two countries has gone ahead by leaps and bounds; and the bonds of friendship steadily forged to such an extent that one of Zionism's most powerful world-wide organisations, the B'nai B'rith, a Masonic organisation, decided to show its appreciation by mounting a big campaign to collect funds jointly for the South African Defence Force, the South African Police and Israel's armed forces.

This is done in the name of "fighting for Western civilisation", and jointly using the flags of both countries for the purpose.

'TWO AGAINST THE RED TIDE'

Its pamphlet, photographically reproduced and prominently displayed on the main news page of "Die Burger" of May 4, was headed: Two Defence Forces Stand Against the Red Tide; and it read as follows (translated from the Afrikaans):

Two countries are determined to maintain Western civilisation — South Africa and Israel. B'nai B'rith's Massada Organisation, a member of a world-wide service organisation, is collecting funds and will hold a first showing of a film. A third of the proceeds will be presented to the Brandwag Fund of the South African Army. The balance will be divided between the Comforts Fund of the South African Police and the Israeli Armed Forces.

Enthusiastic comment at the bottom of the pamphlet, by the editor of Die Burger, Mr. Piet Cillie, himself long a defender of Freemasonry, read as follows:

A Jewish service organisation has had the bright idea of combining South Africa and Israel in a big drive for funds for comforts for soldiers and police on the borders. The Massada Organisation of the B'nai B'rith is distributing pamphlets such as the above on a very wide scale to collect funds. The right-hand side of the pamphlet is printed in a challenging red.

But how the B'nai B'rith and Israel are fighting for Western civilisation against the Red tide is something that the B'nai B'rith, Israel and "Die Burger" have yet to explain.

ZIONIST ONE-WORLD AIMS

The rise of Zion has gone hand in hand with the decline of the West; and Zion's one-world aims, her Pax Judaica, can only finally be set up on the ruins of Western Christian civilisation.

he had been described as being. Hitler knew what he was talking about, Eden commented in retrospect, and respect still rings in his remark that the German chancellor had had complete command of the subject under discussion and had not once found it necessary to consult his experts even on questions of detail. Sir John Simon remarked to von Neurath on a later occasion that Hitler was 'excellent and very convincing' in conversation, and that before meeting him he had had a completely false picture of him.

"Hitler also surprised his interlocutors by his quickwittedness. When the British Foreign Minister hinted that the English liked people to abide by treaties, Hitler showed ironic surprise and replied: 'That was not always the case. In 1813 the German Army was prohibited by treaty. Yet I do not recollect that at Waterloo Wellington said to Blucher: Your Army is illegal. Kindly leave the field.'"

Nonetheless, that attitude of reasonableness was a sometime thing with Hitler. There was a quality of fanaticism about him, a tendency to conceive of his destiny in tragic terms. Nothing was more typical of him than his devotion to Wagner; nothing more appropriate than his choice of suicide over capitulation. And ironically, the man who once announced that he would be remembered as "the greatest German of all time," the founder of the thousand-year Reich, is remembered only as a villain. Scarcely anything of him has remained. "All his personal traits still did not add up to a real person," writes Fest. "The reports and recollections we have from members of his entourage do not make him tangibly vivid as a man; he moves with masklike impersonality through a setting which he nevertheless dominated with uncontested sovereignty. Though one of the greatest orators of history, he coined not a single memorable phrase."

Mediterranean, and is steadily penetrating the Red Sea and the Indian Ocean.

Someone, somewhere, is now obviously being hoodwinked by the B'nai B'rith. Could it be Mr. Vorster and his Defence Minister and his Chief Security Adviser?

BLUNT TRUTH TO BE FACED

Zionist spokesmen and propagandists always point to the Soviet Union's supply of arms to Egypt and the Arab states as evidence of communist conspiracy. But here again we have paradox because world Jewry and Israel are themselves certainly not strangers to Soviet Russia and Communism.

The pattern of life in Israel is communist. Israel's presidents, prime ministers, her ruling factions and the huge majority of her population come from the Soviet Union and the satellite countries. The Jewish army that took over Palestine in the first place consisted mainly of persons from Russia and the satellite countries. In official Zionist literature we read of Russia being "The saviour of world Jewry", Czechoslovakia being "The armourer of Israel". Israel votes consistently with the Soviet Union at the U.N. — and nowhere in Zionist literature do we find any criticism or any attacks on Communism.

And, today, Jews in their tens of thousands are being allowed to leave the Soviet Union to emigrate freely to Israel to supply her with scientists and with manpower for her armed forces — while the satellite countries are being supplied by Israel with oil from Egyptian territory seized by the Israelis. Christians, on the other hands, have to crawl under barbed wire to get out of the country, and get shot in the process.

The blunt truth to be faced about Israel is that it is a bulwark against Communism, as the B'nai B'rith would also now have us believe.

Israel is a main nerve centre of both world Zionism and world Communism which, with International Finance, are only as different as the main branches of one tree — and all working hand-in-glove to further Zionist objectives in the Middle East.

These forces are only pretending to work against each other in the Middle East — all the while deceiving the Western world into believing that the Zionists are on their side, while the Communists on the other hand are cheating the Arabs into believing that they are on their side.

B'NAI B'RITH IN PERSPECTIVE

As for the B'nai B'rith itself, which was founded in 1843 and headed by a Grand Saar, it is America's largest and oldest Jewish service organisation.

B'nai B'rith means the "Sons of the Covenant". It is an exclusively Jewish organisation. None but Jewish Freemasons are admitted to B'nai B'rith. It is an important and pivotal instrument of political Zionism. It furnishes all the outlets for political Zionism throughout the world.

It has 205 000 male members in 1 350 lodges in forty-three countries and 130 000 female members in 600 chapters. (Edward Grusd, "B'nai B'rith", Appleton-Century, New York, 1964.) It is the only private agency to have been given official "consultation status" by the United Nations, where it acts as a strong lobby for Israel and all other Jewish interests. ("New York Times", May 28, 1970.)

B'nai B'rith, according to Saul Jofes, former secretary general of the B'nai B'rith International Council, is also an "arm" or subsidiary of another organisation — the World Zionist Organisation, which, in turn, is an "arm" of the government of Israel.

ANTI-DEFAMATION LEAGUE

pro-fascist, pro-nazi, or promoters of hate. No true anti-communist has ever escaped attacks by the A.D.L. There are no known instances of the A.D.L. defaming or trying to suppress any Communist!

Their network of officers and agents in the U.S. covers the entire country, and their influence in the communications media there and throughout the world — in radio, television, magazines, newspapers and in motion pictures — is stupendous.

They are able in the U.S. and in most countries to bring pressure on advertisers to discontinue the services of publications which maintain an anti-communist policy. They are able to obtain support for candidates for public office whom they favour, and they are able to cause news blackouts or outright attacks on candidates they oppose.

COINCIDE WITH COMMUNISM

The principal themes of most of the A.D.L.'s propaganda coincide with the principal themes of Communism. Its programme in political effect is subtle but a continuous and effective undermining of Gentile unity and traditions. Its "race" propaganda tends strongly to divide the White race and nations and to pit minorities against them.

If anyone in the U.S. or elsewhere thinks differently, let them take even the first faltering step toward a racial protective organisation such as the B'nai B'rith's Anti-Defamation League and they will be smeared as anti-semites and hounded out of public life almost overnight by the news media. "private" investigators and all prodded into action by a nationwide avalanche of organised Jewish protest.

In their drive for universal racial equality, the A.D.L. found a doctrine which not only makes the small nucleus of Jews in the world perfectly safe to practise their own rigid racial and national exclusiveness, and at the same time to pursue their own national and international objectives, but a doctrine which also effectively conceals from the non-Jewish masses of the world one of the fundamental objects of their whole drive for "racial equality", which is precisely this safety and immunity.

Such, then, is the B'nai B'rith, whose influence and power in the world have grown to fantastic proportions with the passing of the years. Its contacts with its foreign lodges have vastly extended its influence into all foreign governments, where Jewish members continue to play the age-old "back stair" diplomacy and to exercise the "terrible power of the purse".

CENTRE FOR WORLD CONTROL

In America and other countries of the West, the rise of Zionism has gone side by side with the rise of Communism. The Zionists work from the top, the Communists from below.

The power exerted by Zionists in the world today is power at the highest political level in world affairs it is world power.

Their conquest of Palestine was not merely a return of Jews to an "ancient homeland", but an attempt to set up world power there.

The importance of Palestine to them was emphasised in a statement by Nahum Goldman, a president of the World Jewish Congress, who said:

"The Jews might have had Uganda, Madagascar and other places for the establishment of a Jewish Fatherland, but they want absolutely nothing except Palestine; not because the Dead Sea water by evaporation can produce Five Trillion Dollars worth of metalloids and powdered metal; not because the sub-soil of Palestine contains twenty times more petroleum than all the combined reserves of the two Americas; but because Palestine is the crossroads of Europe, Asia and

Theory of Chiropractic

Man's Life Line

By J. D. Shepherd, DC

The purpose of this letter is to show the importance of the nervous system.

Man has only four kinds of primary flesh (tissue). Nerve tissue is the first to show up in prenatal life. Two and one half weeks after conception it shows as brain and stem. It is the transmission belt. It is the engineer to create the other three tissues: bone, muscles, and the protective tissue. It is the bond between visible man and invisible man; between material and immaterial man.

Man becomes mighty. Man can move mountains and pick rocks off the moon, but man can not move one finger without help from the Almighty by way of the nervous system.

B. J. Palmer used to say, "To eat is human; to digest is divine." To plant a dead man's heart is human skill but for it to be accepted is another thing. Bones, hair, teeth and finger nails are all bone tissue, but it takes divine selection to select the right materials from the food we eat, and deliver it to the right places.

The chiropractic principle is based on the theory that health depends on a normal uninterrupted transmission of nerve energy. It teaches that the cause of disease is internal rather than external. This discovery required a brand new approach. Consequently adjustment rather than treating effect. That shocks beyond the point of tolerance cause fixations of the spine, setting up a chain action of nerve energy interference. This theory in the scientific field was the missing link discovered by D. D. Palmer in 1895.

Let us take one example. Five men fall through the ice into cold water. Only one gets pneumonia. He didn't catch it. He already had the cause: a partial block. His nervous system could not take the shock. The spinal fixation set up a chain action. A slow death to lung tissue set in. Fever develops. Fever is never a disease. If fixation is removed fever subsides in due time, depending on time and repair work to be done.

Chiropractic is a new way of life, and should be used for little health problems, like colds. It is the little ones that develop into big ones. There just is no substitute for spinal adjustments.

Pain is not a disease. Pain killing drugs block nerve energy. Adjustments open. Why isn't it better to open man's life line than to block it?

$ The Magic of Money $

by P. A. del Valle

Let no taxpayer fail to ask his Representatives and Senators how much it cost them to bring about the so-called Peace of Vietnam and Korea, the cease-fire between Egypt and Israel (including the U.S. closing of the Suez Canal) and the latest triumph of our modern Machiavelli in a cease-fire between Syria and Israel.

Some say we paid, or promised to pay, the U.S.S.R. reparations for their expense in among our enemies in North Vietnam. Among these payments, easements, etc. two major transactions show through the veils of the news media. The first, the "sale" of our grain to the U.S.S.R. (on the cuff of course) to the detriment of our own economy and the rise in the prices of our food to fantastic figures. Some estimate this wonderful illusory "peace" in Vietnam alone was worth $6 billion of our taxpayers' hard earned money. The second part of this magical formula, for a peace which is non-existent, for the war continues and as of this "Flag Day," 14 June, 1974, some 1,200 of our "Missing in Action" men are still unaccounted for, sustained, a wonderful easement of the Soviet debt to the U.S.A. for our help in WW II. They, the U.S.S.R., will pay one cent on each dollar of the billions of dollars owed (some put it at 15 billions), without interest and 20 years to pay and they do not have to return the hundreds of ships we "loaned" them.

So much for Vietnam deals. Consider the new peace in the Near East. The cease-fire on a new line is all that has been accomplished in the Israeli Egypt War. How much did Mr. Kissinger offer the two combatants to achieve this cease-fire? And what does the U.S.S.R. stand to gain? This is a logical question because we now know that part of the magic of our Machiavelli, Kissinger is our clearing and reopening the Suez Canal, a multi-million dollar job whose cost will be charged to the U.S. Navy which has been ordered to accomplish it. This means you, Mr. Taxpayer, will pick up the tab while the much reduced U.S. Navy will get that many millions less for the new ships it needs. All the deals Kissinger makes appear to be deep access to the taxpayers as we shall probably never know how much in cash and goods Egypt and Israel get but you can bet it will be plenty. But how does the U.S.S.R. benefit? This powerful alien they have in the Mediterranean will be sure to reach the Gulf of Oman, the Arabian Sea, the Gulf of Aden, the Persian Gulf and the Indian Ocean route to Australia, Indonesia, the Philippines, India, China, and mainland China. At the very least they will extend their control of the sea from the Mediterranean (from which they have practically banished our oil fleet) to the Indian Ocean and the Arabian Sea. This is worth many millions of rubles to the U.S.S.R.

While the opening of the Suez Canal will shorten the tankers' trip from the Gulf of Persia to the markets of Europe and America, it is doubtful the enormous sea-going tankers now making the trip around the Cape of Good Hope could be put through the canal as it existed prior to the war. Be that as it may, the Rockefeller may also profit. Everybody profits except you, Mr. American Taxpayer!

Let us consider now what our tireless Secretary of State may secretly have done with the magic of our tax money, to persuade the U.S.S.R. Syria and Israel to follow the classic example of Egypt and set up a new cease-fire line. Reparations to the U.S.S.R. for the money they spent to arm Syria, would naturally be considered. For Syria, in addition to regaining some of her lost territory, a nice little check on the U.S. Treasury (this means you, Mr. Taxpayer) for Israel a few more billions in arms, food and just plain "foreign aid." All this and the enormous increase in the price of fuel, food, housing, clothing, welfare, etc. affects you, Mr. Taxpayer.

This brings up a question whose puppet is the perpetuator, Kissinger? This quotation from the Youth Action News (1211 Box 112, Alexandria, Va. 22311) supports a possible answer I had in my mind. "Youth Action has discovered a mass of evidence that the October 1973 Mideast war was ignited by the Rockefeller-Kissinger branch of the Council on Foreign Relations (C.F.R.). The 'Yom Kippur' war was one of the most cleverly contrived Rockefeller maneuvers in history. The war gave the Rockefeller oil gang the perfect excuse to skyrocket fuel prices to add to the C.F.R. bankers' profits (already bulging from the harvest of the 10-year no-win war in Vietnam)."

It seems a logical conclusion that here we are dealing not with President Nixon, not with Nixon's Secretary of State Kissinger, but with David Rockefeller the head of that tribe. Let no taxpayer forget who it is who is making him an economic terrorist. I suggest that as the first step in self defense, the taxpayers all write for a copy of Youth Action News "The Great Rockefeller Energy Hoax", 10 copies for $3.00. Send them to your fellow taxpayers. It will be rewarding to all. Every item in this remarkable publication is of great interest to us taxpayers for it also mentions another tax sucking set of vampires, the Rothschilds, whose intake of our tax money since they fixed the Federal Reserve Corporation upon us has put the U.S. in their debt for over 400 billions since 1913. Yes sir, Mr. Taxpayer, we are being bled dry by two sets of international Robber Barons. Between them, of course, there is rivalry, for both are monopolistic in character, and the U.S.A. is the richest and most easily bled victim in the world.

There is already a tax revolt here, based on the unlawful actions of the Internal Revenue Service. Both the nays for our wealth will resist this revolt. Their controlled media will never give it a line. Both of these monsters desire the U.S. Constitution and do all they can to weaken it. And both are definitely anti-Christian for even Satan fears Christ! "The gates of hell will not prevail against My church."

And this brings us to the most hopeful and important portion of this short essay, based upon the Gospel (John 16): "Amen, amen, I say to you, if you ask the Father anything in My Name, He will give it to you." If you are a Christian Mr. Taxpayer, you will, with faith in the words of our Lord and Savior, ask the Father, in His Name, to deliver our country from these powerful worshippers of Mammon.

The Jewish War Against the Christian World

By Eustace Mullins

EUSTACE MULLINS

Richmond, Virginia, former capital of the Confederacy and now capital of the State of Virginia, is a prosperous Southern town which is seemingly at peace with the world. That is to say, the Christian population of Richmond believes itself to be at peace with the world. The Jewish population, which controls from fifty to seventy-five per cent of Richmond's business, knows it is at war with the Christian world. Recently, the Jews lost a skirmish in this war. Three Jewish students at Douglas S. Freeman High School here brought suit against Henrico County, the operator of the school. Their complaint was that at the approaching graduation ceremony, a brief and perfunctory prayer was to open the proceedings. These Jews, James Grossberg, Judy Gordon, and Helaine Wolpert, complained that this short prayer would be offensive to them.

This Jewish attack against the Christian majority was, as usual, conducted with typical duplicity. A Jewish lawyer, Artie Samuel, of the American Civil Liberties Union, conducted the attack without charge. ACLU is supported by tax-exempt donations. It is an interesting point that any group which attacks Christianity can gain instant tax-exemption from the Federal Government, but a group which calls itself Christian finds that there is a long and rocky road towards obtaining tax exemption.

During the hearings, which were held in U.S. District Court before Judge Robert Merhige, the Jews never once referred to the fact that they were Jews, or that they were attacking Christians. Not once did the County officials, who were defending the case, bring up this crucial point. Not once did the Richmond newspapers, which gave the case front page publicity, refer to the fact that the Jews would be deeply offended if, during this short prayer, the hated name of Jesus Christ might be mentioned, causing them unbearable suffering.

Despite the fact that the principal factors in the case were never discussed in court, Judge Merhige gave the complaint long and dutiful study. He finally decided that he could not ban the brief prayer, although he was very apologetic in his opinion, apparently fearing that he might offend the Jews who could some day place him on the Supreme Court.

After the case was over, it was revealed that the County Attorney, William G. Broadus, had deliberately concealed crucial evidence in the case. He publicly admitted that he knew that one of the plaintiffs, James F. Grossberg, had been illegally a student at Douglas Freeman High School for the past two years, and therefore could not legally be a party to the case. Not only did he conceal this, but in cross-examining Grossberg he stealthily aid the Jew in his attack against the Christian world, while the Christian tax-slaves find that no one represents them in this struggle. The lesson is that the Christian must defend himself, not only against the Jewish onslaught which is carried on all fronts, but against the treachery of our public officials. Today when a man seeks office, he is not concerned with "serving the public." He is putting his body on the block to be auctioned off to the highest bidder. The high bid, of course, comes from the Jewish gold which Christians in America are forbidden to own.

The Jewish attack against a brief prayer in a public school, which few Christians would find essential to the practice of their religion, is important to the Jew because he must erode every possible source of moral support or solace of the host population. The Christian must be stripped of every consolation in his religion or in his nation, he must be naked before the onslaught of the parasite. The intellectuals may ask, what is the meaning of this situation? The answer is, "What is the philosophy of the mosquito which risks a death-dealing slap to draw blood from your arm, and incidentally, to inject a little poison to remind you of his presence? He is fulfilling his biological mission. The question to be asked of the victim is, 'Is your only mission on earth the providing of sustenance for the parasite?'"

LINKS AFRICA AND S. AMERICA

Missing Piece Found in Continent 'Puzzle'

NEW YORK 46—British and American scientists, drilling into the past in the floor of the South Atlantic, have found the last piece of a great continental jigsaw puzzle, it was announced Thursday.

It is the final piece of evidence that South America and Africa were once part of the vast supercontinent Gondwanaland, along with Australia, New Zealand and Antarctica.

The scientists found a finger-shaped extension of the Falkland Plateau, under two miles of water and sediment, reaching 730 miles eastward from the Dulziel and Peter Barker of Birmingham made their discovery as co-chief scientists on the recently completed 36th leg of the Deep Sea Drilling Project, which ended in Rio de Janeiro May 22.

The project is being run by the Scripps Institution of Oceanography of U.C. San Diego for the National Science Foundation.

The Falkland Plateau extension fills in what had been an unknown gap in the reconstruction of Gondwanaland, which began breaking up 200 million years ago.

This piece of the puzzle remained dry land, with a Mediterranean climate, for

City Survival-City Resistance

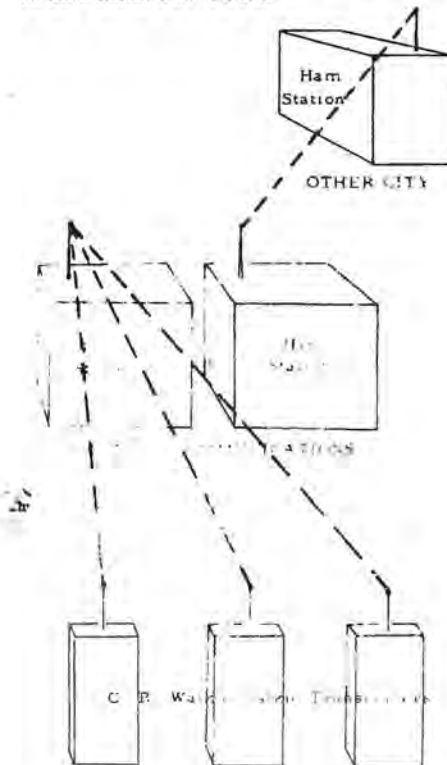

COMMUNICATIONS

Communications within a resistance or under ground organization are messengers, telephones, mail drops, two-way radios, short-wave radios, newspapers, and an underground post office system. As many of these facilities as possible should be developed before hostilities begin. It would be almost impossible to obtain short-wave transceivers, to train operators in the equipment they must handle, and to learn codes overnight. As many people as possible within the organization should have a thorough understanding of communications and each member should specialize in one of the facilities. One person may develop a telephone code, while another learns Morse code or to repair equipment. The radio equipment should be kept as portable as possible for security reasons. It would also be a great help to the organization if someone in the Communications Branch was trained as a wire-tapper.

There are many instances when a message drop is necessary. These drops are pre-arranged so that the "receiver" would know where to pick up his message. This could be a certain book in the public library, or at a bookstore. It could be a particular seat in a theater or auditorium, with the message taped to the bottom of the seat or a knife could be used to cut a hidden pocket in an upholstered seat and the message placed within the slit. Baggage lockers should be used with extreme caution as they are checked periodically. There is also the matter of exchanging the locker key or depositing it in a safe place. A public telephone booth makes an excellent message drop. The message can be faintly written on a particular page of the phone book. Many ingenious methods of communicating messages can be discovered or created. Remember at all times, that these messages should always be put into code or cipher form in case of discovery.

A communications' systems network must be devised before the enemy strikes. Codes and ciphers should be learned by as many members as possible. The code or cipher system should be changed periodically.

The communications facilities themselves are whatever you have on hand and whatever you can obtain. There should be walkie-talkie communications within small areas that are also in contact with an area Communications Central. Area Centrals would use Citizens Band transceivers between themselves, and cities could keep in contact through the use of amateur short-wave sets.

Example: "This is Barney-channel 3." This has informed your contact of who you are by code, that you have a message for him, and where you can be reached immediately. If you think that the office or home phones of the cooperating members are being tapped, then this cryptic message may alert whoever is tapping the phone. In that case it would be well to code even that simple message. Example: "Hello, Jim, this is BARNEY. I am going to be here for 3 days, why don't we get together?"

U.S. POSTAL SERVICE

If you have to communicate information by the regular postal service, it would be better if you use certain precautionary measures in case the mail falls into enemy hands. The letter should be as brief as possible and in code. It should be signed with only a code name and with no return address, either inside or outside. Always mail these letters from a post office or a mailbox across the city from where you live. Never incriminate the receiver of the letter by the contents of the message for it is always possible that the code can be broken. Long-hand should never be used in writing the letter. Printing or a typewriter is much more secure. The letter itself should be placed in a double envelope and both flaps of each envelope taped down securely with transparent tape. Always send the mail first class.

EMERGENCY TELEPHONE NETWORK

The emergency network should include all members of the organization. If an emergency were to arise, the essential information should be given immediately to Central Communications. Central Communications would then call two members in the network, each of whom would also call two others until everyone would be informed. This means prior to any emergency, each member would be assigned to people that he would have the responsibility of calling. Central Communications would have the coded numbers of all the members either at home or at work in case someone could not be reached. If one of the members couldn't be reached, Central Communications would be informed and there the duty would like to contact the missing member by some other means, possibly radio or messenger. It is necessary to practice this emergency system in order that it may run smoothly. A practice alert should be given about once a month. This insures that all home and work telephone numbers are up to date. Practice alerts are also a check on the accuracy and timing of the system. When calling a member during an emergency, it is absolutely necessary to talk to that person and not leave a

JOINED THE CAPTIVE THROG

The rise of Zion has been a fantastic thing to behold. But no more fantastic than the present campaign of the B'nai B'rith to campaign and to collect funds month for the South African Defence Force, the South African Police and Israel's armed forces — and doing so in the name of fighting for Western civilization against the Red tide, and using the South African national flag for its Zionist ends.

For over sixty years political leaders of the Christian West have been grouping themselves, like Rodin's Burgurers of Calais, with a Zionist halter round their necks.

Do we need any further evidence that Mr. Vorster, Mr. P.W. Botha and General H.J. van den Bergh and other Afrikaner "nationalists" have joined the captive throg?

of the New Christian Crusade (NCC) under COMPARET's leadership was presently active in the San Diego area.

On 4/17/75, subject was interviewed by SAs [redacted] and [redacted] at his residence, 4930 Fairfield Street, San Diego, California, at which time he advised the following:

His organization for years has been called "The Heritage," using the same name that his radio program has been using over a long period of time. COMPARET further advised that his group does not use the name New Christian Crusade Church and is a separate organization from that of New Christian Crusade Church of the Los Angeles, California, area. COMPARET stated that although he has on occasion published some articles written by COMPARET in [redacted] newspaper, "Christian Vanguard," this has come about primarily because COMPARET is considered a Bible authority concerning information pertaining to matters of the white race.

SD 157-4076

CONPARRY advised that he has never advocated violence against anyone from his pulpit, although he considers it Biblical truth that Christians are the descendants of Adam, the Jews are descendants from Satan, and that the Jews are the enemies of the Arabs or white race.

CONPARRY indicated that he has been acquainted for some years with WILLIAM POTTER GALT who heads the Ministry of Christ Church and that he does not agree with some of GALT's methods. For instance, CONPARRY said that GALT had originated the idea of the "Posse Comitatus." CONPARRY stated that he is a retired attorney and is well familiar with the definition of Posse Comitatus, and he made this information available to GALT. However, GALT had read a law book and felt that he had become quite knowledgeable concerning the law of Posse Comitatus. CONPARRY further advised that it is his belief that GALT has made remarks and statements which might indicate that he was advocating violence primarily as a means of attracting more people to his organization and to the meetings he was conducting. In CONPARRY's opinion, GALT believes himself to be a Bible scholar but really does not know very much about what the Bible teaches.

When questioned as to any possible knowledge he might have of a group of men from the Escondido, California, area who call themselves the Crusaders and who are members of both the New Christian Crusade Church and the Ministry of Christ Church, including [REDACTED] and [REDACTED] CONPARRY stated that both of these men attend his meetings in San Diego but that he knows nothing about their activities connected with the Ministry of Christ Church, the Crusaders, the New Christian Crusade Church, or with [REDACTED] or [REDACTED]

NEW CHRISTIAN CRUSADE CHURCH

A copy of a newsletter of the New Christian Crusade Church (NCCC) (See description below), Post Office Box 3247, Hollywood, California, dated Christmas 1974, written by James K. Warner, Head of the NCCC, contained the following quoted information:

"As you may know the PATRIOTIC LEADERSHIP CONFERENCE in Morborne, Mo. in September was a great success. Leaders of over 90 different organizations were present. These leaders represented over 700,000 patriotic Americans!

"Our [REDACTED] has urged us to follow up the September meeting with regional meetings all over America to further co-operation between right wing organizations. We are now planning to hold a WEST COAST Patriotic Leadership Conference in the Los Angeles area in February 1975. b7C

"Patriotic leaders from California, Colorado, Texas, Arizona, New Mexico, Washington, Nevada, and Oregon, will be attending. The [REDACTED] of the WEST COAST Patriot Leadership Conference is [REDACTED] from California. b7C

"This Conference will be held in Los Angeles on Saturday February 15th. ONLY leaders of patriotic groups will be invited to attend.

"On Sunday February 16th the day following the West Coast Patriotic Leadership Conference we will hold the National Convention of the New Christian Crusade Church in Los Angeles. Many of those attending the WCPLC will stay over to meet with members of the New Christian Crusade Church.

[REDACTED] of the UNITED KLANS OF AMERICA (largest Ku Klux Klan in America) will be the key speaker at our National Convention." (See Appendix) b7C

The NCCC, Post Office Box 3247, Hollywood, California, is a white racist organization that promotes the concept that all Caucasians are the true Israelites and descendants of Adam, as opposed to members of other races. This organization has a close cooperative association with retired Colonel Reverend William Potter Gale of the Ministry of Christ Church (MCC), also known as the Identity Group (See Appendix). The current [REDACTED] of the NCCC is [REDACTED] b7C

The Western Regional meeting of various right-wing extremists, resulting from the meeting which took place with [REDACTED] in Norborne, Missouri, during 1974, was scheduled to take place in Los Angeles over the weekend of February 15-16, 1975; however, it has been decided to hold this meeting only on February 16, 1975, beginning at 2:00 PM. b7C

In addition to [REDACTED] of the Ku Klux Klan and [REDACTED] of the National States Rights Party (NSRP) (See Appendix), [REDACTED] of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (See description below), is also to attend this meeting, possibly as a guest speaker. b7C

In a newsletter-type document, dated May 15, 1974, [redacted] identifying himself as the [redacted] of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan (KKK), stated, "the purpose of the KKK is to secure a total political and cultural victory for our race, and to lead it to higher levels of development, physically, mentally, and spiritually. This alone is its meaning and task."

b7C

[redacted] also indicated that the publishing offices of the Knights of the Ku Klux Klan are: P.O. Box 1234, Denham Springs, Louisiana 70726; and, that his organization published the Klan magazine called "The Crusader".

A meeting of major right-wing personalities took place in downtown Los Angeles on February 16, 1975, attended by approximately 125 to 150 persons. This meeting, originally scheduled to take place at the Holiday Inn in Van Nuys, California, beginning at 2:00 PM, began at 3:00 PM at the Mayfair Hotel, 7th and Hartford, Los Angeles, and ended at approximately 7:00 PM. The change in the place of the meeting came about because the manager of the Holiday Inn in Van Nuys reportedly received threats by the Jewish Defense League (JDL) (See Appendix for characterization) to bomb the place and murder his family because of the scheduled meeting.

A convention sponsored by the New Christian Crusade Church (NCCC), attended by 90 to 100 persons, was held between 3:30 PM and 6:30 PM on February 16, 1975, at the Mayfair Hotel, Los Angeles, California.

The 1975 National Convention of the NCCC was originally scheduled to be held at the Holiday Inn, 8244 Orion Street, Van Nuys, California, on February 16, 1975, from 2:00 PM to 5:00 PM and from 7:00 PM to 11:00 PM on the same date. However, the manager of the Holiday Inn received threats from the JIL against his life and his family and there was an alleged bomb threat at the Holiday Inn. Therefore, the meeting place was changed to the Mayfair Hotel in Los Angeles and finally got underway at approximately 3:30 PM with [redacted] introducing himself, apologizing for the inconvenience and the small room in which they had to meet and then introducing [redacted] of the Christian Vanguard, a publication of the NCCC, and the two delegates from the Western Anti-Communist League (not further described) and the two delegates from the Cuban Freedom Fighters (not further described). He then spoke about how the various right-wing groups should work together and support each other in order to accomplish their goals more rapidly and explained that for this reason, leaders from the various right-wing groups had been invited to speak at this National Convention. He finished by re-emphasizing the need for unity to rid our country of "Jew devils and niggers".

[REDACTED] of the National Socialist Liberation Front (NSLF) (see description below) was the speaker following [REDACTED]. He explained that he had been a member of another "Party" for a number of years but that the "Party" had never done much more than just talk. As a result, he and a few others left this "Party" and formed the new group, the NSLF. [REDACTED] explained that the NSLF is mainly an underground group with few above-ground activities. He said that his organization are doers, having decided that "talking, debating and handing out pamphlets isn't getting the job done". [REDACTED] then talked about the recent bombings that had happened at three different locations--one in Santa Monica, another at a "left-wing group's headquarters" and another at a bookstore. [REDACTED] gave the impression that the NSLF was responsible but then said, "No, I didn't do it. I was at a 'Denny's' in El Monte talking to a waitress when it happened." He then held up a piece of paper that showed a hand holding a revolver and said, "We don't pass out papers with things like this on it, trying to scare people. We are taking the gun in our own hand." He further talked about a revolution and that they (NSLF) did not believe in law and order. He said that when they protest against a "group or bookstore or whatever", something will happen (violently) either on the day of the protest or the following day or the next week, but that it would happen. [REDACTED] got a dissenting reaction from two or three members of the audience, and [REDACTED] immediately stood and asked the people to show [REDACTED] some

[REDACTED] then said that the NSLF is not for everyone, acknowledging that some disagree with the ways and philosophies of the NSLF but stated that he hoped the NSLF could help in getting rid of the Jews and blacks. He received a resounding applause when he finished speaking. b7C

[REDACTED] was by far the most radical speaker of the day. He openly called for the use of guns, bombings and violence against black and Jewish integrationists. At one point he said that the activists within his NSLF are not in favor of law and order but are only in favor of the white race. He stated that it is "not enough merely to prepare to meet the leftists and race mixers when they confront us," but rather that he intends to "confront them with violence before they get a chance to do so." [REDACTED] dramatized and justified his position by concluding, "Every day we wait, another white girl is raped. Another interracial marriage takes place. Another mongrel milatto is born." Though [REDACTED] undoubtedly did not have the backing of every person present, he received a greater applause at the conclusion of his speech than did any of the speakers, including [REDACTED] b7C

[REDACTED] advised that on February 16, 1975, a meeting was held of the following groups: b2/b7D

Christian Crusaders
National States Rights Party
National Socialist Liberation Front (NSLF)

This meeting was at the Mayfair Hotel, 1276 West Seventh Street, Los Angeles, with about 170 people present. It was to have been held at the Holiday Inn in Van Nuys, however threats, including bomb threats, caused the Holiday Inn to cancel the agreement. ✓

[REDACTED] who was responsible for getting the meeting together, was the first speaker. He said everyone was working for the same thing, but he was trying to get everyone to work together. He said the reason they could never get anything done was because the groups were always fighting among themselves. HOW TO STOP WORLD WAR III

*... We didn't stop the slaughter of the heroic Hungarians by the bloody Communists.
... We didn't land any Marines in Egypt to stop the butchery of innocent Arabs by the invading Israeli hordes.*

But when the Jews think that the Arab victims they have robbed, murdered and thrown into the desert are about to rise up in wrath against the criminal state of Israel, they scream hysterically, and we obligingly send in the U. S. Marines - even though:

THE PARLIAMENT OF LEBANON DID NOT WANT THEM!

The Commander-in-Chief of the Lebanon Government Forces learned of the coming of our Marines only two hours before they hit the beaches -

AND WAS GOING TO SHOOT AT THEM!

Why? How come??

THE ONLY ANSWER is that the International Bolshevik-Zionist-Jewish Power Machine has gained control of governments all over the world through subversion, bribery and terror, and is now being challenged openly ONLY by the Arab States.

Consider these SUPPRESSED FACTS!

- 1. Israel has the ONLY Communist Party in the whole Middle East!
- 2. President Nasser of the United Arab Republic has OUTLAWED the Communist Party and has long since thrown all his Reds in jail (while our U. S. Supreme Court is letting all our Reds out)!
- 3. Over 25% of the Israelis are Communists, and many live in Kibbutzes - naked Communist communities!

AND YET - your Jewish-controlled TV, your Jewish-controlled radio, your Jewish-controlled newspapers, your Jewish-controlled magazines, your Jewish movies, along with very other medium of public information in America, are lying to you that the Arabs are communists and the Israelis are our friends!

IT'S TOO LATE TO BE POLITE!

Our American hero, Charles A. Lindbergh, our martyred Secretary of Defense, James Forrestal, and the great Douglas MacArthur have ruined their careers trying to

The Jews are using, abusing and debasing this great land which welcomed them and are lying to and confusing our people to hide their monstrous guilt.

JEWISH CRIMES

Jews created Communism for the conquest and exploitation of the non-Jewish world. This Jewish plot is the primary cause of the crushing taxation we must bear and may yet be the source of our ultimate destruction in the fearful holocaust of a Jewish H-Bomb war!

12 out of the 13 spies convicted of espionage for the Soviet Union have been JEWS!

ALL the top leaders of Communism, in spite of all name-changing to mislead you, have been, and are now, JEWS!

ZIONISM IS TREASON!

The Jews openly boast, in their own papers and journals, that their true loyalty is to World Jewry, and NOT to the host nations which put up with them.

Rabbi Stephen S. Wise, hailed for decades as the acknowledged spokesman of Jews in the United States, said:

"I AM NOT AN AMERICAN CITIZEN OF THE JEWISH FAITH. I AM A JEW."

(The New York Times, June 13, 1938)

The Jews have been disloyal and have lied to and ruined every country that has tolerated them.

The Jews are the driving force behind the unceasing agitation which is the cause of our racial strife. The President of the NAACP, for instance, is NOT a Negro, as you are led to assume, but a repulsive little Jew named Spingarn!

The Jews are always the driving force behind every disruptive movement to bastardize and mongrelize our White America under the guise of a phoney, revolting "Brotherhood."

TIME HAS RUN OUT!

We can no longer afford to be "nice" and whisper anxiously about the Jewish Power fear of the Jewish Power Machine of smear and terror which keeps them throttled and serving the arrogant will of these pathological ego-maniacs!

Only an aroused and vocal America can give our elected officials the kind of moral support they need to get off their knees, rise up like red-blooded Americans, and strike down this Jewish monster.

Let us show our President that America will back him up and cheer him on if he will defy the Jews and act on behalf of the American people in spite of their intimidation and threats!

JOIN US TOMORROW IN MASS DEMONSTRATIONS IN CITIES ALL OVER AMERICA

In Washington, D. C., there will be THREE demonstrations: one at the White House, one at the Embassy of Jew-Occupied Palestine, at 1621 - 22nd Street, N. W., and another at the Embassy of Jew-Occupied Russia, at 1125 - 16th Street N.W., when bus loads of American patriots, Hungarian Freedom Fighters, and hundreds of other people whose countries have been raped by the International Zionist-Communist Jews will join forces to rally support for our terrorized government officials, so that they can defy the Jewish tormentors of the world, and bring, at last, a real and final solution to the world's foremost problem -

The International Communist-Zionist JEW!!

NOTE: We expect the Jews to employ their usual "free-speech" tactics in dealing with us. We have thousands of documents and other evidence to substantiate EVERY charge we make that the Jews are the basic cause of almost ALL the world's most desperate problems, from Communism and Zionism to integration and Juvenile Delinquency (which they foster by publishing most of the worst "comic books")

But the Jews will NEVER meet us in
